Today

If Theodore Were Here Coolidge Will Go Through Rockefeller and the Atom Religion and Truth

Current Events

—By Arthur Brisbane—

(Copyright, 1924, by Star Company)

CAN you imagine what Theodore Roosevelt would be doing about now if that Teapot Dome scandal were uncovered in his administration? He would have all the liberal givers of cash before him, he, personally, inspecting their satchels.

He would have a battleship on its way to France to bring back Sinclair, if the law would let him, and whether it would or not. His teeth would be snapping and his hair bristling. There would be real fireworks, and how he would enjoy it.

President Coolidge will proceed more quietly, but he will go all the way through to the end undoubtedly.

THE Attorney-General, declining with good taste to prosecute Mr. Fall, who was his associate in Mr. Harding's Cabinet, suggests that President Coolidge select two "outstanding lawyers" to deal with the Navy oil land scandal.

Senator Borah is a lawyer. Why not make him one of the "outstanding" counsel? He would stand out as an individual that bribe-giving corporations and their representatives could not "get."

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE should be careful for the sake of his campaign in 1924 not to select two outstanding corporation lawyers.

The people have seen the big corporations buying navy oil lands with bribe money. Now they want to see somebody quite APART from corporations looking into the matter and punishing those that are guilty.

HIRAM JOHNSON and Senator Borah, both lawyers, would make excellent "outstanding counsel" in this incident. Senator Reed, of Missouri, added. Senators Johnson and Borah would lend a desirable non-partisan touch, and please the public.

The important thing is not to have any of the "lady finger" type of corporation lawyer that begins to shiver and bow as soon as he comes within fifty feet of a million dollars.

THE most interesting thing on earth at present, for those that think at all, is the construction of the atom, bewildering marvel of the infinitely small.

Most enlightened is the Rockefeller contribution of $4',000 to the laboratory in Copenhagen of Dr. Bohr, who leads in the study of atoms. His study may lead to release of a power more important to the world than the use of steam or electricity.

IF THE atom interests you, get Bertrand Russell's little book, "The A. B. C. of the Atom." A few years ago, the atom, a word that in Greek means "not to be cut," was supposed to be the ultimate, possible, smallest particle of matter.

Now we know that the atom is an infinitely small reproduction of our solar system. At the centre, like our sun, a nucleus charged with positive electricity, electrons charged with negative electricity, revolve around it like the planets around the sun.

THE SMALLER the size the higher the speed is the rule throughout the universe.

The earth goes around the sun once in 365 days.

One giant planet goes around the sun once in fifty years.

Inside the atom the electron

Continued on Page 2, Col. 7.

COURTS TO GET OIL SCANDAL

THE WEATHER

Boston and vicinity: Cloudy with occasional rains late tonight or Wednesday; somewhat warmer tonight; moderate southwest winds.

Sun rises at 7:02, sets at 4:54.
Moon rises at 12:30 a. m.
High tide at 4:43 a. m., 5:11 p. m.

Temperature: Maximum, 39 at 10 a. m.; minimum, 34 at 1 a. m.; average, 35.5.

Light all vehicles at 5:24 p. m.

BOSTON AMERICAN

LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

VOL. 20—No. 267 | Copyright, 1924, by N. E. Newspaper Pub. Co. | BOSTON, TUESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1924 | Registered in U. S. Patent Office | 3 CENTS | 12c Weekly Delivered in Home

NIGHT
LATEST CLOSING STOCKS
"BEST RADIO PAGE"—PAGE 16

$100,000 JEWEL ROBBERY

So. End Doctor Drives Disease Through Skin

HARDING ROMANCE BARED

CHUM TELLS OF BROKEN HEART

Miss Hamlin Says Grief at the Engagement of Stanley Hawks Led to Suicide

Miss Anna Hamlin today told of events that led to the suicide of her dearest chum, Margaret Eliot Harding.

Miss Harding shot herself on Saturday last in the home of her father, William P. G. Harding, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank in Boston, at No. 371 Beacon street.

Her suicide followed announcement in a Washington newspaper of the engagement of Stanley Hawks, Yale graduate attached to the State Department, to wed Miss Margaret Baldwin of Florence, Italy.

Miss Harding wrote farewell notes to Hawks, her father and Miss Hamlin.

Miss Hamlin said today:

"For many months Margaret and Stanley Hawks were in love with each other. It looked like a sure match. But some months ago Mr. Hawks met Miss Baldwin and fell in love with her on sight.

STILL LOVED HIM

"Margaret's health, from a nervous point of view, began to fail. She still loved Stanley and at the turn of affairs seemed to love him all the more.

"Last week she learned while in Washington that Mr. Hawks had proposed to Miss Baldwin, but she didn't receive definite news that Miss Baldwin had accepted him until after she reached Boston last Thursday.

"The news that he had proposed was a terrible shock to Margaret and her nervous condition grew worse. She immediately left Washington for Boston.

"Not until Saturday, half an hour before her death, did she actually know that Miss Baldwin had accepted Hawks and that they planned to wed. I believe she had feared it.

"At 1:30 Saturday afternoon her maid took a Washington newspaper upstairs and gave it to Margaret. In it was the announcement of the

Continued on Page 3, Col. 3.

DEBUTANTE SUICIDE AND HER CHUM

Photo by Harris & Ewing.

ANNA HAMLIN AND MARGARET HARDING
Miss Hamlin, on left, Washington girl, a member of the Vincent and Chilton Clubs, was the "best friend" of Miss Harding. Miss Hamlin came to Boston from Washington to attend the funeral of her friend.

CHARGES MILLIONS LOST ON AIRCRAFT

Washington, Jan. 29.—A sweeping investigation of the air service was demanded in the House today by Representative Nelson, Republican, Wisconsin, who declared he was informed that conditions which now exist are a continuation of the same practice by the same parties "that wrote the blackest page in America's war history in the aircraft failure."

Introducing a resolution asking for the appointment of a special committee of inquiry, he said:

"I am preferring no charges against anybody. I simply wish to end this unspeakable condition in the air service or set at rest these charges, if found true."

"LOOTED U. S. OF MILLIONS."

Mr. Nelson said he had more than 7,000 documents, which, he added, "I am told will show the same conditions which existed during the darkest days of the black scandal in the air service now exists in those services and that the same firms who participated in the loot of more than $50,000,000 of the people's money are still getting the contracts under the same conditions and provisions they got those previous contracts."

ROB WIDOW OF $100,000 JEWELS

Rich Worcester Woman, Now in Florida, Victim of Mysterious Theft

Worcester, Jan. 29.—It became known here today that Mrs. Charles Hendy Hutchins, widow of the former head of Crompton & Knowles loom works, was robbed of jewelry estimated to be worth at least $100,000.

Mrs. Hutchins is visiting her stepson, Arthur K. Hutchins, at No. 3603 Indian Creek Drive, Miami, Fla. It is not known whether the jewels were taken from the home there or where, but they have disappeared.

The method employed by the robbers has not been made known, but latest advices indicated that efforts to trace the jewels and apprehend the thief have been fruitless. Previous to leaving for Florida some weeks ago the jewelry had been reposing safely in a safe deposit box in this city.

Mr. Hutchins died over two years ago and some months ago their place, Ard-Na-Clachan, at Shrewsbury, was sold to Howard D. Brewer, wholesale and retail druggist of this city and Boston.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN SEEKING JOB, KILLED

An unidentified man, about forty-five years old, was killed today in the Boston & Maine yards, East Somerville. The man had been interviewing the foreman of the Charlestown repair shops of the road, located in East Somerville, regarding a position and stepped out the door into the path of a mail car, which ran over him.

CANADIAN OLYMPIC HOCKEYISTS WIN 22-0

Chamonix, Jan. 29.—The Canadian hockey team triumphed over Sweden by a score of 22 to 0 in the Olympic series today.

BANK STATEMENT TODAY

Bos. Cl.,	$9,000,000	Bos. Bal.	$8,500,000
Bos. Bal.	28,000,000	Bos. Cl.	43,000,000
N. Y. Cl.	$44,000,000	N. Y. Bal.	77,000,000
N. Y. Bal.	77,000,000	N. Y. Cl.	$44,000,000

Yesterday.

Bos. Cl.,	$2,000,000	Bos. Bal.	28,000,000
Bos. Bal.	25,000,000	Bos. Cl.	42,000,000
N. Y. Cl.	$42,000,000	N. Y. Bal.	77,000,000
N. Y. Bal.	77,000,000	N. Y. Cl.	$42,000,000

PLAN TO GIVE OIL PROBE TO COURT

Coolidge and Congress Agree on Disposition of Muddle; Denby Demands Trial

Washington, Jan. 29.—Both the White House and Congress proceeded today with plans to throw the whole Fall-Doheny-Sinclair oil lease muddle into the courts.

In another dramatic debate the Senate not only pressed toward action on an annulment resolution, but heard renewed demands that Secretary Denby retire from the Cabinet because of his part in the leasing program.

A touch of drama thrilled the crowded galleries when Senator Robinson, Democratic leader, read Denby's statement declaring he would not resign, and demanding a "record vote" on the resolution which he said "would besmirch and defame" his name.

When the Cabinet assembled for its regular Tuesday session there were renewed indications that Mr. Coolidge expected the navy secretary to retain his post. In this attitude the administration has the support of the titular Republican leaders of the Senate.

A resolution expressing the sense of the Senate that the President request the immediate resignation of Attorney-General Daugherty was prepared today by Senator Wheeler of Montana.

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE.

The resolution declares the President has lost confidence in Mr. Daugherty, as exemplified by employment of outside counsel to prosecute the oil annulment suits. It also asserts that Mr. Daugherty has lost the confidence of Congress and of the American people, and that the Department of Justice has "fallen in to disrepute."

The attack on Mr. Denby, as well as the proposal to employ special

Continued on Page 2, Col. 1.

Radio's Best Features Today

BOSTON AMERICAN BAND WNAC, BOSTON THE SHEPARD STORES

8:00.—The Boston American Band, with Stanislao Gallo, conductor, will broadcast an interesting program from WNAC. G. Ray Sargent, waterfront reporter for the Boston American, and Frank H. Mason, financial editor, will tell some fascinating stories about their respective specialties.

GRAND OPERA WJY, NEW YORK CITY

7:00.—"Faust," presented by the Grand Opera Society of New York, 405 meters.

WEDGER QUITS JOB AS STATE'S BOMB EXPERT

Resigns Place to Accept Post of Chief Chemist With the Rail Signal Company

Walter I. Wedger, chief chemist of the State Department of Public Safety, and State expert on explosive for many years, tendered his resignation today.

He will leave the service of the State on March 1, having accepted the position of chief chemist of the Central Railway Signal Company, with main offices in Boston. He will have charge of several plants of the company in the United States and Canada where torpedoes and fuses are manufactured and other explosives used.

W. I. Wedger

Commissioner of Public Safety Alfred F. Foote accepted Mr. Wedger's resignation with reluctance, but congratulated him on the importance of his new work.

Mr. Wedger has been in the employ of the State for fourteen years, during which time he has investigated many bomb explosions and has figured in a number of murder trials.

Race Scratches

1—Frontiersman.
2—Anticipate, Rep. Carefree.
3—Molineux, Our Betsy, Randolph.
7—Tricks Felicitous, Serbian.
Weather cloudy; track fast.

BETITLED 'WIZARD' 'CURES' BY RAYS

Draws "Bad" Out of System of a Perfectly Healthy Patient

Today, this newspaper allows Dr. H. H. Thomas to introduce himself through the following:

"Received the sum of Ten Dollars ($10) From John Holmes for proffered services as regards his Melody, awaiting Repairs.

"DR. H. H. THOMAS."

It is an introduction in the form of a receipt Dr. Thomas tendered an American investigator.

Whose remains the doctor awaited is not known.

The doctor, who is colored, did not say. Neither did he reveal in hunting an imaginary ailment on the healthy young prober how he came to find him possessed of a "Melody."

In getting himself an education, Dr. Thomas seemingly skipped much of the elemental.

HAS MANY DEGREES

He has evidently sacrificed the opportunities of early schooling, such as reading, writing and spelling, to devote himself to his high calling. Long ago possibly he decided that the world would little care if he converted a malady into a melody, so long as he could boast of the degrees he parks back of his signature.

What's a mere melody to one who writes his name as does Thomas?

"Dr. H. H. Thomas, M. S., N. D., Ph. D., spectro chrome therapist psychologist and specialist in massage therapeutics and electrical treatments. Also President of the

Continued on Page 4, Col. 1.

CONFESSES SLAYING WEALTHY REALTOR

New York, Jan. 29 (I.N.S.).—A complete confession has been obtained from Frank J. Fitzpatrick which will clear up the mystery surrounding the murder of Edward F. Dolge, wealthy realtor of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., District Attorney John E. McGeehan of the Bronx stated today. Dolge was shot to death January 6. Fitzpatrick has been held under $50,000 bail as a material witness. Two others, James Leonard and Bruce Boldward, are also being held in connection with the crime.

Delivered to Your Home
12c Weekly for the Boston American

A Saving of Six Cents a Week

Regular Price 3c a Copy
If Not Delivered to Your Home
Telephone Your Orders
If You Are Not Getting the Boston American Delivered to Your Residence, Call
MAIN 5180
and Ask for Subscription Department
Your Order Will Receive Immediate Attention.

Prompt and Regular Delivery Guaranteed to All Parts of Metropolitan Boston

COAL $15.50
No Advance Since July
BATCHELDER BROS.
Incorporated
Phone ROXbury 2900

EAT Velvet MOLASSES CANDY
HILLDRETH'S ORIGINAL

Dr. True's Elixir keeps your digestive tract in order
The True Family Laxative

Chickie
STORY OF A BOSTON GIRL
STARTS IN 6 DAYS

Guard Against Grip and Influenza
Dr. John's Medicine builds strength.—Advt.

The Story of a Boston Girl CHICKIE Start It Feb. 4 in the American counsel to prosecute the oil annulment suits, were talked over at a White House conference attended by Senator Lodge and several other Senators. The President was not yet ready today, however, to announce who would be chosen to conduct the prosecution.

COOLIDGE FACES CRISIS IN OIL SCANDAL; CALLS CABINET SESSION

Continued from First Page.

Just before the Senate met the oil investigating committee heard a statement by an attorney for former Secretary Fall and decided to question tomorrow the physicians who have attended Mr. Fall since he came to Washington. The statement by his counsel today declared he was threatened with a nervous breakdown and requested that his testimony be taken in his sickroom.

The immediate subject of the Senate debate when the session began today was the resolution of Senator Walsh of Montana, calling on the President to employ special counsel and institute proceedings for annulment of both the Doheny and Sinclair leases.

FIGHT TO SAVE DENBY.

A different situation, however, confronted the resolution presented by Senator Robinson of Arkansas asking for the removal of Secretary Denby and other officials of the Navy Department whose connection with the leases indicates "misfeasance or malfeasance."

The Republican organization opposed the proposal, although they intimated that it might attract enough Democratic and insurgent Republican votes for adoption.

Meeting an hour earlier than usual, the Senate today plunged at once into its debate over the naval oil issue, with action in prospect during the day on the resolution of Senator Walsh, calling on the President to institute annulment proceedings.

At the outset of the debate Chairman Lenroot of the Oil Investigating Committee revealed that the purport of Archie Roosevelt's senatorial testimony, relating to charges of a $68,000 payment to the foreman of Secretary Fall's ranch, had been known to President Coolidge in advance of Mr. Roosevelt's appearance on the stand.

DEFENDS THE PRESIDENT.

Senator Lenroot said Mr. Roosevelt and his brother Theodore, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, had given their information to himself and Senator Walsh on the day before.

"I conceived it to be my duty to acquaint the president of the United States on the information which came to us," said Senator Lenroot, "and I did so."

"The president acted promptly, and did everything from that time on that way President, Democrat or Republican, could be expected to do, and there cannot be any criticism of the President of the United States for any failure to act."

"Doesn't the Senator know," asked Ashurst, of Arizona, "that the country will judge the president's sincerity by the length of time he keeps Edwin Denby in his cabinet?"

"That is another matter," responded Lenroot. "I am speaking now of the steps the President has taken to protect the country."

Albert B. Fall Henry F. Sinclair

HARKS BACK TO DANIELS.

"If these leases are in fact legal and valid, if there be no fraud or corruption in connection with them, if the courts shall finally sustain all three leases to the two great naval reserves," Lenroot continued, "it will be due to the unfortunate language adopted at the instance of the Navy Department under Secretary Daniels."

The reference was to a proceeding by which Congress appropriated $500,000 for storage construction and authorized the exchange of oil. This appropriation was inadequate, the Senator asserted, to carry out the plans of the navy, which contemplated an expenditure of $103,000,000 for the purpose of securing tankage storage for its reserve oil.

Sen. La Follette Sec. Denby

"So far as the illegality or want of power was concerned in the making of the contracts," he continued, "the effort to fasten some stigma upon the President of the United States because of failure to act upon the question is politics, and nothing but politics, upon the other side of this chamber."

RESENTS CRITICISM.

The committee chairman went on to say it was but natural that Democratic Senators should make the most political capital possible out of the incident.

"But when we come to rectifying any wrong, if wrong there be," he said, "politics should stop. So I did resent and I resent now the criticism of the President for announcing his intention to do what they seek to compel him to do by this resolution.

"Every means possible is going to be taken by Senators on the other side of the aisle to fasten on President Coolidge some culpability, some responsibility for this matter. I venture to say, however, that the effort will fail."

Senator Robinson Atty.-Gen. Daugherty

The Senator declared that the first positive information of fraud came before the committee a week ago yesterday in the testimony of Archie Roosevelt. It was on the basis of this information, he added, that the President at once directed the Department of Justice to observe the proceedings before the committee, a duty for which the department detailed Assistant Attorney-General Holland.

WOULD HAVE ACTED.

"If it were not, some Senator on that side would have introduced a resolution long before this time authorizing the President to bring action in the courts to test the validity of the leases because of want of power in the officers of the government to make them."

Senator Brandegee, Connecticut, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, asked whether the oil committee agreed to the statement in the Walsh resolution that the contracts were entered into without authority and in violation of the law.

Senator Lenroot replied that so far as the committee was concerned, it had never undertaken to come to a decision upon that question. He explained that the action of the committee was intended to be a request to the President to institute action in the courts for the purpose of determining both the question of fraud and of the legality of leases.

The committee has never asked any action, he said, in placing itself on record in the matter of fraud or of the legality of the leases.

IDEA WAS ROBISON'S.

While Secretary Fall has assumed responsibility for the contracts providing for exchange of royalty crude oil for fuel, oil for storage, Lenroot said the committee was unanimous in its belief that the idea originated with Rear Admiral J. K. Robison, chief of the Bureau of Engineering.

"Admiral Robison is a strong, forceful, aggressive type of officer," he said, "and every member of the committee, I think, was convinced of his sincerity and good faith in this connection, regardless of the merits of his proposition."

Senator Walsh interposed with a request that he be "excused" from those holding such an opinion.

The committee chairman read at great length from Admiral Robison's testimony, including a statement by the officer that Fall was "very surprised" when approached with the idea of oil exchange.

PRESIDENT CALLS LEADERS.

So much significance was attached by the administration to the threatened action by Congress against Denby and Daugherty that President Coolidge summoned a conference with Senate leaders to outline plans to block, if possible, impeachment proceedings.

Attending the White House meeting were Senators Lenroot, chairman of the Senate committee investigating the oil leases; Hale, Maine; Curtis, Kansas; Lodge, Massachusetts, and Pepper, Pennsylvania.

The meeting was surrounded with secrecy, every precaution being taken to prevent a leak as to the policy determined upon. It was indicated, President Coolidge had instructed the leaders to wield the "big stick" in lining up Republican senators against the impeachment moves.

WOULD BE PREMATURE.

The President was said to feel that resignations of Denby and Daugherty at this time would be "premature," that they should not leave the cabinet at least until the investigations by special counsels to be appointed by the President are concluded.

To permit the resignations now, the White House held, would amount to unjustified repudiation of Denby and Daugherty, especially as the special counsels will be called upon to determine in court whether they have been guilty of any wrongdoing in connection with the leasing of naval reserves.

While the Senate was confronted with the modified Walsh resolution, directing President Coolidge to employ counsel to institute proceedings to recover the Doheny and Sinclair leases, the Public Lands Committee met to examine additional witnesses.

FALL IS EXCUSED.

Ex-Secretary of Interior Fall, the central figure in the oil scandal, was excused when his attorneys submitted a medical certificate declaring it would be detrimental to Fall's health for him to leave his residence in his present condition.

It was suggested that the committee go to the former Secretary's bedside to hear his story about the Sinclair and Doheny loans. This the committee was not inclined to accept, feeling that Fall should come before it to explain contradictory statements regarding the loans.

With Fall's testimony delayed, the committee called Tom Johnson, foreman of the ex-Secretary's new Mexico ranch. He was wanted to clarify testimony by Archie Roosevelt, who alleged that G. D. Wahlberg, former secretary to Sinclair, declared he "was worried about cancelled checks for $68,000 payable to the foreman of Fall's ranch." Wahlberg subsequently testified the checks were for S. C. Hildreth, trainer of the Rancoona stable.

Sinclair Coming Home; Praises Coolidge Action

Paris, Jan. 29 (I.N.S.).—Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire American oil producer involved in the Teapot Dome oil lease scandal, today sent a cablegram to United States Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin, saying he would return to the United States as soon as he could expedite his European business affairs to answer any questions regarding his Teapot Dome transactions.

The cablegram follows:

"I am advised that the President has directed the institution of legal proceedings for the purpose of determining the question of fraud, if any, thereby determining the validity and non-validity of leases.

"I commend the action of the President and welcome a judicial determination of these questions by lawfully constituted courts of the country at the earliest date possible.

(For further developments in the Teapot Dome inquiry watch later editions of the American.)

DENBY DEFIES ACCUSERS IN OIL PROBE

Declares He Did the Right Thing and He Has No Idea of Resigning

Washington, Jan. 29 (I.N.S.).—Secretary of the Navy Denby today defied his senatorial accusers to find him guilty of any crime or of any official action which would warrant his resignation from the Cabinet.

Denby said his resignation had not been submitted to President Coolidge and that he had no intention of resigning.

If the leasing of naval oil lands should again come before his department, Denby said, he would "do it all over again."

PRISONER GETS FREE FROM COP AT SO. STATION

Darts Away From Marlboro Patrolman and Vanishes in the Crowd

Roland Obienes, twenty years old of Marlboro, reached the South Station at the heighth of the noon rush hour today in custody of a Marlboro policeman. He was being transferred to East Cambridge jail, awaiting Grand Jury action relative to an attack he is charged with having made upon a Marlboro girl.

Reaching the street, about to step into the subway station, Roland suddenly swung clear of his escort and, darting into the rush mob, vanished.

The patrolman's cry of "Stop him, stop him," created a bit of excitement, but was lost on Roland.

TODAY

Continued from First Page.

goes around the nucleus. Conceive it if you can—SEVEN BILLION TIMES IN ONE SECOND.

THE Rockefeller contribution indicates that the Rockefellers are not afraid of competition. If science could release for use in industry the power that keeps the electrons in a handful of atoms revolving around the central nuclei, we could make power so cheap that it wouldn't be worth while to draw oil from oil wells or gasoline from the oil.

INTO the dispute between the Modernist and the Fundamentalist clergymen Mr. Guthrie injects this sound observation:

"Feeling, not truth, is the aim of religion."

Religion represents man's longing to know what cannot be known, except through the test of faith, to substitute some established comfortable belief for everlasting doubt.

If the truth were known, religion, as we understand it, would not be necessary.

WE DON'T need any religion about the telephone, because we know all about the telephone.

If we knew as much about this universe, its creations, the power back of it, as we know about the telephone, the majority of religions would die off.

SIEGFRIED WAGNER, son of the great Wagner, and of his wife, Cosima, daughter of Liszt, is here to raise money for the music festivals at Bayreuth. Help that if you can.

Those interested in eugenics, the science of breeding better human beings by carefully selecting the fathers and mothers, as we breed better horses and cows, will be disappointed in Siegfried Wagner.

YOU would think that the son of the great Wagner and a daughter of Liszt must surely be a marvelous musician. But that son, Siegfried, a pleasant person, and, musically, well educated, is not a great musician at all. Any one of twenty thousand little Russian Jewish boys in the United States would be worth one hundred of him, musically speaking.

When you breed horses you breed bodies. When you breed men you breed thinking minds, and that's more complicated.

GOVERNMENT accuses eight corporations of combining and conspiring to monopolize the supply of radio apparatus.

That need not worry you, since the basic radio patents are just about running out, so that anybody will be able to manufacture the stuff. The main danger would be a monopoly of the field, or rather a monopoly of the other shows, by the big telephone company. But that isn't likely.

Filene's Automatic Bargain BASEMENT

NOTE—We couldn't get as many dresses as we had last year, but because we have been in the market longer and worked harder—the savings are greater—think of it—new Spring dresses at the beginning of the season at $12.95

plenty of new high colors

WEDNESDAY at 9

1578 Spring dresses

14 makers' odd lots

101 different new styles at

$12.95

The wanted tan and brown checked flannel dress, linen collar and cuffs. Unusual, at $12.95

Buy now for Spring and Summer, later when demand is greater cost will probably be higher.

Fine fabrics—for example, note check dresses—checks are woven to stay, not printed like cheap ones!

satin faced Cantons	$12.95
high color flannels	$12.95
tailored check dresses	$12.95
crepe de chine dresses	$12.95
Canton crepe dresses	$12.95
wool Canton crepes	$12.95
novelty worsteds	$12.95
georgette dresses	$12.95
troisjeanette fibre	$12.95
few silk taffetas	$12.95
new high colors	$12.95
2 or 3 piece dresses	$12.95
for almost all occasions	$12.95
101 new styles	$12.95
misses' party dresses	$12.95

Is your size listed below?

Size	16	18	36	38	40	42	44	46
Quantity	302	364	286	296	175	76	35	44

our plan

FIRST prices must be low or we lose ⅓ after 15 selling days

½ after 18 selling days

⅔ after 21 selling days

Goods given away to charity after 30 selling days

Hundreds of Other Bargain Lots Not Advertised—No Mail Orders

GILCHRIST'S BASEMENT STORE

OPERATED ON SELF-ACTING REDUCTION PLAN

WEDNESDAY AT 9 A. M.

Girls' Winter Coats

$3.98

Sizes 3 to 14 years in the lot

MATERIALS

Plain Polaires
Plaid Polaires
Striped Polaires
Astrakhan Cloth (black only)
Velours (in smaller sizes)
Novelty Cloths

STYLES

Side-tie effects
Flare backs
Belted
Astrakhan cloth trimmed
Some fur collars
All lined
Small sizes interlined

An exceptional lot of warm, well-made, good-looking coats at an extremely low price. Two makers liquidated their stocks, which means you save.

Self-Acting Reduction Plan
Goods must sell quickly or be reduced—
25% after 12 selling days
50% after 16 selling days
75% after 24 selling days
Given away after 30 selling days

Boston's Only Self-Acting Reduction Basement Giving Legal Stamps

GIRL ADMITS AIDING SWEETHEART IN $80,000 JEWEL THEFT

FAKED OWN DEATH TO HIDE CRIME

Maid Held in Robberies Vanished From Atlantic City Clad Only in Bathing Suit

New York, Jan. 29.—Helen Golden, today confessed to the theft of $80,000 worth of jewels from the apartment of Morris Ambrams at the Ambassador Hotel, Atlantic City, N. J., in August, 1922, according to police.

She denied, however, theft of $30,000 worth of jewelry from the Hotel Ambassador here, where she had been employed as a maid.

The Atlantic City robbery was planned by a sweetheart, whose name she gave the police as "Joseph Anderson," and who deserted her at Sea Isle, after taking the jewels, she said.

She escaped from Atlantic City by pretending to be drowned "in the surf. She walked out of her room in a hotel clad only in a bathing suit and never returned.

The theory was that she had been drowned while in bathing and reports to that effect were publisized.

She was described at the time as being thirty-one years old, 5 feet 2 inches in height and weighing 100 pounds. Another distinguishing characteristic was her red bobbed hair.

Soon after the reported drowning, however, the thefts at the hotel came to light.

PROTEST BREAK-UP OF LENINE MEETING

New York, Jan. 29.—The American Civil Liberties Union announced today it had telegraphed to Mayor Dan E. Hart of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., a protest against what it described as "the forcible breaking up" of a Lenine memorial meeting at Wilkes-Barre on Sunday. Officials of the union also said another meeting would be held at Wilkes-Barre February 10 to test the right of free speech. The announcement said attorneys for the union were contemplating damage suits against officers of the American Legion post charged by the union with responsibility for the affair.

OVERCOME BY GAS FROM THAWED PIPE

Joseph Luper, 65 years old and married, of No. 145 Walnut street, Chelsea, was found unconscious from gas fumes in his shoe repairing shop at No. 26 Green street, West End, early today. Luper tried to light the gas yesterday in his establishment but found the gas supply pipe frozen up. He went off and forgot to close the cock. Today the pipe thawed out and the gas escaped. Charlie Chin, a laundry man next door, smelled gas and found Luper lying on the floor and called the police.

PLEADS GUILTY TO TEA STORE HOLDUP

Daniel Donovan of Dudley street, Roxbury, charged with holding up and robbing Andrew J. Conlon, manager of an Atlantic & Pacific tea store at No. 52 Eliot square, Roxbury, last week, pleaded guilty today in Roxbury court.

He was also charged with robbing on January 8 David W. Miller, clerk in the Rose T store, at No. 731A Dudley street, to which charge he pleaded not guilty. On the additional charge of carrying a revolver he pleaded guilty. Judge Ahern held him in $25,000 bonds for the Superior Court.

COP WINS HIS FIGHT FOR REINSTATEMENT

Lawrence, Jan. 29.—Frank J. Dwyer, ordered off the police department a year ago last August, following a gambling raid he conducted on a lunch cart after which he seized the gaming machines in a Salem, N. H., barn, won a long fight for reinstatement today. Judge Otis Carelton of Haverhill, following hearings in the Lawrence district court, ordered the patrolman reinstated with full back pay.

ABSOLUTELY PURE
Ready to use
GULDEN'S
Mustard
ESTABLISHED 1867
When you buy meat remember to buy a Jar of Gulden's too. Gulden's makes meat taste so much better and aids digestion.

Uncle's Ban on Rum and Smokes Leads to Will Contest

If Harold and Roger Gregory do not smoke or drink when they are each twenty-one years old they will receive $800 apiece.

The bequest is made in the will of their grandfather, Edgar S. Gile.

He left $25,000.

Both grandsons gave notice today, through counsel, that they would fight to break the will. They say their grandfather was unduly influenced by Ernest B. Gile, a son, who is named as executor.

In the will the sister of the boys, Jane Gregory, was awarded $800 if she lived "a clean and moral life."

TEN FLEE GAS NEAR SCENE OF FATAL BLAST

Leaking Fumes Imperil Two Families in a Cumberland, R. I., Tenement House

Cumberland, R. I., Jan. 29.—Ten persons living in a tenement house within 100 feet of the scene of yesterday's explosion in which fifteen persons were killed, were driven from their homes today by escaping gas.

The force of yesterday's explosion is believed to have caused leaks in the gas pipes of the tenement.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walker and their three sons, Joseph, William and George, were driven from one tenement while Miss Anna and Miss Ellen Case, sisters; Mrs. Mary Bland, another sister who was visiting them, and two nephews, James and Agatha Case, were forced to leave the other tenement.

SIX INDICTMENTS ON.

The occupants of the two tenements were nearly overcome when Joseph Walker, Jr., smelled the gas and, with the aid of a patrolman, assisted the members of the two tenements to the street.

Half a dozen investigations started today into yesterday's fatal explosion placed the Blackstone Valley Gas & Electric Company decidedly on the defensive.

EDISON'S SON WILL MANAGE BIG PLANT

New York, Jan. 29.—Stephen B. Mambert, manager of the Edison Portland Cement Company and vice-president and financial adviser of the thirty-three other Edison companies of West Orange, announced today that after February his position will be filled by Charles Edison, son of Thomas A. Edison, the inventor.

Charles Edison.

Mr. Mambert announced the younger Edison would have charge of company affairs. Mr. Mambert has been with the Edison industries for eleven years.

GETS MONTH WHEN HE VIOLATES PROBATION

Thomas Farrell of Western avenue, Brighton, who, on November 5, was fined $50 and given one month for illegally selling liquor, sentence being suspended, was surrendered by Probation Officer Drummond to the Brighton court today. Drummond told Judge Connolly that Farrell had disregarded the order of the court and violated the terms of his probation. Judge Connolly sentenced him to one month in the house of correction.

MEXICAN REBELS ARE DRIVEN BACK

Mexico City, Jan. 29.—Federal capture of Esperanza, keystone of the rebel line guarding Vera Cruz, and consequent disorganization of the De La Huerta forces is considered by the War Department as the beginning of the end of the Gulf Coast rebellion. Orizaba, another rebel stronghold in the path of the federal offensive, is expected to fall shortly.

Old Newspaperman Dies

Gloucester, Jan. 29 (I.N.S.)—John Davis Woodbury dean of Essex county newspapermen and for 50 years connected with the Cape Ann Advertiser and the Gloucester Daily Times, is dead at his home here. He was a member of the G. A. R. and the Masons.

Cable Briefs

Manila—Mrs. Leonard Wood, wife of the Governor-General, and daughter, Louise, sailed for the United States on the President Lincoln today.

Shanghai—Two trainmen were wounded when bandits held up a freight train on the outskirts of the city, searching for a huge shipment of opium.

Madrid—Former Deputy Martin Velor was shot and seriously wounded at Salamanca today during an argument with a journalist.

WIFE WINS 'BATH TUB' LOVE SUIT

Princess Awarded $100,000 Verdict Against Sister, Who Stole Her Prince

New York, Jan. 29.—A sheriff's jury after deliberating two minutes awarded Princess Elaine De Lippe Lipski, formerly Mrs. Wendell Phillips of Boston, head of the Carry-On Association, $100,000 damages from her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Schroeder, for alienation of the affections of her husband, the Prince.

The Princess wept as she reviewed the alleged incidents connected with the waning of her husband's affection for her. Mrs. Schroeder, according to a statement made to the jury by Joseph A. Shay, attorney for the Princess, is an Germany and he is informed, he added, that the Prince is with her.

The verdict was for the full amount sued for.

Princess De Lippe Lipski told the jury she expected to become a mother in five months, and she and the Prince had been very happy together until Mrs. Schroeder came between them.

She again repeated the story of the visit of Mrs. Schroeder's apartment on West 115th street and told of hearing her husband's voice before she entered and of finding his clothes strewn about the bathroom, although she did not see him there.

Including $23,000, which she said she invested in his stage lighting patents, she said she had spent, $53,000 on him because of his inability to support her. She and the Prince were married in Portchester, May 12 last. She is also supporting a Russian child of noble birth, whom she has adopted.

DISPUTES RELATIONSHIP.

The Princess reasserted her belief in the genuineness of her husband's claim to the title of Prince and declared it was of Westphalian origin and dated from the sixth century.

She was more doubtful concerning her relationship to Mrs. Schroeder who has always been referred to as her sister.

"She says she is my half-sister," she replied when asked about the relationship, and did not explain her remark.

The answer recalled that Mrs. Lydia Agnes Stoever, former housekeeper at the headquarters of the Carry-On Association, filed a slander suit against the Princess, then Mrs. Phillips, for denying she was her daughter and it was asserted by Mrs. Schroeder at the time the alienation action was started against her that the Princess had tried to get her to testify in her behalf in that suit which is still pending.

Mrs. Schroeder said they were sisters, and asserted Mrs. Stoever was their mother and in her complaint the Princess referred to Mrs. Schroeder as "the defendant, who is my sister."

AWARDED $100,000 FOR STOLEN LOVE

PRINCESS LIPPE-LIPSKI, FOSTER-CHILD

It took a jury only 2 minutes to award the Princess $100,000 damages against her sister for stealing the Prince's love, but may take longer to collect. The pair are reported to be in Germany engagement of Hawks and Miss Baldwin.

CHUM BARES BLIGHTED ROMANCE IN HARDING SUICIDE

Continued from First Page.

"Within thirty minutes she had written her farewell letters and shot herself.

"Mr. Hawks came to Boston yesterday. Why he came I do not know. He had the impudence to approach me and I refused to talk to me and I had the pleasure of turning him down cold. And it was a pleasure.

"I was just getting home when he came. It was no place for him, and Mr. Harding, in my presence, ordered him to take the 4 o'clock train back to Washington as fast as he could take it. He took it.

"The shock was too much for poor Margaret to stand. She was a wonderful girl and I loved her like a sister."

Miss Harding's body was cremated. The ashes will be taken to Birmingham, Ala., in the Spring and buried. There Miss Harding was born twenty-three years ago and resided until she was ten years old, when her father came into fame in connection with the Federal Reserve system of which he is the father.

READ ANNOUNCEMENT

This is the announcement of the Hawks-Baldwin engagement Miss Harding read just before she died:

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bliss Lane announce the engagement of the latter's sister, Miss Margaret Baldwin of Florence, Italy, to Stanley Hawks.

Miss Baldwin has been in Washington for several months, as the guest of her brother-in-law and sister.

W. P. G. Harding admitted that one of the three letters left by Margaret was addressed to "Stanley Hawks." Governor Harding attributes the act of his youngest daughter to a nervous breakdown, caused by the fast pace of Washington society.

At the same time, Governor Harding speaks of several "hemorrhages" his daughter had suffered recently, and "hemorrhage," it will be remembered, is the word used in the "temporary" death return filed by Medical Examiner Brickley.

"In my opinion," Governor Harding said, "Margaret's act was the almost inevitable result of the pace she had been following for two years. The social life of Washington was too much for her. When she wasn't dancing, she was attending a late dinner party, or else there was a nightly combination of both. Her health broke under the strain. Her nerve was gone; she collapsed.

"Three months ago, I thought she was cured. She came on from Washington, remained a few days and then went back again. Her letters told me what a 'wonderful time' she was having. They described the dances and other activities which were occupying her time. I shook my head over them, one would. What can a father do with these girls?

ORDERS DAUGHTER HOME

"Latterly, I thought I could read between the lines of my daughter's letters that her health had become impaired, and only last week, deciding the time had come to stop treating her as my 'baby' and handle her as a grown woman with some responsibilities, I hurried a check to her and with it a command to return to Boston immediately.

"She arrived last Thursday morning. I was waiting for her at the station. One glance and I knew my little girl was on the verge of collapse. She wanted to go to bed at once, she said.

"'Margaret,' I said, when we reached the house, 'sit down. I want to have a long talk with you.'

"'Not now, Father,' she pleaded, 'not until I have rested.'

"I told her I was summoned to appear in Washington that day and must be leaving, but again alarmed by the child's appearance, I told her I would endeavor to have the matter put off if she needed me.

"She begged me to go on to Washington, assuring me that she would be all right, and reluctantly I left her.

"On Saturday, I was with my son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. R. Thayer, in New York. We went out together shopping. On our return I was met with the urgent message to 'call Boston.'

"My telephone caller proved to be Dr. G. A. Waterman of Marlboro street, who said Margaret's condition was serious and urged me to come back at once.

REACHED HUB SUNDAY

"'Doctor,' I asked him, 'don't spare me. Is her condition—extremely—serious?'

"'Yes,' he said hoarsely, 'it is.'

"'Is Margaret dead, Dr. Waterman?'

"'Your girl is dead,' he replied.

"We were too late for any earlier train, but Mr. and Mrs. Thayer, my daughter (Mary) Elizabeth, and her husband, Mr. R. T. Pell of New York, and I caught the midnight train and reached home at 6 o'clock Sunday morning.

"My first act on coming into the house was to get in touch with Dr. William C. Brickley, the Medical Examiner. Dr. Waterman had told me of his own kindly efforts to spare my surviving daughters and me as much unpleasant publicity as might be possible, and had reported Dr. Brickley's consent to file the temporary death return, which describes the cause of death as 'Hemorrhage, to be investigated.'

"I wanted to thank Dr. Brickley for that, to notify him of our presence in London, and to co-operate with him further in whatever way he might desire.

"The 38-calibre revolver with which Margaret killed herself was one that I had kept in the house for some time. Its hiding place was a drawer of the dresser in my chamber on the second floor. She fired but one shot and no one else in the house appears to have heard it.

"As nearly as we can place it, death occurred shortly after 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. Margaret was in bed in her own room on the third floor. She fired a bullet into her heart.

SERVANTS FORCED DOOR

"One of the maids visited Margaret at about 1 o'clock. To this at 1 Margaret said that she was trying to sleep, and would see no one, under any circumstances. The maid says Margaret repeated these instructions, no matter who the caller might be, she was not to be disturbed.

"The maid suggested luncheon, but Margaret insisted that she did not want any. All she wanted, she repeated, was to be left alone.

"Notwithstanding this refusal the girl came down stairs and sometime afterwards had a light luncheon prepared and carried it back on a tray.

"She found the door locked and this worried her. She appears to have rapped away at it for some time, before she became suspicious and called for help. Finally, the servants got together, forced the door, found Margaret apparently unconscious and called Dr. Waterman.

"The shock was too much for my daughter's right hand. There was blood all over the left side of her body. As soon as ever he could do so, Dr. Waterman put in the long distance call for me at the Thayer house in New York."

BROKE DOWN AT TIMES

While Governor Harding told the story quite as directly as it is repeated here, it is not to be understood that he told it without a break. There were, indeed, times when the reporter thought Margaret Harding's father might not be able to go on. There were tears in his voice as well as in his eyes, and if there is such a thing as a broken heart, W. P. G. Harding is a broken-hearted father.

Margaret Harding left three letters, one addressed to Hawks, one to Miss Hamlin, and one for her father. The one to Mr. Harding reads as follows:

My Dear Father,

You don't know how I am suffering. Please forgive me for what I have done. I cannot stand it any longer. Good-bye. Love.

(Signed). MARGARET.

The funeral of Margaret Harding was attended only by members of the family and one or two very dear friends. The Rev. Abbot Peterson, minister of the First Parish Church of Brookline, conducted the service.

DIPLOMATS PRESENT

Those present were: Governor Harding, his daughters, Mrs. R. T. Pell and Mrs. Eugene Van Renesselaer Thayer, and their husbands; Miss Anna Hamlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner Hamlin and Margaret Harding's chum; Brigadier-General and Mrs. George Harding of Washington, the former, Governor Harding's brother, and some young men described as "embassy attaches from Washington."

For further developments in this case see later editions of the American.

Skating Bulletin

William J. Barry Playground	Fair
Billings Field	Rough
Carter Playground	Good
Charlesbank	Good
Charlestown Playground	Fair
Columbus Park	Rough
Boston Common	Fair
Cronin Playground	Good
Doherty Playground	Good
William Eustis Playground	Rough
Fallon Field	Rough
Franklin Field	Fair
Holland Playground	Good
Jamaica Pond	Fair
Marine Park	Good
John W. Murphy Playground	None
McConnell Park	Fair
Public Garden	Fair
Roche Playground	Rough
William S. Smith Playground	Fair
World War Memorial Park	Good

TRY TWO COPS ON NEGLECT CHARGES

Two members of the Boston police force, Patrolmen Keeley and Alexander of the Dudley street station, are on trial at headquarters today on the charge of neglect of duty.

They are the first arraigned since the promulgation a week ago of the order of Police Commissioner Herbert A. Wilson, which declared that all officers found guilty of neglect would be severely dealt with.

Alexander has been up on charges several times before. It is alleged he then failed to ring in their reports on time.

2 HELD FOR BIG POSTAL THEFTS

Trainmen Are Arrested After Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Goods Are Stolen

Mystery surrounding the theft of thousands of dollars' worth of merchandise shipped by parcel post through the Back Bay annex, is believed solved with the arrest of George H. Frost of Boston, shifting crew conductor for the Boston & Albany Railroad, and Harry Orenstein, a brakeman.

The men were before United States Commissioner Hayes today and were held in $1,000 bail each to await action of the Federal Grand Jury.

For sometime complaints have reached the postal authorities of the theft of packages mailed through the Back Bay annex. These parcels were in most cases mailed by big stores of Boston on mail orders.

Frost and Orenstein were finally suspected. It was found that the crew of which they were members, shifted cars containing the parcels post mail each evening. Postoffice inspectors then visited their homes and found large quantities of goods believed to have been stolen from the mails.

This goods, including clothing, shirts and underwear, had all labels and other marks of identification carefully removed.

Harry H. Boyle, another member of the crew, became alarmed and fled before he could be arrested.

Beat, Stabbed and Kicked After Gift of Ice Cream

When someone sent some ice cream to the wife of Peter A. Pontes, Portuguese negro, of West Canton street, here is what the police say Pontes did to his wife:

Hit her twice on the head with a pair of brass knuckles.

Stabbed her twice with a rubber worker's knife.

Knocked her down and kicked her in the mouth, knocking out six teeth.

In Municipal Court today the husband was held in $2,000 bail charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.

ANDERSON CASE MUST GO TO JURORS

Judge Denies Motions to Dismiss Forgery Charge; Whitman Begins His Argument

New York, Jan. 29 (I.N.S.).—Motions to take the case of William H. Anderson, dry leader, from the hands of the jury by a directed verdict of not guilty and dismissal of the forgery indictment against him failed today at the trial entered its final phase. Former Governor Charles S. Whitman, Anderson's attorney, began his closing argument after Justice Arthur Tompkins denied the two motions.

Whitman based his plea for acquittal on the assertion that Anderson had not been guilty of "intent to defraud" in the entries in the books of the New York State Anti-Saloon League by which Treasurer $4,400 from the salary account of one of the solicitors and placed it in his expense account.

"An intention to conceal or cover up is not a crime," Whitman said. The "mysterious John T. King," who, Anderson testified, gave him $25,000 to fight for prohibition was referred to by Whitman as "now a nationally known character."

"I don't know who he is and I don't care," he said. "But it is reasonable to suppose such a man could exist. No man ever gave me money like that, but Anderson's case was different. There is nothing strange in the action of a rich man in favor of the fight giving Anderson $25,000."

"It is common for rich men to give in the cause of education and charity and hide their identity. It is part of normal campaigning. We spent $1,000,000 right here in New York to elect Mayor Mitchell."

FIND ROXBURY MAN OVERCOME BY GAS

Edward T. Mullen, 38, of No. 231 Highland street, Roxbury, was found unconscious in bed today by his mother, suffering from gas poisoning. Gas was flowing from an open, unlighted gas fixture in the ceiling. He is at City Hospital in a dangerous condition.

MAINE SCHOONER IS WRECKED ON ISLAND

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 29 (I.N.S.).—The schooner Hazel R. Hinds of Bucksport, Me., with eight hundred cercles of salt herring aboard, hard aground on Wood Island, will be a total loss, according to radio advices received here today.

VET BUREAU SHAKEUP URGED

Committee Favors Reorganization by Director, Including Establishing Rate Boards

Washington, Jan. 29.—Full authority for the director of the Veterans' Bureau to put into force a complete administrative reorganization, both in the Home Office and in the field, is proposed in a preliminary report filed with the Senate by the special committee which has spent eight months in investigating the affairs of the bureau.

Under the plan recommended, the director, whose salary would be increased to $12,000 from $10,000, would be enabled to establish boards in every district and sub-district to examine and rate claimants in person; to greatly simplify procedure on appeal and to make radical changes in hospital administration.

Among changes in existing laws suggested by the committee are:

That a partial reinstatement of the lapse of war risk insurance be permitted; that reinstatement in any case be permitted for one year after the enactment of the code, but thereafter only when application is made within two years of the lapse; that physical disability and service origin short of total permanent disability be no bar to reinstatement, and that automatic reinstatement out of retroactive awards of compensation be prohibited.

TRAINING LIMITATIONS.

That vocation training be limited to those who suffered disability, in line of duty and not the results of their own misconduct, between April 6, 1917, and July 6, 1921.

That vocational training be limited to those who make application on or before June 30, 1923; that training must be started on or before June 29, 1924, and that all training must be terminated by June 30, 1928.

Double compensation for widows and parents whose husband or son, or for sons, have died of service injuries.

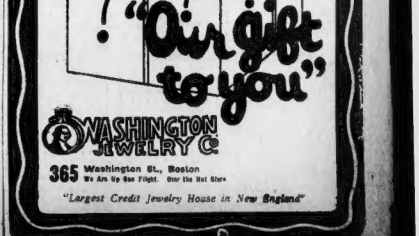
That retroactive reduction in compensation be forbidden, except where the beneficiary has been guilty of fraud.

An increase in the allowance of burial expenses from $100 to $150.

That tuberculosis or mental disease, developing within three years after discharge, shall be presumed to be of service origin.

That Veterans' Bureau hospitals be made available to all honorably discharged veterans of the Spanish-American War, the Philippine insurrection, the Boxer rebellion or the World War, who are suffering from tuberculosis or mental disease with origin in the service.

The committee's general counsel, John F. O'Ryan, makes a number of recommendations not requiring congressional action to become effective. They include:



FRIDAY!
WATCH FRIDAY'S AMERICAN for the Greatest Announcement we have ever made!
??? "Our gift to you"
WASHINGTON JEWELRY Co
365 Washington St., Boston
We Are Up One Flight. Over the Red Store
"Largest Credit Jewelry House in New England"

SOUTH END DOCTOR DRIVES OUT DISEASE 'THROUGH SKIN'

'MELODY WIZARD' HEALS BY SPECTRO-CHROME RAYS

Continued from First Page.

Boston Health and Massage Institute."

Strangely enough the Ph. D., recognized among the educated as a college degree of "Doctor of Philosophy," Dr. Thomas interprets as "Doctor of Psychology." He says so.

The American in its investigation of medical practitioners, to safeguard the public health and which is backed by members of the Massachusetts Medical Association and reputable practitioners, found Thomas practicing at No. 30 Greenwich Park, South End.

His house is a red brick dwelling of the old-fashioned type and he occupies the first floor. He has a colored maid and enough electric apparatus to outfit a radio store.

HOLDS ON TO CASH

Shown $5 by an investigator, he had prescribed for after a diagnosis. Dr. Thomas was told the young man would have to live three days until he secured more money.

Thomas gave back $1 for the investigator to live upon.

Yet on a typed announcement he dispenses one reads "Restoration to Humanity."

Asked for a receipt by another investigator Thomas wrote the following:

"Received from Mr. W. Howard the sum of Two Dollars $2 for professional services for His Melody B. (Signed) Dr. H. H. Thomas."

What "Melody B" might be is a mystery.

An investigator who will be referred to as Jones called upon Dr. Thomas on the afternoon of December 5.

He described Thomas as a West Indian negro, of medium height.

Mounting the stairs of the doctor's domain he rang the bell and while awaiting a response made note of the doctor's many titles on an abundance of signs in a front bay window. Besides them was a sign "Massage School and Institute."

A colored maid admitted Jones, leading him into a large dimly lighted reception room.

DIPLOMAS GALORE

Beside a mechanical player piano and typewriter the only object of note was an array of diplomas, framed and hanging on the walls of the room. Jones was about to seat himself on a leather davenport, well worn, when a door opened at the farther end of the room and the doctor appeared.

"Well, young man, what can I do for you?"

The doctor's unprofessional appearance left Jones decidedly taken back. He was unprepared for the question, believing the person who appeared was a patient about to depart. "Are you the doctor?" he asked.

"Doctor Thomas—What can I do for you?"

"Why, it's like this," said Jones. "I've been running around more than I should have lately and am a bit in doubt as to my health."

Thomas asked him to repeat his reply. Jones did so. The doctor shook his head, then led the way into his private office.

"Who sent you here?" he asked as he slipped into a chair by a desk.

"Fellow in a Tremont street drug store," replied Jones.

"What's your name?" Jones told him, also his address. Dr. Thomas wrote them on a card before him and then wheeled about.

"I am treating a few patients with trouble like yours," he said.

He had made no examination of the investigator who in turn had mentioned no ailment whatever.

Dr. Thomas continued: "It will cost you $75 to be cured."

Jones sat up with a start.

"Oh," said the doctor, "that's real good treatment. I can do the same for $46, but for more money I give treatment supreme."

Dr. Thomas must have recalled that he had failed to give his caller an ailment.

He stiffened in his chair, peered into Jones' eyes and exclaimed:

"Yes, you have it. I can see it in your eyes."

What Jones had he failed to say.

"Come here by the window," called the doctor. There he placed his hands over Jones' eyes, then his nose. They smelled strongly of ether.

"Yes you got it," he said.

Jones "yessed" him. "That's terrible," he groaned. "Can you cure it?"

"Oh yes," Thomas declared.

"Then I'll gladly pay $75," said Jones. He added: "I have plenty of dough."

Dr. Thomas was duly impressed. Still ignoring examination of any kind he walked Jones about his office and glibly expounded the virtues of his electrical equipment.

Then he sat down and asked Jones what he wished to pay. Jones gave him $5.

"Come tomorrow at 3 o'clock and bring more money," said Thomas.

"Hello doctor," said Jones on the following day, "how are you?"

Thomas ignored Jones' greeting. "Have you any money?" he asked.

"Why, I had a talk with my guardian about money," said Jones. "You gave me only $10; give me my receipt yesterday. I'll have to have one. Here's five dollars more. Now give me a receipt for $10."

TEACHES MASSAGE

In ten minutes Dr. Thomas executed the famous "awaiting remains" receipt. "This treatment is very expensive," he said handing Jones the receipt and pocketing the money.

"Just what are these treatments doctor?" asked Jones. "I'd like to know."

Thomas handed him some pamphlets whereupon Jones made the discovery that he was seated in no less a place than the "Boston Health and Massage Institute" and that the gentleman before him was its president.

Read of the institute as did Jones that moment:

"This institution aims to give a practical course in massage Therapeutics, including all the various movements pertaining to it, by scientific manipulation of the muscles, nerves and blood vessels, and every-made hygienic attendance.

"This institution offers to persons desiring to take a complete course in Massage Therapeutics a three months' course, which consists of the following subjects: Anatomy, 40 lectures; Physiology, 36 lectures; Hygiene, 20 lectures; Laboratory Technique, 24 lectures.

"These subjects are taught by trained and efficient instructors. All students who have attended all of the above lectures and are successful in passing examinations and are at the end of the course will be awarded a diploma.

"All fees must be paid before final examinations are taken.

"For further particulars apply to the President.

"Dr. H. H. Thomas,
"M. S., N. D., Ph. D., S. C. T."

GIVEN TREATMENT

Jones looked impressed whereupon Thomas ordered him to strip to the waist and prepare for a treatment. Jones did so and was ordered to lie on an operating table, face down.

After which Thomas manipulated fingers along Jones' spine masseur fashion. "This disease," he said, "may have affected your spine."

"What disease?" asked Jones.

Which prompted the Melody King to recite something that sounded like "Hog Latin."

He then bent back Jones' legs until the bones cracked.

He folded Jones' arms up and down, accordion-fashion. Grasping his ankles, the doctor performed in wig wag signal fashion with Jones' legs, grunting and wheezing as he did so. He rubbed Jones' back with greasy liniment.

After which he brought forth an electric massage machine and ran it up and down Jones' back. Followed similar treatments from ten more electric machines.

HAS COLOR WAVE CURE

Then, grasping a violet ray machine, Thomas went up and down Jones' back.

"There are 240 volts in this machine," he said.

Followed two hot towels with an electric cone-shaped heating apparatus placed over the towels.

Done to a turn apparently, Jones was prodded over onto his back and his "tummy" attacked. He was given the liniment and Thomas' stock of massagen.

After which he was rubbed with a hot and cold towel and removed to a reclining chair.

Thomas was just hitting his stride.

He announced: "I will now attune my wave machine."

Jones looked for a radio.

"My color wave machine," reiterated Thomas.

"You see the green?" Jones did, when that color was brought on its vivid as a glorified grass stain. "I will put that on you for twenty minutes. It will drive the germs out of your body."

For twenty minutes Jones was as green as the meadows of Kentucky.

2D PROBER CALLS

"There are different colors for different ailments," Thomas said.

He turned off the green light and moved back the machine.

"I can cure you just with the color waves," he announced, "but for the first time I thought I'd give you the other treatments."

"I have two more machines coming," he announced as Jones dressed, "I am curing a couple of cops in Station 5 now. They've got the same trouble you have."

Jones had been passed upon a day or so before by reputable physicians and pronounced in excellent health.

"I have other cops for patients, too," added Thomas. I advertise in the papers and get lots of business that way."

"Come tomorrow," he said as Jones stood ready to leave, "and bring more money."

Jones did not go back.

On December 27 another American investigator called on Dr. Thomas. The maid admitted him. In the reception room sat a poorly dressed negro. He was reading a magazine.

The doctor was out. After a while the man looked up and said to the maid: "Gee, I feel like sleeping."

"So do I," she replied.

Sitting herself to the suggestion she lay back in her chair and napped. The man stretched out on the couch. Everybody Thomas appeared.

Opening the double doors of his private office he revealed awaiting him there a woman, well dressed.

She announced she would wait until after Smith had been disposed of and stepped into the reception room.

The Melody King invited Smith in and removed his own street clothes, getting into a doctor's white frock which the maid tied and buttoned in the back.

"What is your trouble?" he asked Smith when the maid had gone. Jones said he was not feeling well. Thomas felt of his pulse, then pondered deeply figuring his while on a pad of paper.

"Your pulse," he declared finally, "is beats slow. Your blood pressure is diminutive. Your heart beats too slow. The body aches you mention indicate symptoms of inflamatory rheumatism which is quite serious and which if it settles will lay you up for a considerable time."

He paused, then continued. "My treatments are all without operation and my electrical machines with the color waves will drive that out of your system. Go on a diet. Be sure to eat grapes. Chew up the seeds and swallow them."

Smith was in excellent health, so he insisted upon planning Thomas in a verdict on his condition.

Finally Thomas said: "I am in a hurry with a patient outside. I won't give you a treatment today. I will make an appointment instead. I generally charge $10 for a treatment, but I will give you six treatments for $25. I prefer to receive cash."

MONEY FIRST

"I'd pay you in three payments," replied Smith. That was satisfactory and Smith left. On December 29 he returned.

"Come in," Thomas called.

"I've written my mother at Springfield regarding the money for this treatment, Doctor," said Smith. "She wants to know what your diagnosis is. I couldn't explain to her what was wrong with me from what you told me."

"You just write your mother this way," said Thomas. "Dear Mother, the doctor diagnoses my case as being run down and attack on heart, kidneys and liver."

"What did you say about rheumatism?" asked Smith.

"What did you say about rheumatism," added Thomas.

Then he continued: "Before treatment, how much money can you pay me today?"

Smith explained that he had only $5 and needed some of that to live on until he received money from his mother. Thomas took the five and handed Smith back a dollar.

"Strip to the waist," he then ordered after which with Smith on the operating table he started treatment.

He placed a cold towel on Smith's back. Another cold towel further down the spine and a third at the base of the spine. The towels were soaked in liniment.

DRIVES OUT 'BAD'

Smith was almost stifled with the odor.

Pressing them with his fingers Thomas kneaded through the towels with his knuckles.

"What is that odor on these towels?" asked Smith.

Thomas straightened up and exclaimed "That odor! That is the bad coming out of your body. Smell it?"

"Yes sir, the bad is coming right out of your pores and that is what you smell."

He lifted the towels and fingered Smith's spine. Indicating three points on the vertebra he said: "These are your three defects. One near the top, the other half way down and the third at base of the spine. You are in worse shape than you think."

"But," he added, "it will only be a matter of a short time until you will feel much better."

He gave Smith a thorough rubbing and massage. Then, taking an electrical contrivance which he explained was a high frequency machine, he started anew.

From a voltage box he brought two wires. On the end of one he attached a little metal roller. To the other was attached a glass bulb.

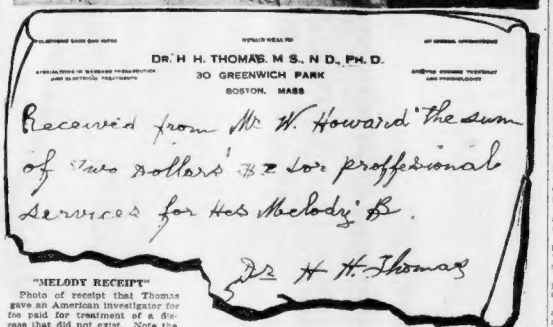
He worked the roller up and down Smith's body. Then he suddenly pressed the electric bulb against Smith's body and it flamed purple. "That is the bad coming out," said Thomas.

He had the "bad" in Smith come out of his chest, back and limbs before he called it a day. The while he worked he told of cures he had performed.

On December 31 Smith posed for photographs showing Thomas in his South End electrical laboratory; the laboratory where he finds such strange "melodies."

(Another Doctor Story Tomorrow.)

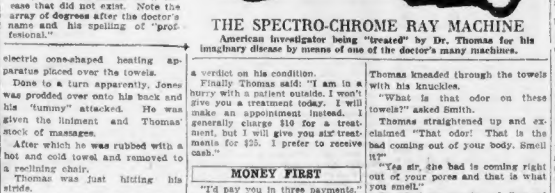
For Colds, Grip or Influenza and as a Preventive, take Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets. The box bears the signature of E. W. Grove. 30c.—Advt.



DR. H. H. THOMAS, M. S., N. D., PH. D.
30 GREENWICH PARK
BOSTON, MASS
Received from Mr. W. Howard the sum of Two Dollars $2 for proffesional Services for His Melody B.
Dr. H. H. Thomas

"MELODY RECEIPT"

Photo of receipt that Thomas gave an American investigator for the paid for treatment of a disease that did not exist. Note the array of degrees after the doctor's name and his spelling of "professional."



THE SPECTRO-CHROME RAY MACHINE

American investigator being "treated" by Dr. Thomas for his imaginary disease by means of one of the doctor's many machines.

RECOGNITION BY BRITAIN HITS FIRST SNAG

Russia Refuses to Talk Debt Settlement Until Raised to Equal Rank as Nation

Tokio, Jan. 29 (I.N.S.).—White forces in Siberia have seized upon the occasion of the death of Nicolai Lenine to proclaim a free state in Amur Province and have interrupted railway services to Vladivostok and eastward, according to advices received by the Japanese government from Muksden.

London, Jan. 29 (I.N.S.).—Negotiations for recognition of the Russian Soviet government by Great Britain have struck their first snag.

Premier MacDonald suggested that Russia recognize her pre-war treaties and debts before the British Labor government extends recognition. The Soviet replied it could not negotiate those points until Russia was elevated to the rank of Great Britain through recognition.

France is understood to be bringing pressure upon Great Britain to insist upon recognition of pre-war debts by Moscow before the Soviet government is formally recognized.

Unless there are concession by one side or another, the negotiations threaten to become deadlocked.

Fresh labor troubles loom up before the MacDonald government. The dock workers have voted to strike February 16.

While dealing with such domestic problems as strikes, unemployment and the housing shortage, Premier MacDonald is paying considerable attention to the serious international situation.

From the Foreign Office it is learned the Premier has adopted a general foreign policy which has for its main object a comprehensive settlement of European problems.

MacDonald is determined to ignore "pin pricks" by other powers and will refuse to enter into controversies over minor matters. He will seek first to settle the question of Russian recognition, turn to reparations and war debts.

London, Jan. 29 (I.N.S.).—Advisability of summoning a great international conference to discuss reparations and war debts was discussed by the Cabinet today. If a conference is arranged it is certain the United States will be invited to join.

In addition to the reparations and debt issues, the Cabinet discussed plans for recognition of the Russian Soviet government by Great Britain and admission of Russia into the League of Nations.

7 Under Fire of American's Health Drive

Irregular practioner whose methods are revealed today—Dr. H. H. Thomas of No. 30 Greenwich park, Roxbury.

Previously exposed:

Mrs. Ella C. Phillips, No. 163 Independence avenue, Quincy.

Dr. Moroney, No. 320 Tremont street.

"Dr." J. A. Black, No. 18 Billings road, Norfolk Downs.

Mrs. J. J. Black, same address.

Dr. Neshan Frank Barronian, No. 43 Dover street, South End.

Andrew G. Latimore, M. D., No. 19 Greenwich street, Roxbury.

$10,692,770 FOR WAR ON RUM TRAFFIC

Washington, Jan. 29. — Nearly three-quarters of a billion dollars is carried in the annual supply bill for the Treasury and Postoffice Departments reported today by the House Appropriations Committee. The exact amount is $739,853,451, an increase of $18,476,819 over total appropriations for the two departments for the current fiscal year, but $3,447,696 less than budget estimates.

Of the total $609,976,240 is for the Postoffice Department — $24,754,457 more than was appropriated a year ago, and $3,116,936 less than budget recommendations — and $119,883,205 for the Treasury.

The Treasury Department allotment does not take into consideration $1,329,051,975 or permanent and indefinite appropriations which do not require annual congressional action. It does, however, include $10,629,770 for enforcement of prohibition—$1,629,770 more than was granted last year.

The Coast Guard, which is charged with curbing rum smuggling by sea, is allotted $10,651,649, or $732,881 less than was appropriated for the current year, and the customs service is allowed $13,574,140, or $1,555,640 more than was appropriated a year ago.

In the bill is an item of $51,500, entitled "floating expenses," which the report explained would be used to purchase fast motor launches, costing from $3,000 to $5,000 for use against rum runners.

TWICE FOUND GUILTY OF HOLDUP

Revere Bandit Fought First Case and Won a New Trial in Charlestown Robbery

Victor C. Terminello, twenty-five, of Revere, today for the second time was found guilty of charges growing out of the holdup and shooting of George Sumner of Charlestown, inspector and collector for the Waldorf restaurants, on April 5, 1922.

Terminello was one of the gang of four auto bandits that pursued the collector in his automobile. When near the Waltham car line the bandits opened fire on Sumner, who returned it. Sumner was shot twice, but recovered, a watch preventing one of the bullets from inflicting serious injury.

Terminello acted as his own attorney and when convicted of assault with intent to murder at the first trial he appealed the case and was granted a new trial. A second jury returned a verdict of guilty in East Cambridge Court today.

The court announced that Terminello would be sentenced next Monday. Meantime, he was released on $25,000 bail.

Absolutely Matchless Values!

In Our Great JANUARY SALE of

FUR COATS

Remember!

You can buy FUR COATS at DRASTIC reductions and you are able to

"CHARGE IT"

By Using The Kussell Plan of Real, Confidential Credit!

KUSSELL FUR CO.
41 WINTER STREET

Meyer Jonasson & Co. Tremont and Boylston Sts.

25% Further Reduction on FURS

Notwithstanding that fur prices have already been reduced in the same ratio as all other winter merchandise, we offer the entire remaining stock of FUR COATS and FUR SCARFS at a still further reduction of TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

You May Deduct One-Fourth from Present Marked Down Price

This is your opportunity to secure highest grade furs much below our cost

MEYER JONASSON & CO.

DRUGGED! INDICAN Shows Why People Feel That Way

ASK your doctor about INDICAN.—Me will tell you it is a substance looked for in examining his patients thoroughly. If he finds it in you—it means that the poisons of constipation are seeping through your blood into every muscle and every joint. This is what does the damage. It robs you of your pep—it poisons your optimism and good spirit — it pales your face and puts blemishes there—it gives you headaches—causes indigestion. No wonder you feel drugged when constipated.

You can get only temporary relief from most laxatives. But Carter's Little Liver Pills, it has been found, not only "physic" the stomach, liver and intestines quickly, but also drive the INDICAN away.

Make This Test: Have an analysis made of your specimen, and if the doctor reports the presence of INDICAN, or if you can "feel" how poisoned you are—immediately start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills as prescribed by him, or according to directions. Now have another test made and see how the INDICAN disappears. See how your complexion brightens and clears, your tongue is sweet and clean, you can eat like a kid again, in most cases.

Important: Carter's Little Liver Pills, used for 37 years by millions of people all over the world, is a purely vegetable preparation and contains no drugs of any nature. It therefore acts in a natural way and is non-habit forming. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory.

He didn't know he was constipated—he felt "run down." See how the test proves he had INDICAN—the poison of constipation.

Same man after taking Carter's Little Liver Pills for only a few days—note the clean, normal specimen—FREE FROM ANY TRACE OF INDICAN.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS

IT'S THE ARABIAN MOCHA AND GENUINE JAVA blended with other specially selected high grade coffees to produce that deliciousness found only in Far-East. Too good to be packed in paper or pasteboard boxes.

Everlastingly fresh takes less per pound to give a desired strength

From Report by MODERN PRISCILLA

Reg. tin 45c lb.

Far-East coffee

Tested and Approved by GOOD HOUSEKEEPING

Vac. tin 48c lb.

100% Pure in ½ lb., 1 lb., 3 lb. and 5 lb. tins. All good dealers sell it. Ask your dealer. Write for free samples.

Cinderella Ball to Draw Many of Hub's Smart Set, Says Betty Alden

ALICE HERRICK.
Photo by Bachrach.

By BETTY ALDEN

GENERALLY society folk don't begin to arrive at their parties until nearly midnight.

But the Cinderella Ball is an entirely different affair. Everything is just like the good old fairy-tale, and at the magic hour of midnight the guests are whisked away in their Rolling Arrows or Piercing Royces and the merrymaking is all, all over.

Stately Mrs. Frederick S. Whitwell of Marlboro street is really responsible for the first Cinderella Ball, held last year at the Hotel Somerset.

The affair proved so popular that an even larger gathering is assured for this year's dance, coming on March 4th, also at the Somerset.

A number of hostesses are giving dinners that evening, scheduled for the uniquely early hour of seven, for each hostess must see that her guest arrives in time for the dance, which begins at 9:30.

Among the hostesses for the early-hour function are Mrs. Charles C. Walker, who was formerly Miss Helene Whitehouse of New York, and Mrs. Harold Peabody of Berkeley street. A few of the other prominent matrons giving dinners that evening include Mesdames Charles F. Ayer, Walter C. Bayliss, Boylston Beal, Horace Binney, DeForest Danielson, James Lawrence, Pierpont Stackpole and Frederick S. Whitwell.

Mrs. Charles C. Walker

Mrs. Harold Peabody
(Photo by J. E. Purdy)

IT will be remembered that Mrs. Peabody (she was formerly Miss Marian Lawrence and is the daughter of Bishop Lawrence) was one of the country's busiest women during the war.

She was the only woman on the New England committee for the United War Campaign, a position which required no end of time and energy.

GRAY-EYED Miss Alice Herrick, who is one of the daintiest buds of the season, will help sell flowers at the three Junior Leagues' performances of "Mlle. Modiste."

Society Notes

MRS. SAMUEL K. LOTHROP of Boston is sailing for Italy today on board the Colombo. With her are Samuel K. Lothrop, Jr., and Miss Jane P. Lothrop.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Amory of Boston and New York, who sailed earlier in the month on their honeymoon abroad, are now in Paris, where they are stopping at the Plaza Athenee.

Charles H. Fiske has arrived from Boston in Camden, S. C., where he is the guest of Robert W. Pomeroy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eddy Warren of Beacon street are guests for an indefinite stay at Hotel Ambassador in New York.

Francis I. Amory and Charles A. Coolidge, Jr., will both go over from Boston to New York to serve in the ushers' corps at the marriage of Miss Janet Freeman to John Taylor Phillips, a Harvard '17 man. The ceremony will take place February 6 in the chantry of St. Thomas' Church.

FORMOSA OOLONG TEA

is far superior to any other tea grown. It has a Flavor, Fragrance, Body and Color that are not found in any other teas. Only the tips of the tender young buds are used. Absence of fermentation gives it the color of clear, liquid amber in the cup. You will be delighted with the rare flavor and delicious zest of FORMOSA OOLONG TEA. Be sure to use the FULL NAME in ordering from your dealer.

FORMOSA OOLONG TEA

SOCIETY IS OUT IN FORCE AT OPERA

Brilliant Gems and Gowns Make Scene One of Splendor

By BETTY ALDEN

It was an operatic "first night" with all the sartorial "fixins."

Those of the fashionable world who thronged the Boston Opera House for the opening performance of the Chicago Opera Company wore their diamond tiaras, their wraps of sable and ermine, their lustrous pearls and thin gorgeous gowns.

So that once again did the famous horseshoe take on the splendor of former days.

STUNNING MATRONS.

One of the stunningiest of the young matrons there was Mrs. E. Sohier Welch. Slender figure and light hair piled high upon her head, Mrs. Welch is distinctly regal-looking. Her gown was an unusually lovely creation of amethyst velvet fashioned in the draped mode.

Not far away sat Mrs. Horace Binney, in coppery-colored silk, and in the same box with her was Miss Suzette Sturgis, whose brunette coloring was set off most affectively by the frock of salmon pink velvet.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Converse of Commonwealth avenue and their daughter, Miss Virginia Converse were there.

COOLIDGE THERE.

The Harold Coolidges had a box in the horseshoe. Mrs. Coolidge, a petite and vivacious woman, wore a shimmering gown of silver and white.

A most attractive figure was Mrs. Edwin S. Webster, who, with Mr. Webster, entertained some friends in their box. Hers was a gown of clet blue and silver brocade.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben S. Stone were in a box, the latter gowned in silver. On the other side of the horseshoe were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Goodrich. Mrs. Goodrich wearing cerise velvet.

Of those selecting black was sport-loving Mrs. Freddy Ayer, who is quite as devoted to the saddle as she was in her Hilda Rice days.

Mrs. W. Scott Fitz of Beacon street, one of Boston's most notable patrons of art and music, was hostess for a group of intimates in her box.

Others who listened to "L'Africana" last night were Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Bayliss, Mrs. Boylston Beal, Mr. and Mrs. I. Tucker Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKay Frost, the George Peabody Gardners, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Farnhame Greene, Mrs. Amory A. Lawrence, Dr. and Mrs. T. Morris Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Galen L. Stone, Mrs. Theodike Howe, Mrs. John S. Lawrence, Miss Ellen Bullard, George Lee, and Paul B. Watson.

CHICAGO OPERA DELIGHTS BOSTON

Rosa Raisa's Golden Voice in "L'Africaine" Entrances Hearers

The opening of Boston's Grand Opera season was ushered in with a flourish last night with the presentation of Giacomo Meyerbeer's "L'Africaine," by the Chicago Civic Opera Company at the Boston Opera House.

Most impressive and very grand in scale was the initial offering, and a brilliant first-night audience sat entranced in their seats through five magnificent acts to hear Rosa Raisa sing her golden-voiced way into their hearts.

Indeed, it was not until the prison scene in the second act when the glorious slave-girl, Selica, declares her love to the sleeping Vasco de Gama that the thronged auditorium, filled to the brim with society and lovers of music and voice, came to the realization that a true prima donna was on the stage before them. And despite the fact that superlatives are to be feared, it must be admitted that in this scene Mlle. Raisa was superb.

THRILLS AUDIENCE.

Nor was she contented to stop there. Throughout the entire evening she continually thrilled her audience by attaining the heights of clear, emotional and powerful tone which can come from those individuals who are far beyond just being "in good voice."

Second to Mlle. Raisa in making a deep impression on those who listened was Charles Marshall, portraying the role of the adventurous and unfortunate Vasco de Gama. Mr. Marshall is a tenor of unquestionably great ability. Although for a time his voice seemed restrained for such a singer of his build, it came magnificently into its own in the fourth act during his soliloquy amid the pagan wonders of strange Hindostan.

LUCIE WESTEN SCORES.

Lucie Westen, as Inez, came in for her share of honors, as did Cesare Formichi, singing the role of the adoring but unhappy Nelusco. The latter's voice is as convincingly powerful as is Miss Westen's delightfully clear.

To be truthful, none of the leading stars were in possession of remarkable histrionic ability. That portion of the crown was left to Alexander Kipnis, who played Don Pedro, the bad man of Meyerbeer's operatic tragedy. He accompanied his good voice with good acting, a feat which, if not found among opera singers, is usually excused.

One of the most refreshing events of the evening was Anna Lodmilla's dance of the Brahmin-temple-girl variety with her Corps de Ballet. It might be whispered that some of the T. B. M. who were escorted somewhat unwillingly to the tier boxes, sat up and took notice.

R.H.White Co.

Mail Orders Filled—Boston 8 Telephone Orders Filled—Beach 3100

Wednesday and Thursday

Boys' 2-Trouser Knicker Suits

$9.35

Norfolk style, fancy tweed mixtures, grey and brown. Made with 2 pairs full-lined knickerbockers. Coat lined with good quality lining. Sizes 8-16 yrs.

Boys' Own Store, Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

New Spring Hats

$3.75

Silk hats, combinations of straw and silk, and all straws. In youthful styles as well as Matrons' Hats. In the new spring colors and trimmings of flowers, ribbons, feathers and embroidery.

Second Floor, North

Wednesday and Thursday

Flowered Cretonne Apron Dresses

$1.69

Trimmed with contrasting bindings, two pockets; sleeve and bottom scalloped. In pink, blue, green and brown. Medium and large sizes.

Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Women's Poiret Twill Dresses

$14.70

Dress sketched has a pleated insert in front of skirt, giving extra width. Waist and skirt embroidered. Long sleeve and attractive vest.

Another style is made in panel effect front and back, sides of skirts are pleated. Other straightline models.

Colors navy, black, and a few brown. Sizes 36 to 46.

Ready-Made Dresses, Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Girls' Crepe and Serge Dresses

$3.99

Straight line belted models. Some have wool embroidery; others have white pique collar and cuffs. Sizes 4 to 14 years.

Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

"Gold Seal" Pillow Cases 4 for $1.00

Torn size before hemming, 42x36 inches. (Limit one dozen.)

White "Lingerie" Longcloth, 15c yard

Soft chamois finish, 36 inches wide. Lengths range from 5 to 10 yards. Each piece specially put up in sealed, sanitary package. (Sold only by the piece.)

"Martex" Fancy Bath Towels, 59c each

Heavy hemmed bath towels, large size, with fancy borders in gold or rose.

Third Floor, South

Wednesday and Thursday

Cowhide Traveling Bags

$8.43

Two sewed-on leather handles. Double stitched edges, sewed-on corners. Full leather lined. Three pockets. Solid brass set-in lock and snap catches. A roomy, light-weight bag. Colors black and brown.

Third Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Women's Linen Handkerchiefs 6 for 79c

¼-inch hem.

Men's Hemstitched Linen Handkerchiefs 6 for $1.00

¼-inch hems.

Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

A most interesting game.

Parcheesi 73c

Standard size folding board, four dice cups and dice. Complete with sixteen brass-bound counters in four colors.

Toy Dept., Basement

Wednesday and Thursday

Sterling Silver Bag Chains 79c each

Fine chain, with rings to sew to bag. Makes splendid handle for ribbon, beaded or crocheted bags.

Ribbon Dept., Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

"Under-the-Arm" Bags

$2.50

Striped moire silk in black, blue and brown. Fancy figured silks in black. Brocaded silk in blue and black.

Walnut Room, Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Valenciennes Lace Edges 12-yd. piece 47c

½ to 1 inch wide.

Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

36-Inch Mercerized Cotton Sateens, 44c Yard

Desirable lining colors.

Street Floor

Shopping with Priscilla Price

She finds the unusual and tells of good values every day

IT'S NICE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING (SUNDAY)

WHEN YOU KNOW HOW to cook something quickly. That will tempt all the family.

THE EASIEST MUFFINS ARE called Fadges. No egg. Good with bacon or eggs.

AND OF COURSE THERE ARE MANY kinds of griddle cakes. Cornmeal, whole wheat, buckwheat or rice. Waffles and southern corn cakes are good with maple syrup. Or a plain sugar syrup of old-fashioned brown sugar. It makes your mouth water.

A NEW BREAKFAST DISH is sausage omelet. You buy the sausage meat in paper tubs. 38 cents a pound.

THEN THERE IS A SPECIAL way to fix eggs on toasted English muffins. You use ham, too. A very attractive breakfast dish. Good for lunch, too.

EGGS WITH CHICKEN LIVERS are called a la Victoria. Delicious and decorative.

THERE ARE MANY OTHER WAYS OF cooking and serving eggs. Maybe your family gets tired of the same old thing. Write to me and I'll send you some new recipes. I'm sure you'd like them all.

THERE ARE SOME KINDS of dried fruit that are awfully good when cooked together. Remember, too, to put a piece of lemon in prunes and apple sauce when you are cooking them. Some people like nutmeg sprinkled over apple sauce.

YOU CAN VARY your routine by following different menus. I have some you might like.

IN OUR FAMILY we have a different cereal nearly every morning. There are so many to choose from. Cooked and uncooked. Some are nice combined with fruit.

MARMALADE IS ALSO good for breakfast. It is inexpensive when you make it yourself. You can use other fruits instead of oranges.

ON SUNDAY MORNING you'll have time to listen to church services over the radio. Pittsburgh begins to broadcast at 8:30. With one machine we know of, you don't have to have any ground wire or antenna. Just turn up the cover. The antenna is in it. It has batteries enough for an entire year. Can be tuned in by any novice. It weighs but 35 pounds and can be carried anywhere. It contains a scientific loud speaker and has a range of 1,000 miles.

Answer to E. P. Yes, there is a firm that guarantees used sewing machines. I have asked their salesman to call you up, you up.

PRISCILLA PRICE.

N. B. Whenever you want to know where to get anything, please write to me, care Boston American, 80 Summer Street. No reply can be made unless full name and address is given.

Queen Quality Boots

EXTRAORDINARY VALUES

In EVENING, SEMI-DRESS and WALKING Styles

1250 pairs

All from our regular stock, including many styles which have lately sold at higher prices.

Black or Tan Calf

{Not all sizes on each individual style, but ALL SIZES are included in this special offering.

ALL ONE PRICE $5.50 NO C. O. D.'s

Silver Brocade

OXFORDS with cressed vamps, as pictured, also many other styles with Cuban and low heels, in all leathers.

EVENING Slippers (broken lots) of Silver or Gold Brocade.

STRAP Pumps in all leathers, also Black Satin, with Cuban, Military or Low flat heels.

BOOTS In Black Kid, Brown Kid, and Brown Calf, Cuban Heels.

HOSIERY SPECIALLY PRICED $1.39
For Sports wear — Silk and Wool Plain or Check Patterns.

Tan or Gun Metal Calf Patent Coltskin

Exclusive Boston Agency

QUEEN QUALITY BOOT SHOP

158 TREMONT STREET

(near West St.)

Copyright 1924 by Boston American.

NEW CHURCH BASKETBALL LEAGUE
Another new basketball league has been organized called the Church School League, and all games will be played at the Huntington Y. M. C. A. W. A. Mc Cormack, elected president; D. M. Goodwin of Tremont Temple, vice-president, and F. B. Cawley of the Boston Y. M. C. A., secretary-treasurer.

SPORTING AMERICAN

LEO HUGHES DONS HELMET
Bumping the well known bean against the boards at the Arena rink is getting quite popular with the hockey players, so one of the local favorites, Leo Hughes, ex-Boston College player and now with the Maple team, dons a regular gridiron helmet.

WILSON AND REED ARE READY FOR RING CLASSIC TONIGHT

EXPECT PUNCHING BATTLE AT TRIPLE A SHOW

By JACK CONWAY.

Jack Sharkey

Johnny Wilson, former world's middleweight champion, will start another drive for a bout with Harry Greb when he clashes with Pal Reed of Natick in the feature bout of ten rounds at a monster boxing carnival to be staged by the Armory A. A. at Mechanics Building tonight.

It is a middleweight classic, a tussle between two heavy hitters, men who are natural rivals and who have put up furious engagements when they have met in the past.

Wilson is a 10 to 9 favorite. This does not mean a great deal, as the short enders have been knocking the dope to pieces lately.

There also a feeling in some quarters that Reed, pride of upState fans, is due to send Wilson down to defeat.

It will be the third time that Wilson and Reed have met. Their former bouts were torrid affairs. Wilson won hairline decisions on both occasions.

* * *

The last Wilson-Reed tussle was held at the Arena last November. Reed's heavy left-hand socks almost gave him a victory by a hayo in the second frame. Pal came with a rush during the last two chapters. There was spirited protests from the Reed supporters when the verdict went to Wilson.

* * *

Pat O'Toole will head a big delegation of fans from Natick and Framingham. Others will come from Marlboro, Worcester and other up-State cities and towns where the Natick parson is a big favorite.

Wilson, accompanied by Manager Frank Marlow, Jim Buckley and Harry Lenney, is in town. The former middleweight champion is in the best condition of his career. He plans to set a terrific clip from the time the bell sounds at the opening of the first round and is confident he will smash his way to a decisive victory. Although Wilson lost a decision to Greb, he gave the latter the toughest battle of his career. Even Tom Gibbons, who went fifteen rounds with Dempsey, did not show as well against the freakish Greb as did Wilson.

* * *

The Wilson-Greb bout drew a gate of $57,000, which was a new high for receipts at indoor boxing shows in New York this season. As a result of Wilson's new popularity, Tex Rickard is planning a fued between Wilson and Greb for one of his outdoor shows this Summer.

The winner of tonight's bout will be pitted against either Jock Malone or Tommy Robson. Wilson and Reed are both willing to take on such a contest.

* * *

It will be Elk's Night at the Triple A. Thousands of Brother Bills from all parts of New England will be at the ringside to witness this middleweight classic. They will be headed by Exalted Ruler Daniel Kane of the Boston Lodge of Elks.

The Elks, as well as the thousands of other fans who will attend the show, should witness plenty of real action. Like Jack Britton and Ted Kid Lewis, Wilson and Reed always give action. Both men are sure to try for a knockout from the time the tussle gets underway.

Jack Sharkey, a new heavyweight sensation, will parade forth to action with Billy Muldoon of Lynn in an eight-round contest. Sharkey is a terrific hitter as well as a good boxer. He looms forth as a fine heavyweight prospect.

Muldoon, for the first time in his career as a boxer, has trained properly. As a result the man who knocked out Whitey Allen and later drubbed Wolf Larsen to the canvas, should make a great showing.

* * *

There will also be two more fights. Eddie Sardello of the North End will clash with Joe Munces of Charlestown, while Johnny Moore will take on Babe Adams.

Despite the large purses being paid for Wilson and Reed, there will be popular prices for this show.

Jack Conway Picks Wilson to Win Over Reed

Jack Conway, holder of the world's record of picking winners, hands out the following dope on tonight's Armory A. A. show:

"Johnny Wilson and Pal Reed should furnish one of the most sensational middleweight contests ever staged in Boston. The Natick Parson will be in there battling to prove he's a logical contender for a tussle with Harry Greb, while Wilson will be determined to show that his recent setback at the hands of the Pittsburgh man was due to worrying about illness in his family rather than as a result of the lack of fighting class.

"We are picking Wilson to win. But he'll have to step at a lively pace every second he's in the ring to do so as Reed will be forcing the issue, ready at all times to swap blows with his rival."

Jack has picked ten winners out of a possible twelve this year.

Won	Lost	P.C.
10	2	.857

WRESTLERS PUT ON TRAINING FINISH

The wrestling fans who were lucky enough to watch Dick Daviscourt, Paul Zanovich and "Toots" Mondt work out with the training mates were amazed at the speed shown by each of the principals when they put on the finishing touches for their matches in the world's elimination series in Mechanics Building tomorrow night.

Frank Judson

Daviscourt particularly was impressive, and he appears to be in the form he showed when he first appeared in Boston against Stanley Zbyszko and Ed Lewis. He was fast as any heavyweight ever seen here and he showed that he has plenty of endurance. This means that Sampson must be at his best. If he is, then the fur will certainly fly with men of this type in a clash. They will go one fall to win.

"Toots" Mondt put in a hard session at a private Back Bay gym and he is in great shape for the battle. He takes no chances, however, as he knows that Zanovich is "there" when it comes to down fight wrestling and aggressiveness and will step on the mat prepared for a battle from start to finish.

Zanovich, too, is fine as silk. He figures that if he makes good against a man such as Mondt he is bound to line for a crack at Lewis and that is what is uppermost in his mind. He is impressive in his power and reminds one of Stecker in his physique.

Frank Judson will get another test, this time in the junior division to which he rates exceptionally high.

LEE FOHL HAS FINE NOVICE IN DORNKOTT

Cleveland, Jan. 29 (AP).—When Lee Fohl was manager of the Cleveland Indians he picked George Uhle from among the city's sandlot players. Under the tutelage of Fohl and Tris Speaker Uhle has become one of the pitching stars of the American league. Next season Fohl will manage the Boston Red Sox and he is going to try another Cleveland sandlot player, Charlie Kornkott. The new prospect finished a brilliant season in semi-pro ball with thirty-one consecutive scoreless innings. Dornkott is twenty years old and a right-hander, Cleveland, Detroit and Pittsburgh tried to land him.

Lee Fohl

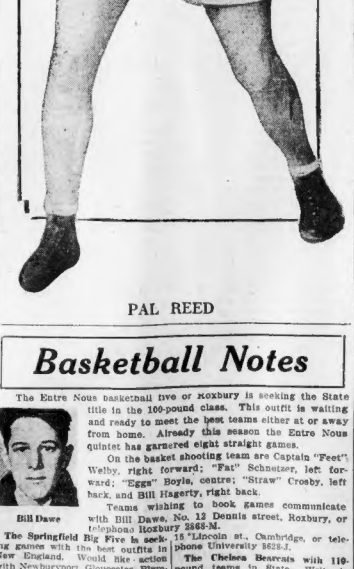
MILL POSE GAMES IN NEW YORK TONIGHT

New York, Jan. 28.—The greatest set of indoor games this country has ever seen will be held in Madison Square Garden tonight and Wednesday.

A dozen world's records at standard distances and in field events have been established in recent years.

Southpaws are Ready

JOHNNY WILSON



PAL REED

STASIAK ADDS ROAD WORK TO TRAINING

Stanley Stasiak, the Lion of Poland, is including plenty of road work in his training for his finish match with Joe Alvarez at the Grand Opera House on Thursday night. He realizes that to beat the man from Panama he will have to be at his best and have endurance.

Farmer Bailey.

The fact that their last bout went well on to two hours goes to show that the big Pole will have his work cut out for him if he hopes to win.

Fans are eagerly awaiting the time when he two big fellows step to the centre of the mat. Stasiak will have the solid support of the Polish population of Boston and vicinity, while Alvarez will have a following equally as large.

He has made friends in large numbers since coming to Boston and when he steps out to be introduced he receives an ovation like a general in a king.

"His popularity won't help him any in his match with me Thursday night," said the big Pole. "After the referee calls time it is up to Joe to take care of himself. Of course his friends will cheer him and boo me, but I will have my mind only on my work.

"I shal wrestle a careful battle, always having in mind what the future means to me. After that, give me Zbyszko and Lewis."

Alvarez is in wonderful shape for his bout.

LAWRENCE LEGION'S MEET IS ON FEB. 21

Lawrence, Jan. 29.—The American Legion track meet originally scheduled for the afternoon of February 22 at the local armory will be held Thursday evening, February 21, instead.

The meet will be conducted under the sanction of the N. E. A. A. A. U. and included in the features will be a triangular relay race among Methuen High School, Johnson High of North Andover and Punchard High of Andover.

Hockey Lineup At Arena Tonight

Boston	Pittsburgh
Martin, l. w.-r. w.	McKinnon
Hutchinson, c.	Cotton
Bright, r. w.	l. w. McCurry
Stubbs, l. d.	r. d. Smith
Owen, r. d.	l. d. Conacher
Drown, g.	Worters

Measurements of the Fighters

WILSON	REED
5 ft. 9 in.	Height	5 ft. 10 in.
159 pounds.	Weight.	160 pounds
72 in.	Reach	70½ in.
28 years.	Age	34 years
16 in.	Neck	16½ in
39 in.	Chest (normal)	40 in.
42 in.	Chest (expanded)	42 in
34 in.	Waist	30 in
12 in.	Biceps	14¾ in
10¾ in.	Forearm	11¾ in
7 in.	Wrist	8 in
20¼ in.	Thigh	21 in
13 in.	Ankle	13½ in
13 in.	Arms	13½ in

UNITED STATES AND CANADA WINNERS

Chamonix, France, Jan. 29.—The United States and Canada won in the Olympic hockey competition. The Canadians are slight favorites because of better teamwork and general all around ability.

The result of matches were: United States 19, Belgium 0; Canada 20, Czechoslovakia 0; Sweden 9, Switzerland 0.

The Swiss, Belgian and Czechoslovakian teams were hopelessly outclassed, while the Swedes, who had been considered the most formidable of the teams gathered here, next to the United States and Canada, have lost prestige through their comparatively weak showing against the Swiss.

Tomorrow the American team will meet France, and on Thursday they play England.

America's request that the hockey matches be played in three 15-minute periods, as is the custom in America, was refused by the committee, and consequently three 20-minute periods were played.

The American speed skating team, composed of Jewtraw, Moore Steinmetz, Donovan, Hinke and Kaskey, led by William Taylor, their manager, left for Paris immediately after the American-Belgian match.

The speedsters waited only long enough to congratulate their competitors on their victory.

Thunberg, the sensational Finnish speed skater, accompanied the Americans to Paris, where he expects to get the decision of the French federation as to whether he can make the trip to the United States to participate in the American championships.

The Olympic ice program included figure skating in which Miss Beatrix Loughran of New York and Mrs. Theresa Weld Blanchard of Boston competed, but no results will be published until the free figure competition is concluded, when the points will be totalled and the winners announced. The competition was in the school or set figures.

The first match in the curling competition resulted in a victory for Sweden over France by the score of 18 to 10.

SHADE TO GIVE WEIGHT AWAY TO MOORE

Dave Shade, the California boxer, finds himself too heavy to make weight for a welter title match and has been forced into the middleweight division to fight the cream of that class and spot them at least seven pounds.

Freddy Jacks

Just what fate has in store for Shade on Friday night in Mechanics Building, when he makes his debut in the middleweight division in a 10-round contest with Ted Moore of England, is a matter of conjecture.

Moore has demonstrated beyond a doubt that he is a fighter of class. He is very clever in his awkward way and has a wonderful defense. He will carry at least seven pounds more weight, which is a big advantage.

The semi-final also has an international aspect. Freddy Jacks, of London, who has boxed most of the good fighters here and in England will meet Jim Finnegan. "Honey-Boy" has had fifty-three fights and won all.

Another bout on the card that will be a thriller is that scheduled between Scoops White, of Cambridge, and Freddy Warren, of South Boston.

The curtain raiser will bring together Steve Gustin, of South Boston, and Johnny Fox.

Perkins Defeats Warren

Edward Perkins defeated Charles Warren, 59 to 44 in one of the closest games in the New England three-cushion billiard championship at the State Theatre Club. Each player made high runs of three and the game required 106 innings.

Basketball Notes

The Entre Nous basketball five or Roxbury is seeking the State title in the 100-pound class. This outfit is waiting and ready to meet the best teams either at or away from home. Already this season the Entre Nous quintet has garnered eight straight games.

On the basket shooting team are Captain "Feet" Welby, right forward; "Fat" Schnetzer, left forward; "Eggs" Boyle, centre; "Straw" Crosby, left back, and Bill Hagerty, right back.

Bill Dawe

Teams wishing to book games communicate with Bill Dawe, No. 12 Dennis street, Roxbury, or telephone Roxbury 2868-M.

The Springfield Big Five is seeking games with the best outfits in New England. Would like action with Newburyport, Gloucester, Plymouth, Maynard, Clinton and other fast teams. Write J. R. Murray, No. 25 Groveton pl., Springfield.

The St. Joseph's A. A. of the West End with 120-pound teams in the State. Write 520-ard M. Murphy, No. 74 West Cedar st., city.

The Cambridge Professionals still have a few open dates for games away from home. F. Cabana, No. 18 Lincoln st., Cambridge, or telephone University 3622-J.

The Chelsea Beavers is seeking 110-pound teams in State. Write to Samuel Smollor, No. 148 Chestnut st., Chelsea, or telephone Chelsea 2067-M.

The Watertown All-Stars are seeking basket games with the best teams in the State. Communicate with John Nelon, No. 11 Fletcher terrace, Watertown, or telephone Newton North 2168-W, or Haymarket 4344.

Selections, Mounts, Prices

AT NEW ORLEANS

FIRST RACE.

8—Royal Purple, H. Stutts		6-1
14—Exchequer, L. McDermott		5-2
6—Sea Wall, E. Schwartz		10-1
9—Billy Elly		15-1
7—Frontiersman, J. Wallace		10-1
11—Quivero, E. Martin		3-1
3—McIntosh		15-1
5—Westland Queen, A. A. Farley		20-1
2—Cassard, L. Morris		20-1
10—Sagacerus, J. McCoy		20-1
1—Vehement, E. Keogh		20-1
12—Orvietigh		20-1
4—Patrick L.		20-1
13—Melbourne, E. Feet		15-1

SECOND RACE.

12—Carefree, J. Heupel	5-2
11—Day Dee, J. Lee	6-1
8—Poppys, J. Wallace	6-1
9—Clovnor, L. Parke	6-1
10—Coral Reef, D. Metzler	6-1
6—Anticipate, R. Harrington	10-1
1—Firecracker, E. Martin	10-1
3—Rep, J. Owens	15-1
5—Allard	15-1
7—Kitah	15-1
13—Frath, J. McCoy	20-1
4—Royal Dick	10-1
2—Maude Harvey, H. Hay	20-1
14—Knot Grass	15-1

THIRD RACE.

10—Good Night, T. Parke	8-5
5—Dr. Whitehurst, J. Wallace	3-1
7—June, F. Lee	6-1
2—Feigned Zeal	6-1
9—Great Northern, F. Thornabye	6-1
1—Guy Betzy, J. Chalmers	10-1
3—Jo-Di, J. Kedzlie	10-1
11—Clean Gone	10-1
6—Mollmer	10-1
4—Nancy Wiest, B. Norton	15-1
8—Randolph	20-1

FOURTH RACE.

1—Moonraker, J. Devereux	8-5
6—Dr. Clark, J. Parke	3-2
5—John Finn, J. Wallace	7-2
8—Bradley's Tommy, G. W. Carroll	6-1
3—Betting Sam, L. Morris	6-1
7—Translate	10-1
2—Edward Grey	20-1

FIFTH RACE.

3—Thorndale, T. Parke	8-5
5—King O'Dell III, I. McDermott	2-1
8—Polvo, J. Wallace	3-1
2—Gerenda, H. Stutts	5-1
7—Henry M. Diets	15-1

SIXTH RACE.

10—Attorney, L. McDermott	8-1
8—Vendor, L. Parke	5-2
6—Sunny Dunrow	10-1
1—Old Faithful, G. Fields	10-1
11—Kampaig, E. Feet	10-1
7—Gen	8-1
9—Nicholls, D. Jones	8-1
5—Bandits, F. Lee	8-1
4—Young Adam, R. Kaiser	10-1
2—Dantzio	20-1
3—Walnaga	20-1

SEVENTH RACE.

10—Guerette, E. Martin	3-1
7—High Gear	5-1
9—Felicitous, J. Chalmers	5-1
3—Little Annie	6-1
5—Secretary, F. Lee	10-1
11—Lucky Mill, D. Magee	8-1
8—Haidee, F. Thornabye	15-1
6—Darling	15-1
4—Tricks, L. Lang	15-1
2—Arthan, T. Riley	20-1
1—Fred Kinney, L. Smith	20-1

AT HAVANA.

FIRST RACE.

Gymkana, S. McLane	8-5
Farmerstheone Bulle, F. Woodstock	5-2
Cassie Ann, A. Fickens	5-2
Wreck Anna, W. Lamont	4-1
Rosita, W. Smith	8-1
Wanderlust, H. Shillich	10-1
Marquesito	10-1
Glory, W. Jones	20-1

SECOND RACE.

Accochia 2nd, O. King	8-1
Ray Ennis, W. Lamont	4-1
The Ally	4-1
Chaparro, J. Shanks	4-1
Hand Sweep	8-1
Nan Bird, D. Randell	8-1
Bog Giles, C. Collins	20-1

THIRD RACE.

Gaston, J. McCabe	5-2
Jack Frost, W. Lucas	2-1
Valcanite, A. Groston	4-1
Smart Money	4-1
The Girl, F. Gross	6-1
Jamina	20-1
Jealous Woman, J. Shanks	20-1

FOURTH RACE.

Cabin Creek, W. Princess	8-5
American Soldier, J. Woodstock	3-1
Regal Lodge, A. McLaughlin	4-1
Fannie Fail, P. Gross	4-1
Squire Wiggins, W. Smith	5-1
Little Ed, R. McGuire	10-1

FIFTH RACE.

Randol, A. Terratt	4-2
Filatrus, C. Snyder	3-1
North Wales, J. Dawson	4-1
Bermuda, E. Cureton	4-1
Flying Prince	5-1
Abe Rabbistasky	10-1

SIXTH RACE.

Eye Bright, W. Lucas	7-2
Cabe Enomate, A. Fickens	4-5
The Sister, J. Maginito	4-1
Financial Booster, J. Shanks	4-1
Moon	4-1
Acosta	8-1
Zagaton, Y. Woodstock	8-1
Forswar, T. Brothers	15-1
Bloom, J. Bowen	15-1
Lenora F. S. Banks	15-1
Momentum, A. Alano	15-1

Selections

COLLYER'S EYE

MOST PROBABLE WINNER—Thorndale.
BEST RACE A CHANCE—Rosebaker.
BEST PARLAY—Some Fun, Great Northern and Attorney—Show.

AT NEW ORLEANS.

1—Exchange, Sea Wolf, Frontiersman.
2—Rep, Care Free, Dorcas.
3—Feigned Zeal, Great Northern, June.
4—Moonraker, Dr. Clark, Translate.
5—Thorndale, King O'Neill, Ed, Dorcas.
6—Sunny Dunrow, Attorney, Young Adam.
7—Gargette, Little Annnie, Dushma.
BEST—Thorndale.

AT HAVANA.

1—Whitney entry, Wreck Ann, Cassie Ann
2—Ray Ennis, Tonsuha Bal, The Ally.
3—Valcanite, Smart Money, Gupton.
4—Regal Lodge, Little Ed, Fannie Mail.
5—Flying Prince, Randol, Sister Wales.
6—The Ulster, Momentum, Acosta.
BEST—Whitney entry.

AT TIA JUANA.

1—Moon Child, Girl Scout, My Destiny.
2—Betty Allen, A. Lester, Porter Ella.
3—Insurance, Rose Atkin, Chrome.
4—Bill Head, Sophie Goldman, Wabar Willow.
5—Fullanti, Furor, Little Thistle.
6—Favelle, Madge F. Breeze.
7—Flag of Truce, Valor, Sagamock.
8—Frankworthy, Clock Stocking, Miss Mckinsey.
9—Tan Buttons, Crepiar, Locust Leaves.
BEST—Betty Ald on .

AT KENTUCK OWL

AT TIA JUANA

1—My Destiny, Girl Scout, Norma Talmadge.
2—A. Lester, Porter Ella, Betty Allen.
3—Rose Atkin, Insurance, Tentillae.
4—Frances Direct, Lucky Strategy, Scrap.
5—Furor, Little Thistle, Fullanti.
6—Apricot, The Lamb, Madge F.
7—Grand Look, Valor, Virginius.
8—Clock Stocking, Trusty, Grayson.
9—Marie Corps, Ruddy Locust Leaves.
ONE BEST—Great Luck.
SPECIALS—Furor and Marine Corps.

CONSENSUS OF OPINION.

NEW ORLEANS.

1—Exchange, Sea Wolf, Quivero.
2—Care Free, Day Dee, Carefree.
3—Doctor Whitehurst, Great Northern, Feigned Zeal.
4—Moonraker, John Finn, Dr. Clark.
5—Thorndale, King O'Neill Red, Dorcoda.
6—Vendor, Attorney, Young Adam.
7—Gargette, Little Annnie, Dark Hill.
BEST—Thorndale.

AT HAVANA.

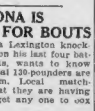
1— 1—Gymkhana, Cassie Ann, Wreck Ann.
2—Ray Ennis Henderson, Chaparro.
3—Valcanite, Jack Frost, Gupton.
4—Regal Lodge, Cabin Creek, Square Wiggins.
5—Hercules, Randel, North Wales.
6—Ice Bright, Ennis Enomate, The Ulster.
BEST—Valcanite.

AT TIA JUANA.

1—My Destiny, Girl Scout, Norma Talmadge.
2—Porter Ella, A. Lester, Countess Claridge.
3—Gold Bryan, Rose Atking, Insurance.
4—Prince Direct, Sophie Goldman, Bill Head.
5—Fullanti, Little Thistle, Furor.
6—Madge F., The Lamb, Favelle.
7—Great Luck, Valor, Spacreek.
8—Trusty, Clock Stocking, Praiseworthy.
9—Marine Corps, June Fly, Ten Buttons.
BEST—Fullanti.

JOHNNY DREW TO BATTLE MANTY

Johnny Drew, who is very anxious of boxing the rubber contest with Red Chapman before a Boston audience is matched to meet Young Manty at Worcester on Friday night. Drew will have to be at his best, as Manty is going like a house afire.



Johnny Drew

In his last twelve contests, he has been defeated Al Shubert, Lew Paluso and Bud Dempsey.

NICK MADONA IS OUT FOR BOUTS

Nick Modona, a Lexington knock out king, who won his last four battles by knockouts, wants to know why all of the local 120-pounders are sidestepping him. Local matchmakers claim that they are having a hard time to get any one to box him.

"Let Not Man Put Asunder"

You are worth more to yourself—to your family—neighbor—and work—when in good health. You cannot afford to neglect it. Health is too valuable. Five minutes reading the daily health column, written by Dr. F. X. Mahoney, Health Commissioner of Boston, for the Boston American, is time well spent.

BRING ON SPEED DEMONS IF THE B. A. A. The Knights of Columbus rink has passed and everything was successful. Evbody in town is waiting for the speed demons topear on Saturday night at the B. A. A. games at the Arena.

SPORTING AMERICAN

BOSTONIANS AGAIN IN THE GAME The United States Olympic hockey team busted right out front in the series at Chamonix, France. On the sextet are our own Captain Irving Small, Justin McCarthy, Willard Rice, Alphonsus LaCroix, Frank Synnott and Arthur Langley.

YELLOW JACKETS SWEEP THE ICE WITH NEW HAVEN, 8 TO 3

PITTSBURGH WINS OVER BEARS

The sensational Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets, in their first appearance at the Arena against New Haven swept the ice and set back the Bears, 8 to 3, in a one-sided contest.

From the outset the Pittsburgh sextet just romped up and down the surface and made the Bears look like tyros. Lionel Conacher of the Smoky City team was the big factor. Time and again this husky lad just stuck his huge frame in front of the New Haven players' offensive and stopped whatever parade down the ice the Bears dared to make. His handling of the disc was remarkable for a big fellow.

George Cully

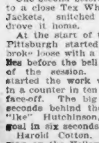
During the first period it looked like a real tussle until Jack Smith wiggled and smashed his way through the Bear defence for the first tally. It was a pretty goal as Smith smashed in from left defence and caged the rubber in ten minutes and thirty-two seconds.

One second before the period came to a close Tex White of the Yellow Jackets, snitched the puck and drove it home.

At the start of the second period Pittsburgh started real action and broke loose with a string of four tallies before the bell rang for the end of the session. Alex McKinnon started the work when he pumped in a counter in ten seconds after the face-off. The big fellow was four seconds behind the record held by "Ike" Hutchinson, who scored a goal in six seconds a few years ago.

Harold Cotton, the crack wing man on the Yellow Jackets, showed his stuff. He circled down the ice and flipped the rubber missile into the net in six minutes and ten seconds.

Smith, in the middle of the second session, advanced an easy one close to the Bear net which rebled on its own power.



Shorty Verno

Later Cotton got another score when he circled right wing and dashed through Armstrong's left defense and cut the rubber in by Cox in nine minutes and forty-three seconds.

Cotton, White, McCurry and Gillespie worked the forward line for the Pittsburgh team and showed plenty of class with the stick, especially at stick poking and body checking. Conacher deliberately got down on one knee time and again to stop wicked cuts that had passed by defense.

Conacher was the biggest stumbling block against the Bears. Norman Shay was missed greatly by New Haven.

It was not until the final period that the New Haven sextet opened up their attack and showed their stuff. McKinnon got the air for tripping.

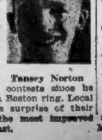
The game looked like a whitewash for New Haven, but the Bears took a lease of life when Armstrong made a bold dash through the Pittsburgh defence and netted the puck for New Haven's first tally.

With 31 seconds to play Lowery managed to put in with a good brand of hockey and biffed the puck around until it went sweeping into the net for the final tally of the game, the third score for the Bears.

Shorty Veno and George Cully played well for the Connecticut sextet.

TANSEY NORTON TO TACKLE FRUZZETTI

Tansey Norton, who has defeated all the best welterweights in the East, will entertain the Lowell fans for the tenth time this season on Thursday, when he meets Jimmie Fruzzetti of Brockton. Those boys met two weeks ago. It was a very close contest Tansey receiving the decision. Tansey has won 18 contests since he was last seen in a Boston ring. Local fans will get the surprise of their lives, as he is the most improved boxer in the East.



Tansey Norton

OUTDOOR SPORTS -:- -:- -:- By Tad

FIND IT FREDDIE?
YES - EDDIE IT WAS RIGHT HERE — I ALMOST WENT BY IT TOO
NICE HONEST GAME SPIKE — I'M STANDIN ON THE BALL HE DROVE - AIN'T IT THE CATS?
YEAH AN THEM TWO RUNS THE GOLDEN RULE GROCERY STORE KIN VA IMAGINE THEIR INCOME DAT SWEETS?
OUTDOOR SPORTS
CADDYING FOR TWO SQUARE SHOOTERS WHO PLAY GOLF TWICE A WEEK RAIN OR SHINE
YOU'LL FIND HONESTY IN THE DICTIONARY
Copyright, 1924, by Tad Fenton Service, Inc.

BOSTON TENNIS PLAYERS ARE WINNERS

New York, Jan. 28.—Favorites came through without upset in the first round of the women's invitation tennis tournament on the courts of the Heights Casino, Brooklyn, the first important indoor event of the season.

Miss Isabelle Mumford

Banking stars who advanced to the second round of the singles were Miss Leslie Bancroft of Boston, who won by default from Mrs. L. G. Morris of Ardsley, N. Y.; Miss Martha Bayard of Short Hills, N. J., who defeated Mrs. B. F. Briggs of Pelham, N. Y., 6-0, 6-1; Miss Lillian Scharman of Brooklyn who eliminated Mrs. Casebear of New York, 6-2, 6-1.

Miss Marion Zinderstein Jessup of Wilmington, Del., former "First Ten" star, who is attempting a comeback, won her opening match from Miss Adele Cragin of New York, 6-3, 6-1.

In two of the hardest fought matches of the day Mrs. E. W. Raymond of Hartsdale, N. Y., defeated Miss Caroma Winn of Mountain Lakes, N. J., 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, while Miss Rosamond Newton of Boston triumphed over Mrs. Frederick Schmitz of Pelham, former national indoor champion, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4.

Other victories were scored by Mrs. Walter Trumbull of Boston, who defeated Mrs. Theodore Sohst, New York, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, and by Miss Isabelle Mumford, Boston, who vanquished Mrs. Thomas Sturgis, Boston, 6-2, 6-0.

Whirlwinds Play Plymouth

Plymouth, Jan. 29.—The Plymouth Town team has arranged a game with the Boston Whirlwinds for the New England championship at Emond Hall, Saturday night. "Parson" Jones has been selected as referee.

JEAN BAPTISTE

By NICK KENNY

ON New Year's eve ol' moon shines full,
An' I am loo, of wine and bull.
On table een wan gran' boisé
I mak' de speech and talk ver' swell.

"BEHOLD,' 'tees I Baptiste!" I say,
"Who weel be champ of U. S. A.
When I hav' taken Dempsey's crown!"
(Somwan ees hollair "Knock heem down.")

"COME up to Canada" I cry,
"Eef your America ees dry,
An' Jean Baptiste weel get your drunk!"
("Sacre!" they say "Ees full of bunk.")

"I LAK' free teengs" I tell dat bunch,
"Free love, free speech, free wine, free lunch
Free air, free rides, free sun, free toys!"
("By gar!" dey say "Ees lot of noise.")

WAN gal ees frow at me 'er glov',
Teea soakeeng wet—eet mus' be lov',
An' so to show her I am wise,
I bounce wan glass between 'er eyes!

BIMEBY dat booze mak gals feel queer,
An' wan would bite off my tin ear,
I splain to 'er da, I am pug,
Shees say "I know eet by your mug!"

TAK' keeng on table beeg I stan',
An' go on making speech so gran',
Den clock strikes twelve—Old Year shees die—
De lights g out—an' so do I.

JUNIOR LIFE SAVING CORPS AT BOSTON "Y"

The new Junior Red Cross Life Saving Corps, recently formed at the Huntington avenue branch of the Y. M. C. A., has about 100 members and a lot of pep.

Divisions knows as the Cardinals, Whirlwinds, Pirates and Yankees have the largest number of members. Cooney fouled Leonard.

JIMMY COONEY HAS A FIGHT WITH LEONARD

Holyoke, Jan. 29.—Jimmy Cooney and Alentown Johnny Leonard have been matched again, and will clash before the Valley Athletic Club in the City Hall on Friday night. They will battle ten rounds at 121 pounds.

In a recent bout in Worcester

BEST CANADIAN ATHLETE WILL PLAY OWEN

For the first time since Martin Sheridan of the Irish-American A. C. of New York defeated Walter Knox of Toronto in all-round athlete competition at Celtic Park, New York, in 1906, outstanding athletes of these countries will clash tonight at the Arena in the Boston Hockey Club-Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets game.

George Owen

George Owen, Harvard's former sport trump, will be in the Hockey Club defiance, while Lionel Conacher, Canada's versatile athlete, will be in the Pittsburgh defense.

Local fans are well acquainted with Owen's brilliance in any line of sport endeavor. Canadians will stake their all that Conacher shows more effective hockey than the former Crimson star.

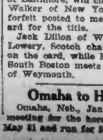
An international tinge is attached to the game. The Hockey Club, save for Bill Letson of Annapolis Valley, is composed of Yankee bred hockey players, while the Yellow Jackets are Canadians, among the best that have come out of Canadian senior ranks.

Speed is written all over the Yellow Jackets and the team has developed a snappy pass game. However, George Owen is noted for his ability to rise to great occasions and tonight might be another of those sport dates in which the Harvard ace of other years will lead his team to victory.

JACK DILLON TO MEET LOWERY AT C. A. C.

One of the best all-round boxing cards offered Hub fans in many years has been arranged by the Commercial Club at Mechanics Building next Tuesday night.

Frank Moody, British middleweight, who has won eight straight fights since coming to this country, six of them by knockouts, clashes with Louis Bogash, one of the most formidable contenders for Harry Greb's middleweight crown.



Jack Dillon

Ted Marchant, English lightweight champion, who recently knocked out George K. O. Chaney of Baltimore, will clash with Archie Walker of New York, who has a forfeit posted to meet Benny Leonard for the title.

Jack Dillon of Woburn and Bob Lowery, Scotch champion, also are on the card, while Frank Mesna of South Boston meets Young Ramsey of Weymouth.

Omaha to Have Run

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 29.—The first meeting for the horses will be here May 31 and run for 26 days.

No Shift in 1924 North Shore Grid Schedule

By FRED C. LANE.

The North Shore League football schedule will remain intact for another year at least. At a recent meeting of the league heads, the plan of dividing the football schedule into two sections was turned down by a vote of 5 to 3. Peabody, Lynn Classical and Swampscott were in favor of dividing or modifying the schedule. The remaining teams of the league, with the exception of Chelsea ad Gloucester, which were not in attendance, voted to stay by the present plan.

Bill Joyce

Judging from the manner in which the body acted on the proposal of Gloucester High for a modified football schedule, it is evident that this school will be asked to resign from the league. It is the general feeling at the Fish City that the teams now representing Gloucester High are not strong enough to play the heavy teams in this circuit and would be better off playing independently.

One of the surprises of the meeting was the vote of Marblehead High. For some time it has been common talk that unless there was a complete change in the methods employed by the various high school teams in the league, Marblehead would drop out. As things were, they appeared to be heartily in favor of dividing the league, yet their vote was cast on the side that favored a strict adherence to the present system.

The new baseball schedule was adopted, however. Two five-team leagues, known as the North and South League will take the place of the ten-team circuit. Each team will play two games with each other in their respective leagues and one game each with the teams in the other league. The two teams at the head of the division will meet for the championship.

Schoolboy Sport Notes

Reports have it that St. John's Prep has a brilliant hockey team. The Danvers boys have been more fortunate than many of our local teams having plenty of ice on which to practise. Captain George Stadel, playing fo, his third year, Morris, a defensive player and McNamara, goal tender has been the outstanding stars to date.

• • •

On February 1st, Newton High meets a worthy opponent at their own gym in Lynn English High. The Shoe City team has been a leader in track sports for five years and according to Coach George Sexton has a fine combination again this season.

• • •

With the Harvard A. A. staging their big indoor meet at Mechanics Hall on Feb. 16, the Huntington Interscholastic on Feb. 17 and the B. A. A. schoolboy tilt on March 1st, the schoolboys of this section will have plenty of opportunity to show their wares and break some of the standing records.

• • •

According to Coach Whiting of Huntington School, 22 to the 28 teams that took part in last year's Greater Boston Meet, which will in the future be known as the Huntington Interscholastic, have sent in their entries. Close to 250 boys participated in the 1922 events. Those in charge of the meet looked for 300 competitors this year.

• • •

Coach Joyce of Lynn Classical will be a busy coach the last three days of this week. He runs Brockton High at Brockton Thursday afternoon; plays St. John's Prep basketball at Lynn Friday evening and winds up the week racing Lowell High on the banked corners at Lowell.

• • •

Norwood High's basketball team invades New Jersey the latter part of February. They meet Clifton High of New Jersey on the 23rd and play Ridgefield Park High of the same town on the 22nd.

BIG ENTRY LIST FOR BOUTS AT EAST BOSTON

Another amateur boxing club will jump into action this week when the Columbian Rowing Associates will stage a show at Columbus Hall, Maverick square, East Boston, on Thursday night.

East Boston has been one of the outstanding spots for the amateur shows and with the experience of promoters in the amateur shows, and with two experienced promoters in charge of the show, it would appear that the Noddle Island fans were in for one of the best shows yet staged at Columbus hall.

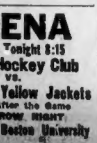
"Wally" Brown.

Tommy Paris and Wally Brown have been associated with boxing enterprises for many years, and in addition to knowing angles, have gained the respect of those associated with the game.

Wally Brown has twenty-four entries at hand which assures plenty of talent. Entries should be made to Wally Brown, South Ferry, East Boston.

JOHNNY BROWN BOXES PALUSO

Newport Johnny Brown has been signed to battle Lew Paluso, the sensational Salt Lake City featherweight, in the feature bout of ten rounds before the Casino A. C. of Fall River next Friday night.



Newport Johnny Brown.

Brown is going on high right now, having recently defeated Chick Suggs, the New England featherweight champion, in a Portland ring.

OLYMPIC COMMITTEE HAS MEETING HERE

Members of the Olympic Committee met in Boston to consider ways and means to raise the $35,000, the Boston quota for the games.

Among those in attendance were: Albert Geiger, Jr.; Henry Lapham, president of the B. A. A.; Major Frank Briggs, Joseph B. MacCabe, Fred Moore, Harvard, and William H. Cuddy.

It has been decided that a third of the profits from the national boxing championships will be turned over to the committee.

Tendler Beats Mitchell

Philadelphia, Jan. 29.— Lew Tendler, Philadelphia lightweight, easily defeated Ray Mitchell, also of that city, in a fast ten-round bout. Tendler weighed 135½ and Mitchell 139 pounds.

Boston American Ring Results

At Pittsburgh—Jack Zivic, Pittsburgh, outpointed Johnny Ray, 10 rounds.

At Scranton—Young Bob Fitzsimmons of New York won on technical knockout from Billy Walsh, Akron, 8th round

At Philadelphia—Lew Tendler outpointed Ray Mitchell, both of Philadelphia, 10 rounds. Dan Gartan of Philadelphia outpointed Lew (Kid) Lewis of Waterbury, Ct., 10 rounds.

At Chicago—Bud Taylor, Terre Haute, Ind., defeated Herbie Schaeffer, Chicago, 10 rounds; Tiger Cline of Los Angeles defeated Patsy Rocco, Chicago, 10 rounds; Mickey O'Dowd, Muncie, Ind., defeated Steve Adams, 10 rounds.

At New York—Joe Ryder, Brooklyn, got the decision over Irish Johnny Curtain, Jersey City, 12 rounds; Paul Berlenbach, New York, knocked out Frank Carbone, New York, 6th round; Willie Shaw, Jersey City, got the decision over Vic Brog, Pittsburgh, 6 rounds.

Independents Grab the Medford Title

The Medford Independents trounced the Medford Hockey Club 4 to 3, at Massa Pond, Medford. The contest decided a three-game series for the Medford championship.

Marrio Manfre scored all the goals for the Independents, and his stick handling was the feature of the game.

M. Schuman of Tufts excelled for the Hockey Club. Schuman and Stoker scored in the second period.

The fast Olympia A. C. five of Gloucester seeks games away from home with teams averaging 135-140 pounds. Write Joseph Alves, No. 15 Williams court, Gloucester.

"Let Not Man Put Asunder"

ARENA
Hockey Tonight 8:15
Boston Hockey Club
vs.
Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets
Skating After the Game
TOMORROW NIGHT
Harvard vs. Boston University

He drew her closer, whispering: "You darling!"—she wished the world would end then—it was too sweet to bear—

She was

"CHICKIE"

A BOSTON GIRL

Read the stirring romance of her life—the most appealing, thrilling, altogether charming story thus far written by

ELENORE MEHERIN

"CHICKIE" is a typical clean, engaging, active, young American girl like thousands of others who work in stores and offices — she likes jazz, theatres and dinners in cozy restaurants—but these are subordinate to her secret hopes and ambitions.

How "CHICKIE" fared in her grim struggle for romance —her trivial little joys and her crushing disappointments — comprises a true-to-life serial that will enthrall you from start to finish.

—EVERY DAY—

Beginning Next Monday in the

BOSTON AMERICAN

NO LARGER EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

Lisbon—A national funeral has been decreed for Theophile Braga, former President of Portugal, who was found dead at his home. Death was due to heart failure.

Advertisement

Don't Suffer Stop Torture

Sample Package of the Famous Pyramid Pile Treatment Now Offered Free to Prove What It Will Do for You.

Pyramid Pile Treatment given quick relief from Itching, bleeding or protruding piles, acts as an antiseptic, quiets

Pyramid Is Certainly Fine and Works Such Wonders So Quickly.

the nervous strain, stops pain, reduces inflammation, breaks up congestion, it puts you back on your feet, saves you costly and quickly from danger of infection and operation. Send for free trial and prove how wonderfully effective they are. And you can get them in any drug store at 40 cents a box. Try them free, first.

FREE SAMPLE COUPON

PYRAMID DRUG COMPANY,
887 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Kindly send me a Free sample of Pyramid Pile Treatment, in plain wrapper.

Name .....
Street .....
City ..... State .....

Advertisement

OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO AWAY

Rub Backache Away With Small Trial Bottle of Old "St. Jacobs Oil."

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 35 cent bottle of old, honest St. Jacobs Oil at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and the soreness and lameness is gone.

In use for 65 years, this soothing, penetrating oil takes the pain right out, and ends the misery. It is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

ST. JACOBS OIL

Advertisement

HEAD STUFFED BY CATARRH OR COLD?

Air Passages Instantly Opened and Head Cleared by Ely's Cream Balm

If your nostrils are clogged, your throat distressed, or your head is stuffed by nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing inflamed, swollen membranes and you get instant relief.

How good it feels. Your nostrils are open. Your head is clear. No more hawking, snuffling, dryness or struggling for breath. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from any druggist. Colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up. Relief is sure.

ELY'S CREAM

BRITAIN FACES NATION-WIDE DOCK STRIKE

Union Workers Have Set Feb. 16 for Walkout Unless the Wage Demands Are Granted

London, Jan. 29 (A.P.).—No sooner had the railway strike been settled today than another section of British labor issued a threat to strike unless its demands were conceded.

At a conference of the dockworkers it was decided to instruct members of their union to withdraw their services on February 16 in all ports of Great Britain unless in the meantime a satisfactory settlement of the wages dispute be reached.

The existing wages agreement which the union had notified the employers will expire next Thursday gives a minimum rate of ten shillings daily in the larger ports and nine shillings in the smaller ports.

The Dockers' Union submitted an application for an increase of 2 shillings daily with a proportionate advance in piece work rates and the establishment and maintenance of a scheme to meet the problem of casual labor by providing a guaranteed week's work or pay.

This increase would cost 2,000,000 pounds yearly, according to the employers, who have declined to entertain the proposals on the ground that they cannot afford it in the present depressed state of the shipping industry.

Settle Rail Walkout; Men Go Back to Trains

London, Jan. 29 (A.P.).—The strike of locomotive men which has seriously interefered with railway traffic in Great Britain since January 20 was brought to a conclusion at 4:30 o'clock this morning when representatives of the Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen and the railway companies reached an agreement with the mediation committee of the Trade Union Congress.

Terms of the settlement provide for a conference to decide the extent of application of wage awards made by the National Wage Adjustment Board and to settle questions of classification.

John Bromley, head of the Engineers' and Firemen's Union, said a desire to avoid embarrassing the Labor government influenced the railway men to accept the terms.

Strikers were instructed to resume work immediately, according to the union leaders, who said trains probably would be running on virtually normal schedules by evening.

The agreement, it was reported, was largely due to the efforts of the mediation committee.

At no time has the step been complete and during the last two or three days service steadily improved on most of the lines.

NEW BRITISH ENVOY TO U. S. LEAVES SPAIN

Madrid, Jan. 29.—Sir Esme Howard, newly appointed British Ambassador to the United States, departed this morning for Paris on his way to London. He was accompanied by Lady Howard, who is bound for Rome. Sir Esme will probably leave London for New York on February 20. Sir Esme, who has been the British Ambassador in Spain, was given a cordial farewell at the station by representatives of the King and Queen of Spain and the papal nuncio and by the entire diplomatic corps.

ENVOY KELLOGG IS MADE A "BENCHER"

London, Jan. 29.—Frank B. Kellogg, American Ambassador, has been made an honorary bencher of the middle temple, a high honor of the British legal profession. Numbers of notable Americans have been thus honored, among them five signers of the Declaration of Independence. Chief Justice Taft and former Ambassador John W. Davis, are among the living benchers.

NUXATED IRON

Helps make rich, red blood and revitalize weak nerves.

What To Do For Frail, Feeble, Old People

"When age begins to thin the blood all the vital functions slow down and impair the health. In such cases," says Dr. Emil Sauer, "I know of nothing better than true organic iron.

"What old people need most, is something to put back the iron in their blood. Without iron nothing you eat does you any good. Your food merely passes through you. It is the iron in your blood that enables you to get the nourishment out of your food."

"For old people who feel their former strength slipping away, I always prescribe Nuxated Iron, which contains iron Nature's own iron, which contains iron like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples and like the iron in your blood. It is a true tonic, blood and body builder, and in my own practice, I have had aged people tell me that they felt years younger often in only a few weeks' time."

Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Emil Sauer, may be had at any good drug store. Try taking two tablets three times a day for two weeks, and if you do not feel years younger with new strength, energy and health, your own druggist will gladly refund your money.

NUXATED IRON ENRICHES THE BLOOD—GIVES YOU NEW STRENGTH AND ENERGY

R. H. WHITE VETERANS AT FESTIVE BOARD

DON'T BE TOO FRIENDLY, LET US ALL BE HAPPY
THE TEST OF LIFE IS OLD FRIENDS, AND THIS CLUB IS A CLUB OF OLD FRIENDS
HARRIET M. CUDWELL
MAJOR FRANCIS W. TULLY
E.S.C. Johnson Pres.
M.A. McGOVERN
DRAWING BY W. SCOTT

SCENES AT STORE BANQUET

OLD EMPLOYES OF STORE FORM OWN CLUB

Dean of R. H. White Company Workers Is Presented With $500 in Gold

With a banquet, speeches and song 147 employes of the R. H. White Company, who have been with it fifteen years or more, gathered in the store's restaurant and officially started the recently created Long Service Club. Major Francis W. Tully, sales and publicity manager, was the toastmaster.

Before the dinner a reception was held and while a corps of waitresses, selected from the superintendent's, junior and employment offices, struggled to supply the demand for "Chef Romeo's" seven course dinner, professional entertainers dazzled with song, dance and jazz.

Of many "old-timers" present" Robert Hooker, with forty-two years of service to his credit, was the dean. President George B. Johnson presented Hooker twenty-five $20 gold pieces as "a fitting reward for your faithful service" and a mark of esteem on the eve of Mr Hooker's retirement from active service as head of the meeting room.

Miss Nellie Welch was the oldest woman employe in years of service present. Beyond admitting that it's been more than twenty-five years" she won't tell. She is the store timekeeper. At the table with her was Miss Alice Liston, fur buyer.

Speakers included President Johnson, George Mason and Harry E. Carter, president of the club.

Mr. Johnson is honorary president, and the other officers are: Vice-Presidents, Frank P. Anderson, floor superintendent, and William Fraser, salesman; secretary, Miss Isabella B. Douglas, sales department.

BOILED DINNER MAKES PHONE GIRLS ILL

Corned Beef and Cabbage Sends Some Home; Others Have "Disagreeable" Night

Corned beef and cabbage may be the favorite dish of "Jiggs," but with the telephone operators at the Beach Exchange that delicacy does not stand quite so high.

Last week the girls thought a great deal of it and to prove it attacked generous portions with much gusto, to say nothing of eclat and all those things. The results were not so good.

Several hours after eating, several of them became ill. A couple went home late in the afternoon. The rest stayed on the job, but spent a very disagreeable night. All, however were back on the job the next morning, daring anyone to suggest another dish of corned beef and cabbage.

A representative of the telephone company today explained the illness by blaming it all on the cabbage.

"It was new cabbage. The first new cabbage of the year," he said. "We had the same experience before. A couple of years ago the same thing happened. We investigated and found it was the new cabbage. It was not the corned beef. There was nothing really serious. No girl lost any time at all. It was simply disagreeable."

Gorton's Ready-to-Fry Cod Fish Cakes

The kind of fish cakes you make yourself when you have time. Gorton's famous Codfish (No Bones) in generous proportions with fine mealy potatoes—all ready for you to shape and fry. The original prepared fish cakes.

MacDONALD TAKES UP ULSTER DISPUTE

Dublin, Jan. 29 (I.N.S.)—President Cosgrave of the Irish Free State, announced today that Premier MacDonald has invited the Free State to send representatives to London Friday to discuss the Ulster boundary dispute.

15 ARE RESCUED AT FIRE IN PORTLAND

Many Women Carried Down the Ladders at Apartment Blaze; Loss Is $25,000

Portland, Me., Jan. 29.—Fifteen persons, mostly women, were rescued by firemen and more than a score escaped by fire escapes and stairways when a two-alarm blaze swept through the five-story Churchill Apartments at the corner of State and Danforth streets early today.

Those rescued by firemen were carried down from the fourth and fifth stories over wobbling extension ladders.

The fire was discovered in the basement shortly before 5 o'clock. In a few minutes the smoke had so filled the halls and stairways that passage was practically impossible, and the flames were rapidly eating up through the flooring. The apartment house is of wood, a rebuilt colonial mansion, and burned like tinder. Soon men, women and children were swarming out over the fire escapes.

Then the firemen arrived a dozen faces were seen at the windows on the two top floors. Ladders were hastily raised and the work of carrying down the tenants began. Meanwhile firemen were hampered by the great volume of smoke in the building. One fireman, of Engine 1, was overcome in the building and was carried to safety. He was revived and went back to his duty.

Within a half hour the flames had worked up through all five floors and were shooting through the roof. Not until then did the smoke clear sufficiently to permit firemen to work their way through the hallways. When the fire was extinguished only the front of the building was standing. Damage is estimated at $25,000.

Laskey College Teaches Filing in 1 month; Shorthand in 2; Typing in 3; Bookkeeping in 4; begin Feb. 4. 339 Boylston St. Back Bay 3930. Ask for catalog.

Midnight Dancing Is Banned in Hollywood

Hollywood, Cal., Jan. 29.—The annual "Wampas" ball, one of the big events of the season in the movie world, has been transferred to San Francisco. A new ordinance passed by the Los Angeles council and approved by the Mayor prohibits dancing after midnight, which is altogether too early for those who promote the affair. Frisco isn't so fussy.

WOMEN! DYE IT NEW FOR 15c

Skirts	Kimonos	Draperies
Waists	Dresses	Ginghams
Coats	Sweaters	Stockings

Diamond Dyes

Don't wonder whether you can dye or tint successfully, because perfect home dyeing is guaranteed with "Diamond Dyes," even if you have never dyed before. Druggists have all colors. Directions in each package.

Try this Recipe

Take some Blue Label Chili Sauce, rich with the full flavor of home-grown tomatoes, Mix it with an equal amount of mayonnaise dressing.

Add one or two tablespoons each of chopped red pepper, green pepper, and celery.

Serve with lettuce, and then graciously thank your guests for their compliments on your Russian Dressing.

BLUE LABEL TRADE MARK KETCHUP and CHILI SAUCE

Try my finest Raisin bread tomorrow!

I bake it specially tonight for the many women who have formed a happy little custom of serving Raisin Bread on Wednesdays.

I bake it as you like it—beautiful loaves with plenty of plump and juicy Sun-Maid Raisins. Rich and fruity—healthful as well as delicious. Both white and whole wheat.

And these, too!

Many other tempting Sun-Maid Raisin Foods will also be included in my special mid-week baking—rolls, coffee cakes, cookies, cakes, "snails," muffins.

And Raisin Pie, of course—rich with the full, fine flavor of California table-grapes.

By bakers everywhere

The finest Sun-Maid Raisin Bread and other Raisin Foods are prepared "Special for Wednesday" by bakers every week—everywhere.

Serve them tomorrow for dinner—for your own and the children's luncheon. And Raisin Bread toast for Thursday's breakfast!

Fresh from my ovens you can get these delicious Raisin Foods tomorrow—at any bakery, grocery store or delicatessen.

Many kinds of Raisin Rolls—fresh and tempting

Raisin Pound Cake—rich with fruity goodness

California table-grapes and California sunshine in a pie!

Your Baker

Endorsed by bakers everywhere, by the Retail Bakers' Association of America and by the American Bakers' Association

Raisin bread special on Wednesdays

Do They Look Well? Do They Wear Well?

AFTER ALL, everything that can be said about hosiery has been said. All adjectives have been used—the main thing is appearance and wear.

In such elaborate Revues as the Greenwich Village Follies, now playing at the Shubert, appearance and wear are of utmost importance.

That is why

GOTHAM GOLD STRIPE

"Silk Stockings that wear"

have been chosen. They look better, fit better and wear better.

Miss Geneva Daker and the entire cast in the Greenwich Village Follies wear Gotham Gold Stripe Silk Hosiery.

Distributed in Boston by

Mail Orders Filled

TOURAINE

Corner Washington and Winter Streets

Mail Orders Filled

Kathaway's Raisin Bread

At all Dealers—Every Wednesday and Friday

BOSTON, TUESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1924

BOSTON AMERICAN

LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

A Good Home Newspaper With Features for Children, for Women and for Men

SECTION 2

DOCTOR GUILTY IN AUTO THEFT PLOT

Seek Threat Sender as Barber's Slayer

JUDGE DECIDES SHE MUST GIVE UP RING

MISS ETHEL POTTER

Chelsea girl, who declares she left engagement ring "on the table" for her ex-fiance, Benjamin C. Leavitt, when they called off their romance. The token, bought on the installment plan, was never returned to him, says Leavitt. The jewellers sought to recover the ring because payments had stopped. Judge Hummond decided in their favor and declared the girl either had the gem or knew where it was.

DRUG STORE IS WRECKED BY BLAST

Six Escape Injury in Massachusetts Avenue Explosion: $10,000 Damage Caused

Patrons in the drug store of F. J. McGarry, No. 194 Massachusetts avenue, had a narrow escape today, when an explosion occurred in the basement of the building, blowing out one of the big plate glass windows and setting fire to the store.

Firemen battled for an hour in the midst of chemicals and explosives fighting the fire and constantly in danger of succeeding explosions. The fire was extinguished with an estimated loss of $10,000.

Three women and two men were in the store, in addition to the proprietor, when the explosion occurred. The building was rocked and the heavy window was blown into the street, but none of those in the store were injured.

The building is a two-story brick structure, the second floor being occupied by the Wetmore-Savage Company, dealers in automobile accessories.

The fire was confined to the basement and drug store proper, a metal ceiling keeping the flames from the Wetmore-Savage quarters.

It was necessary for the firemen to flood the basement before the fire was under control.

The first report of the explosion was that it was caused by gas from a hot air furnace. Investigation disclosed that the furnace is in a separate, fireproof room and that the explosion occurred in another part of the basement from some cause unexplained.

DOCTOR IS GUILTY OF THEFT

Jury Finds Dr. Young and 3 Others Conspired to Steal Auto for Insurance

After a trial lasting for several days before Judge Raymond in the Superior Criminal Court, a jury today returned a verdict of guilty against Dr. Ralph R. Young of No. 3 Highland street, Roxbury, Abraham Dawson of No. 4 Akron street, Roxbury, and Andrew Horn and George Moore, both of Lynn, on a charge of conspiring to steal an automobile belonging to Dawson and obtaining $3000 insurance from the Massachusetts Fire and Marine Insurance Company.

The alleged conspiracy took place in May, 1921, and the money was collected from the insurance company. Horn, who was a witness for the Commonwealth, testified that he was paid $250 as his share of the scheme. Moore also was called as a witness for the prosecution.

Dr. Young and Dawson both denied the conspiracy, and Dr. Young told the jury that he purchased the automobile from a man named Fitzgerald in New Hampshire.

Only Painted Girls Land Waitress Jobs Here

What happens to a girl from the country who comes to Boston to find a job?

Must she wear rouge and ear-rings?

Will men try to flirt with her?

Will women employers snub her?

If she looks neat, are her chances of getting a job greater than if she is shabby?

Who treats her more like a human being, the man who hires women employes, or the woman who hires them?

The story of a job hunting country girl starts today in the American. Here is the story of her first days.

What should a girl wear when she's looking for a job?

If she wants work as a waitress, she needs war-paint and gew-gaws. Ear-rings, beads, rouge, powder and lip-stick increase her chances of being hired.

For almost any other kind of job, she needs to be neat and clean. The quality of her clothes doesn't matter.

When I started on my job-hunt I wore dark, simple, inconspicuous clothes, and, as far as the clothes went, would have qualified for any but the waitress work, that is, my job for "inexperienced girls."

5 AHEAD OF HER

I began my "hunt" with a place to place search. A "ten cent" store was a likely prospect, so I walked in.

"A man with red hair hires the girls," I was told, so I looked for the red hair. I saw it, and a girl was following him. I did likewise. Up a long flight of stairs to the office the procession went. The other girl was turned over to a second person. I was told there was no work.

"Do you expect to have any jobs?"

"None. We're filled up." He was a very, very young man. Most ten-cent stores seem to employ very young people.

I went out into the cold air and faced the wind up Tremont street to a department store. The elevator to the seventh floor landed me at the employment office.

"Take a seat," were the instructions.

The five girls on the bench pushed over and made room for me. I wore a dark, plain coat and a small brown hat. Two of the five had fur-trimmed coats and metal cloth hats and veils. We sat and waited, with every minute raising our hopes. A gray-haired man came out from his office.

"There's nothing today, girls, but next week we're going to start registering for the sale. Come in then."

The six of us rose and moved a bit heavy-footed to the elevator.

"Ain't it awful!" one girl said.

TRIES AGENCY

I heard that same expression from many women during my hunt for a job.

"Ten cent" stores still loomed before me as places where an inexperienced girl might get work. I tried one on Washington street.

"Don't need any girls." The young woman was snippy. I suppose if I'd been a customer she'd have treated me at least as an equal. As a job hunter, I was an inferior being, and she wanted me to know it. I went out.

A classy lunch room didn't need any girls either. The manager of a drug store that has a lunch counter inspected me through half-closed eyes and told me there were no vacancies.

The wind grew more biting each time I stepped from the warmth of a store into the street. I decided to try an employment agency.

The rows of benches in the big room were filled to capacity with girls looking for work. They were with one exception "experienced." My heart sank. What chance had I against them?

I squeezed into a seat.

There was a call for a waitress. The waitresses all were the best dressed and the most independent. A woman went up to the desk.

"It's a good place," the lady in charge told the applicant. "I hear the Mayor of Somerville eats there."

MUST HAVE ROUGE

"I don't care who eats there," the woman answered. "If he leaves 10 cents under the plate he can be a tramp for all I care."

I went to the desk.

"Could I get a job as a waitress?"

The lady in charge looked at me. "You've not dressed right, my dear. If you had earrings and beads and some rouge and powder you'd be more apt to get hired."

She asked me if I was experienced.

"No, I'm not."

"Well here's a job for an inexperienced girl." She gave me a card to a shoulder pad manufacturing place on Washington street.

I went to the Shoulder Pad factory. At the top of three flights of stairs, was the shop.

"I was sent from the employment agency." I told the manager.

"Put your hat and coat over there and I'll show you what to do." He didn't even ask my name.

I hesitated, then made the plunge. "How much do you pay?"

"It's piece work."

ONLY $9 A WEEK

"Well how much would I make?"

"After you learn, you can make twenty dollars a week."

"And until then?"

"Oh, you ought to make nine dollars."

I shook my head. "I'd rather try to get something that will pay me more."

There was still the other place I had been told about. I decided to try one in Cambridge.

Read what happened to the job hunting girl on her next attempt in tomorrow's American.

NOTE FOUND IN VICTIM'S ROOM GIVES CLEW

The writer of a threatening letter, believed to be a resident of Hartford, Ct., is being sought by Boston police in connection with the murder of Alfred Fontes, an obscure barber of No. 227 London street, East Boston.

Fontes' body was found lying across the bed in his room. A cord was tightly drawn about the victim's neck, while his arms and legs were securely bound.

By the side of the body lay a club, heavily padded, with which Fontes had been beaten across the head. He had been dead for some hours when discovered.

Fontes lived in the apartment with his mother, aged eighty-six. His mother was visiting with another son when the murder occurred and the body was discovered by a sister, Mrs. Frank L. Silva, who lives with her husband on the first floor of the apartment house.

Fontes for many years distrusted banks and trust companies and kept his money in his room. Police who investigated the murder at first held the theory that the barber had been slain for his money.

A thorough examination of the room and the dead man's effects brought to light the threatening letter and this put a new angle on the homicide. The letter, the contents of which were not divulged by the police, bore a return address of a number on Snow street, Hartford.

The Hartford police investigated and found no such address as given in the letter, but it is believed that the note did come from that city.

PROBES MEALS OF GLOUCESTER OFFICIALS

Alderman Martha Brooks Wants to Know if the City Pays for Choice Viands

Gloucester, Jan. 29.—Is the city of Gloucester paying for the meals of city officials and employes at the best restaurants and hotels in the city?

Miss Martha N. Brooks.

Miss Martha N. Brooks wants to know.

And Miss Brooks will likely find out, because she is a duly elected alderman of the city and she will present the matter at a meeting of the Municipal Council Wednesday evening.

Alderman Brooks heard rumors to the effect that those on the city payroll, at least some of them, had been in the habit of dropping in at their favorite cafe or hotel dining room at any old time of the day or night—eating all kinds of high-priced viands and then simply signing the check and having it presented to the city treasurer for payment later.

Alderman Brooks is a go-getter. When she heard the rumors, she promptly sent letters to all the bonifaces and restaurateurs of Gloucester and stated that she wanted a record of all meals charged to the city, the person ordering the meals, the foods ordered and the time ordered.

She was refused to make any advance statement on the result of her investigation. It is understood, however, that a number of prominent officials who possess excellent appetites and thrifty dispositions are anticipating the coming meeting of the Council with considerable uneasiness.

CHELSEA GIRL'S ROMANCE BLASTED

Ex-Fiance Insists She Never Returned His Engagement Token

As far as reading thoughts and finding hidden objects are concerned, Konradi Leitner, the "mental wizard," who recently amazed Boston with his demonstrations, has nothing on Judge Hammond of Superior Court.

Judge Hammond determined the whereabouts of a diamond engagement ring after a jewelry concern had failed to recover it from a couple whose romance had been blasted.

They are Miss Ethel Potter of No. 135 Washington street, Chelsea, and Benjamin C. Leavitt, also of Chelsea.

The ring was bought on the installment plan from Leiberman Brothers of Salem street by Leavitt for $240. He paid $50 down.

When the couple broke their engagement, the payments stopped and Leiberman Brothers sought to recover the ring.

Leavitt said Ethel had it.

Ethel said Leavitt had it.

Judge Hammond decided Ethel either had it or knew where it was and that Leiberman Brothers were entitled to it.

Miss Potter testified she had left the ring on a table for Leavitt after the engagement was broken, but he denied it was returned to him in that way or otherwise.

EARTHQUAKE ROCKS COAST OF CHILE

Buenos Aires, Jan. 29.—A slight earth shock was felt here. Mendoza, on the western frontier of Argentina, experienced the shock with much greater intensity. Reports from Santiago, Chile, say that the shock there was of a prolonged nature and telegraphic communications between Santiago and Coquimbo, on the Chilean coast, were interrupted. Considerable damage was done at Coquimbo, which suffered severely from the earthquake of November, 1922.

FOUR NEW MEXICO BANKS CLOSED UP

Silver City, N. M., Jan. 29.—The Silver City National, the Silver City Savings Bank and the American National Bank here are closed and the state bank examiner has been asked to take charge of the Bank of Tyrone. The institutions, all in Grant County, had combined liabilities estimated at $2,000,000, according to their statements of December 31. Recent large withdrawals, it was said, resulted in the decision to close.

BLAZE REKINDLES IN EAST BOSTON RUINS

Fire again broke out in the debris of the Meridian Building, No. 163-165 Meridian street, East Boston, today and streams were played on the ruins for hours in an effort to extinguish the smouldering ruins. The building was destroyed by fire Sunday night in one of the worst fires of the Winter.

TEXAS VOTES REACH CAPITAL FOR RECOUNT

Washington, Jan. 29.—A trail of ballot boxes led from Texas to the capital today as the first of the votes cast in the 1922 Texas Senatorial election reached here through the mails for an official recount. Ballots cast in 128 precincts are in the first batch arriving here.

The recount demanded by opponents of Senator Earle B. Mayfield, Democrat, of Texas, in their efforts to unseat him, will not be started until the ballots from all of Texas' 4,000 voting precints have reached the Senate. It was believed the votes would be all here within a week.

BUTLER STARTS TO WEED OUT "UNFIT"

Philadelphia, Jan. 29.—Carrying out his plans for the elimination of physically unfit men from the police force, Director of Public Safety Butler today ordered the first group of 700 men reported as "incompetent" by the lieutenants of the various districts to report for physical examination at city hall. The entire 700 men will be given rigid tests, it was said, to determine their fitness for further service.

5 YEARS, $15,000 FINE FOR OIL PROMOTER

Houston, Tex., Jan. 29.—S. E. J. Cox, oil promoter, was sentenced today to serve five years in the Federal penitentiary and to pay a fine of $15,000 by Federal Judge Hutcheson, following his conviction by a jury on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

PLANNED TRIBUTE TO LENINE UNDER LENS

Springfield, Jan. 29.—Mayor E. F. Leonard is investigating the character of a meeting being planned for February 8 in memory of Nikolai Lenine, and declares that if he discovers any likelihood of "red" tendencies he will act to prevent the meeting. Dr. W. A. R. Chapin, commander of the local American Legion post, says that the legion will support the Mayor and police in any measures that they may deem wise.

TO OUST BALDWIN AS CONSERVATIVE HEAD

London, Jan. 29.—There is already a movement on foot to oust former Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin from the leadership of the Conservative party at the meeting of the party which has been called for February 11, according to the Morning Post. The reason given is because Baldwin deliberately threw away the Conservative majority in the House of Commons by precipitating the general election of December 6 last, the Post says.

Died in Store

John Kennedy, seventy years of age, proprietor of a shoe repairing shop at No. 171 Medford street, near the corner of Washington street, Somerville, died suddenly in his store today. He was found by William C. Fraser of No. 29 Central square, and Edward Morris of No. 17 Knowlton street, Somerville. The police say that gas was escaping from jets and were of the belief that death may have been due to accidental gas poisoning.

GERMANS OFFER GRIFFIS FOR BISCHOFF

Willing to Give Up Bergdoll Kidnaper in Exchange for Notorious War Spy

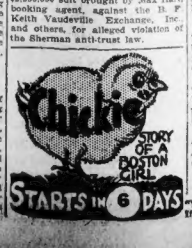
Berlin, Jan. 29.—The American petition with 2,500,000 names requesting the release of Lieutenant C. H. Griffis of Hamilton, O., one of the men sentenced for attempting to kidnap Grover C. Bergdoll, the wealthy American draft dodger, had not been received today. Officials declared, however, that it would get the most careful consideration owing to the powerful pressure of American public opinion.

It was learned that "the government is determined to do all in its power to please the United States. The situation is aggravated, however, by the proposal to drive a bargain, the Americans releasing Dr. Frederick Bischoff, a German dentist, sentenced to prison in Maryland, in return for the release of Griffis."

Dr. Bischoff was sentenced in 1918 to serve twenty-five years for attempting to blow up the Gould & Eberhardt machinery plant at Irvington, which had been converted to war manufactories. Bischoff also received a concurrent eighteen-year sentence for distributing literature slandering Red Cross nurses.

DROPS SUIT AGAINST B. F. KEITH EXCHANGE

New York, Jan. 29.—Federal Judge August N. Hand today dismissed the $2,250,000 suit brought by Max Hart, booking agent, against the B. F. Keith Vaudeville Exchange, Inc., and others, for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.



G. O. P. SEES TAX COMPROMISE ON 35 PER CENT.

Believe Full Support of Party Can Be Mustered on That Part of Bill

Washington, Jan. 29.—Republican leaders in Congress were more hopeful today than at any time since the Mellon tax revision plan reached the Ways and Means Committee that a compromise rate of 35 per cent. maximum surtax would get almost full Republican support.

The committee will take up the income tax schedule tomorrow and drive ahead to complete its task and report the bill to the House by February 15. All thought has been abandoned for the 25 per cent. maximum suggested by Secretary Mellon.

There is no expectation that all of the insurgents can be brought to vote for the committee bill. A few of them are certain to stand with the Democrats for the highest surtax suggested. It is believed that enough Democratic votes can be secured for the compromise surtax rate to offset the insurgent votes and pass the tax reduction bill.

The committee has rejected all plans to make special provision for taxing community property, and will continue to make special provision of the present law taxing the property in income in the hands of the taxpayer receiving it.

Secretary Mellon suggested this tax should be laid on those controlling the property.

It has been decided that all income up to and including $5,000 shall be considered earned income and be given a 25 per cent. reduction in taxes.

The earned income deduction will be allowed up to $20,000 when the income is shown to come with'n the definition of earned income and is not derived in part from invested capital.

SUPPORT JOHNSON, IS PLEA TO COLLEGIANS

The Hiram W. Johnson for President Club of Harvard College has issued an appeal to college men of the United States to support Senator Johnson for President. The appeal is addressed to all the young men and women in the colleges of the country asking their consideration.

GASOLINE PRICE IS GIVEN NEW BOOST

Going up!

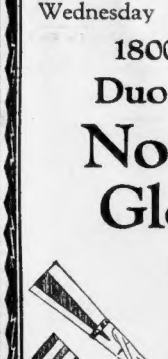
Gasoline which tumbled so rapidly in price not long ago is again on the upward trend. Today an advance of two and one-half cents per gallon went into effect at the Colonial filling stations, making new prices 20 cents from tank wagon and 23½ cents at the station. This advance meets the recent advances by other distributors.

Thunderbolt No. 32

On Sale Wednesday

1800 Pairs Duo Fabric Novelty Gloves

90c Pair



Gloves that would delight you at any price!

Warm
Pliable
Perfectly cut
Richly embroidered

Perfection you'd never expect in any fabric gloves at anything like the price! But this is the spirit of "Thunderbolts"! To give values that are almost unbelievable!

They fit so perfectly!
They feel so suede-like!
The backs are so richly embroidered!
The fabric is so good!
They're altogether so smart!
And the price is so ridiculously low.

Colors

Light Grey
Medium Grey
Mode
Beaver
Brown and Oak

Cavalier Gauntlets
the flare silk lined to turn back on occasion.

Strap-Wrist Styles
Simply strap fastened or with embroidered strap all around the wrist.

Longer Lengths
Smartly designed strap-wrist gloves coming almost to the elbow.

Glove Store—Just Inside Winter Street Entrance

The Shepard Stores

Racine, Wis.—Sale of the Mitchell Motors Company plant here to the Nash Motors Company of Kenosha for $400,000 was completed today.

MOTHER!

"California Fig Syrup"

Dependable Laxative for Sick Baby or Child

Hurry Mother! Even a bilious, constipated, feverish child loves the pleasant taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

THIEVES POISON POLICE DOG; GET $150

Two Safes Forced in Somerville and Medford; Dog Is Found Dead

Robbers visited the Mystic avenue district of Medford and Somerville, cracked two safes and got away with about $150 in cash.

At the plant of Lacey & Sons, No. 59 Mystic avenue, Medford, the men drilled the combination off a small safe and ransacked several desks, but found nothing.

The Somerville Coal Company office was next visited. Here the marauders found a police dog. They fed the dog poison and went to work on the safe, getting about $150 cash. The dog was dead when employes came in this morning.

CANADA STOPS FLOW OF BEER INTO U. S.

Detroit, Jan. 29.—A Canadian government order, issued from Ottawa three days ago, has curbed the flow of beer across the Detroit River into the United States, and resulted in the accumulation of more than 100,000 cases of Canadian beer at Petite Cote, Ontario, warehouses.

TRY TWO COPS ON NEGLECT CHARGES

Keeley and Alexander Accused of Failing to Ring Reports on Time

Two members of the Boston police force, Patrolmen Keeley and Alexander of the Dudley street station, are on trial at headquarters today on the charge of neglect of duty.

The men are the first arraigned since the promulgation a week ago of the order of Police Commissioner Herbert A. Wilson, which declared that all officers found guilty of neglect would be severely dealt with.

Alexander has been up on charges several times before. It is alleged the men failed to ring in their reports on time.

COUNCIL WOULD RENAME SQUARE

The City Council passed an order renaming Park Square Abraham Lincoln Square in honor of the great emancipator, and naming the junction of High, Summer and South streets, Daniel Webster Square, in honor of this great man who once lived in a house in that location.

'PAT' MAKES SPORT OF 'BULLY BOY'

SCENE FROM "LITTLE OLD NEW YORK"

"Pat" O'Day (Marion Davies) ridicules the grotesque appearance of "Bully Boy" Brewster (Harry Watson) and his better half, Rachael Brewster (Elizabeth Murray) in "Little Old New York." This great Cosmopolitan film is being shown twice daily at the Park Theatre, Boston, where it is crowding the house at each performance.

JIM MEETS THE GENERAL—AND THEY SHAKE

YD Leader and Mayor Patch Up Their Row Over General Haller's Visit

A lot of the boys haven't got a real thrill out of life since they were fourteen years old, and went out to the circus lot at the hour when raw beef was being thrown into the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Lee, took hope in the lobby of the Hotel Bellevue when they saw Clarence R. Edwards approaching James Michael Curley.

Clarence is none other than our famous Major General, State commander of the American Legion.

James is the Man in School street.

SPLIT OVER HALLER.

The Major General and His Honor the Mayor fell out a while back on the question of Joe Haller of Poland, Europe, and Joe's place in history. One of them called him a "hero." The best break the other could give him was "merciless butcher."

Mayor Curley Gen. Edwards

They said sassy things about each other.

And here they were, about to collide.

The folks at the ring-side pulled up their chairs. Two reporters borrowed some hotel paper.

Clarence walked forward in the style of a Y. D. soldier. More like a sailor, at that, for his bearings said, "Damn the torpedoes."

"ROUND BY ROUND."

Jim drew himself up haughtily. The watchers pulled their watches, to take it by rounds.

They met. The General's right hand shot out, but shucks! It was wide open. He was grinning.

"How do you do, Mr. Mayor?" he said, and Mr. Curley, dropping the Standish Wilcox hauteur, came right back with "Fine, General, and how's the General?"

Then they had a great little meeting together; the General asked the Mayor to come to next Sunday night's big bonus meeting in Symphony Hall, the Mayor said he'd be "tickled foolish," or words to that effect, and the gallery took a few kicks at itself and melted like a dab of ice cream in a boarding school.

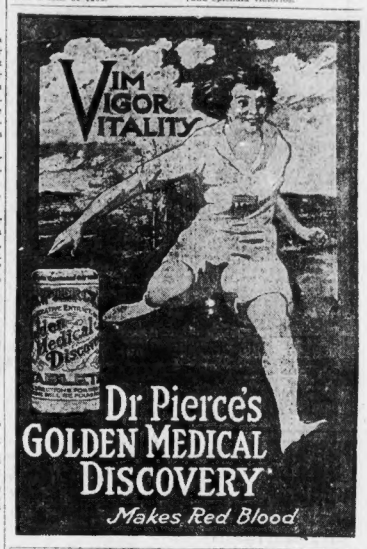
BURNED BY TORCH THAWING OUT PIPES

Michael Sirianla, who owns a four-story apartment house at No. 9 Brigham street, East Boston, used a gasoline torch to thaw out frozen pipes in the building today. The torch exploded, burned Sirianla's hands and set the building on fire. The tenants fled in terror when the building was filled with smoke, but firemen extinguished the flames with a loss of $200.

MUSSOLINI AFFIRMS FASCISMO SOLIDITY

Milan, Italy, Jan. 29 (Universal Cable).—Premier Mussolini in a manifesto issued here affirming that the solidity of the Fascismo continues and that its strength is the same throughout Italy, says:

"All people afflicted by demagogic politicians are looking to Rome as to a lighthouse. Fascismo will continue on its way and will win new and splendid victories."



Demand BAYER ASPIRIN

SAY "BAYER" when you buy—Genuine

Unless you see the "Bayer Cross" on tablets, you are not getting the genuine Bayer Aspirin proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians over 23 years for

Colds Headache Neuralgia Rheumatism
Toothache Lumbago Neuritis Pain, Pain

Genuine → Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions.

Handy "Bayer" boxes of twelve tablets
Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid

BULLET BURIED IN WOMAN'S FUR COAT

A sealskin coat saved Mrs. Mary L. Doherty of No. 19 Perry street, Roxbury, when entering a trolley car on Blue Hill avenue, at West Cottage street, she was struck in the chest by a bullet from a cartridge which had been placed on the car tracks, it is believed, by boys. The bullet was found imbedded in the front of her coat.

Advertisement

THIS BRIGHT BABY GIRL

Brought Joy to Home. Mrs. Price's Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Scootac, Pa.—"I never felt like working, and when I would try to do any work standing on my feet, I would just drag around all day long. At times I would have terrible pains and would be in bed three or four days. I was in this condition about a year when I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the papers. I had heard different women say it was good for women's troubles, and my aunt thought it would help me as it had helped her. So I took the Vegetable Compound and it brought things right, and I was in good shape before I became a mother again. I believe it helps at birth, too, as with both my other babies I suffered a great deal more than with this one. I thank you a thousand times for the good your medicine has done me."—Mrs. ROBERT PRICE, Scootac, via Lackawaxen, Pa.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

MARION DAVIES BEWITCHING AS A BOY

Marvelous Film Star Doffs Woman's Frills in "Little Old New York"

In spite of the fact that nearly every woman longs for the slim, graceful figure which will enable her to wear masculine attire becomingly, it is a fact well recognized by artists and modistes that very few women really look well in men's clothes.

Maude Adams and Marie Doro have been notable singe exceptions. Both these women were the lucky possessors of straight, slender forms which look quite as well in severe mannish garb as in the frills and ruffles of femininity.

Now comes Marion Davies in the piquant and adorable role of "Pat" O'Day in "Little Old New York," adapted to the screen from the stage success by Rida Johnson Young, which is now at the Park Theatre.

Those who saw Miss Davies as Princess Mary Tudor when she pluckily donned the disguise of Brandon's young brother and fought a sword duel with some ruffians in "When Knighthood Was in Flower," will not wonder that she makes a most bewitching boy of a century ago when gracefully flowing capes and ruffled shirts gave a little more color and variety to man's attire than in the present practical age. She wears her blond hair in a most becoming short bob.

JAPS PLEASED BY U. S. IMMIGRATION PLAN

Tokio, Jan. 29 (A.P.).—Dispatches received here from the United States reporting the proposal of the House Committee on Immigration to treat Japanese immigrants in the same manner as that of other nationalities on a basis of percentage restriction, have evoked official approval as eliminating discrimination against Japanese immigrants.

The Tokio Asahi, however, points out that, while the proposal seems fair, "it really is cruel legislation, limiting the number of Japanese entering America annually to little more than 200, compared with about 7,000 now."

BRUSSELS PLANS FOR INTERNATIONAL CITY

Brussels, Jan. 29.—The Belgian Cabinet today devoted part of its time to discussing the proposed "ternational city" and college which it is planned to erect here. M. Otlet, Belgian member of the Administration Board of the International University, notified the government several days ago that an American organization called the World Federation League, in agreement with the Union of International Associations at Brussels, recommended the scheme, which would make the Belgian capital a centre of international life, grouping an international city, university and museum.

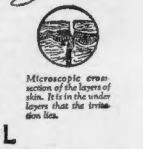
Underneath where irritation starts

the real trouble is reached and soothed away

DO NOT expect ordinary surface remedies to remove a rash, eczema or itching skin disorder. Pores clogged with poisonous germs, body cells and tissues swollen and inflamed—these are what must be reached and soothed back to normal.

Yet there is a way that brings almost immediate relief. To cleanse the pores, kill germs, and start the skin again acting normally, leading physicians have for twenty-eight years been prescribing Resinol Ointment.

If you have today any spot, rash or irritation on your skin, even if you may have given up hope of immediate relief, try Resinol. Get a jar at your druggist or send for a free trial sample to Dept. 8a, Resinol, Baltimore Md. Use it without fear. Its results are surprising.



Microscopic cross section of the layers of skin. It is in the under layers that the irritation lies.

RESINOL

Recommended for 28 years by leading physicians

Keep posted on Radio

Know what's going on every day in the radio world. Read the daily Radio Page in the Boston American. It gives you the best and latest news of radio progress.

Radio News every day in the

BOSTON AMERICAN

Tune in tonight on WNAC and enjoy the Boston American Band

If this Signature

E. W. Grove

is NOT on the Box, it is NOT

BROMO QUININE

"There is no other BROMO QUININE"

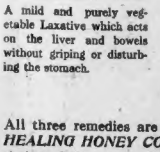
Proven Safe for more than a Quarter of a Century as a quick and effective remedy for Colds, Grip and Influenza, and as a Preventive.

The First and Original Cold and Grip Tablet

Price 30 Cents

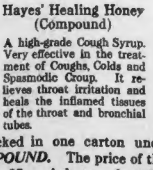
To Stop a Cough

Three Things are Necessary



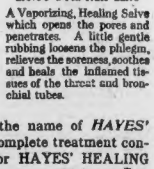
Grove's Liver Pills

A mild and purely vegetable Laxative which acts on the liver and bowels without griping or disturbing the stomach.



Hayes' Healing Honey (Compound)

A high-grade Cough Syrup. Very effective in the treatment of Coughs, Colds and Spasmodic Croup. It relieves throat irritation and heals the inflamed tissues of the throat and bronchial tubes.



Grove's O-Pen-Trate Salve

A Vaporizing, Healing Salve which opens the pores and penetrates. A little gentle rubbing loosens the phlegm, relieves the soreness, soothes and heals the inflamed tissues of the throat and bronchial tubes.

All three remedies are packed in one carton under the name of HAYES' HEALING HONEY COMPOUND. The price of the complete treatment consisting of three remedies is 35c. Ask any druggist for HAYES' HEALING HONEY COMPOUND, pay him 35c and you will get the carton which contains all three remedies.

This combination treatment and special formula in HAYES' HEALING HONEY COMPOUND is prepared especially for the treatment of Coughs and Spasmodic Croup.

ANNA FRANK DIED FROM SLEEP POWDER

Cleveland, O., Jan. 29.—Accidental poisoning of [illegible] Mrs. Anna Frank, forty-eight, former actress and wife of Jacob Frank, prominent as a player of leading parts in Jewish comedies, resulted a coroner's verdict, he announced by City Chemist Knapp. Mrs. Frank was found dead in bed [illegible]. A. P. Hammond [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] as he is satisfied the powders were [illegible] Mrs. Frank was the mother of three children, all of whom are on the stage.

UPSET STOMACH

Ceases
Acidity ence
Sourness arburn

Pape's DIAPEPSIN FOR INDIGESTION

Makes Sour Stomach Fine!

So pleasant, so inexpensive, so quick to give an upset stomach the utmost relief. Pape's Diapepsin reaches the stomach all pain and distress from indigestion or a sour, gassy stomach vanishes.

Millions know its magic. All druggists recommend this harmless stomach corrective.

Advertisement

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Acids is Relieved by Jad Salts

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation; then our meals sour, forming acrid fluids and gases. Which inflate the stomach. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, while it is effervescing, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of stomach sufferers with excellent results.

JAD SALTS

ECZEMA IN RASH ON CHILD'S HEAD

Spread Over Face. Hair Fell Out. Cuticura Heals.

"When my baby was three months old eczema broke out in a rash on it on the top of his head. It spread all over his face and itched and burned causing him to scratch. His hair all fell out. He was cross and fretful and cried all the time, and could not sleep day or night.

"I picked up a Cuticura Soap wrapper and after reading it sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I purchased more, and he was healed." (Signed) Mrs. John Rodwik, 26 Conant St., Providence, R. I., Nov. 14, 1923.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free. Address: "Cuticura, Dept. X, Malden, Mass." Cuticura Soap shaves without mug. Try our new Shaving Stick.

HEAD COLDS

Melt a little Vicks in a spoon and inhale the [illegible] vapors. Apply [illegible] nostrils. Just

VICKS VAPORUB

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

'VANITIES' IS JOYOUS REVUE

Plenty of Art, but None Which Carries Blush in Show at Colonial

By NICHOLAS YORK

A [illegible] musical revue and careful cast [illegible] talents to the [illegible] stations [illegible] the case of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] more color and less draperies than might [illegible] New England constitute. But [illegible] old-maid to be a "dud." There [illegible] many of it—but none [illegible] artful a blush. It didn't [illegible].

JOYOUS REVUE.

"Vanities" revealed itself as a [illegible] of revue fully as pretentious as any that have passed this way for many months and [illegible] an assortment of novelties not little to be desired. [illegible], by some chance the score of fair creatures that made the ensembles more than worth gazing upon were convened [illegible] enough to wear silken hose [illegible] a rare thing on first nights in [illegible] revue presentation.

Most shy of that kind does appear [illegible] keep in until Tuesday night [illegible] as an official vindication by Mr. Carey of the Mayor's office. Mr. Carroll and his "Vanities" came to the footlights pure and [illegible].

But if legs were covered, shy art was compelled to wear woolens below the waist, there was more than a generous share of well-groomed freshly powdered backs to keep your mind off the scenery. There was a great wealth of beauty, gorgeously adorned, walking miles and miles up and down long flights of stairs. Mr. Carroll [illegible] was left to entertain [illegible] being a capable comedian. Lou Holtz appeared as the youngest of [illegible] and Ann Mac Donald made an attractive foil to Somer-

PEGGY JOYCE SINGS.

With no featured players to draw the unwilling dollar to the box office, Mr. Carroll depended upon well tuned entertainment. As he screened the lyrics and music himself the winning quality of the melody was assured. Mr. Carroll does turn a deft hand to composition. Naturally there was interest in the appearance of Peggy Hopkins Joyce, the singer's long distance champion in private romance. She sang about herself, with chorus but accompaniment, wore more clothes than anybody in the revue and, on the whole, took things easily. No matter how you may regard her singing voice you can easily concede that she furnished a fine but fleeting view of brightly decked beauty.

GOOD MELODIES.

For fun Joe Cook worked overtime in a variety of ways—and all of them satisfactory. He filtered through the evening with portions of his "one man vaudeville show," keeping everybody in good humor while the girls were changing one pair of stockings for another. Irene Ricardo made the most of the song numbers allotted to her and John Byam and L. Barton Evans were vocally agreeable. "Vanities" was rich in everything that makes musical revue popular. Its melodies were by far the best of the year, its costuming reached a new standard of sartorial luxury, and its people—well, most of them were pretty thoroughly dressed, but not excessively so. What more could be asked?

Week's Features

HOWARD—(Burlesque). "Flirts and Skirts," with Harry Harrigan and Bob Bisbe.

BOWDOIN—"Tiger Rose." "The Country Kid" and news reel.

MODERN AND BEACON—Name the Man," "The 11th Hour" and Round 3 of "Fighting Blood."

BOSTON—"Just Off Broadway," news reel and vaudeville.

OLYMPIA—"Anna Christie." News and comedy films.

SCOLLAY SQ.—"Big Brother," News and comedy reels and vaudeville.

B. F. KEITH'S—(Vaudeville) Charles King, late of "Little Nellie Kelly" and other features.

LOEW'S STATE—"Pied Piper Malone" and "A Wife's Romance."

ORPHEUM—"The Man Life Passed By" and the Orpheum Amateur Orchestra.

CASINO—(Burlesque). Jimmie Cooper's Black and White Show, with vaudeville.

CAPITOL—"The Fighting Blade" and "Her Temporary Husband."

CENTRAL SQ. — "The Fighting Blade," with vaudeville.

STRAND—"Black Oxen" and "Stephen Steps Out."

CODMAN SQ.—"The Spanish Dancer" and "The Near Lady."

GAYETT — (Burlesque). Charles Waldron's "Bostonians," headed by Harry Pepper and George Brennan.

ST. JAMES—(Stock). "Iosbund." A rural drama.

Wins Audience

PEGGY JOYCE, Featured in Earl Carroll's "Vanities" at the Colonial.

SOMERVILLE PLAYERS IN FARCE

Fine Performance Is Given of "What's Your Wife Doing"

The Somerville Theatre Players again demonstrated their ability by giving an exceptionally fine performance of the farce, "What's Your Wife Doing?"

Bernard Nedell, the leading man, returned to the company and gave a [illegible] being a capable comedian. Lucia Corbet appeared as the young wife and Ann MacDonald made an attractive foil to Somer-

Remaining Plays

PARK—Marion Davies in "Little Old New York." An impressive picture version of Rida Johnson Young's stage play.

SHUBERT — Greenwich Village Follies. Musical revue laid down on original lines. Specializes in comedy.

FENWAY — Betty Compson in "Woman to Woman," a story of gay Parisian life, and "The Trouble," one of "Our Gang" comedies.

WILBUR — Up She Goes. A spirited musical play taken from Frank Craven's successful comedy, "Too Many Cooks."

PLYMOUTH — "Whispering Wires." Mystery melodrama, with gun play and a flock of jumping detectives.

ARLINGTON—"Irene." The newly organized Berkeley Comedians in one of the brightest entertainments of the season.

HOLLIS—Frank Craven in "The First Year." Small town comedy that runs true to life. Real laughter.

TREMONT—"Adrienne." Musical comedy.

'CLEOPATRA' SCORES AT SHUBERT

Jane Cowl Superb as Queen of the Nile in Shakespeare's Play

For thirteen times in thirty years Boston [illegible] last night saw Shakespeare's "Antony and Cleopatra." It was given at the Selwyn Theatre by Jane Cowl as Cleopatra. Those who saw Miss Cowl as Juliet a week that should be enough, but it is not. It would be hard to tell in mere words about the acting of that wonderful woman. She was superb.

And Fher side were Rollo Peters as Ant, and Dennis King, a lowly messenger, who, in his only scene, rose to great heights. Seldon does an actor give such applause to a minor character as was given last night to Mr. King, and he deserved it. After Mr. Peters as Antony, he was impressively human, that you could not, if you would, refrain from using all the adjectives at your command in describing his work.

PLAY SHOULD BE SEEN.

Aure said before, it is thirty years since this play was presented in Boston. It was worth waiting for. Antony and Cleopatra" is well-nigh worn because of the stern requirements in scenery and costumes and because of the long list of speaking parts. Only six times before in so many years as right, has this play been presented in America. It is well worth any theatre-lover's time to go to see it. In fact no would not miss it as it is presented by Miss Cowl and her company.

An old story of the great Antony and [illegible] from his place of power by the love of the Queen of the Nile, who [illegible] her life by the bite of a tiny [illegible] asps with human interest. It is human story and is presented [illegible] by persons of talent.

MISS COWL INSPIRED.

Miss Cowl and Mr. Peters never [illegible] and they at times seemed [illegible] inspired. The death scenes [illegible] both Antony and Cleopatra may [illegible] be called masterpieces. Cleopatra's death, as portrayed by Miss [illegible], combining spirituality, dignity and tragedy—a wonderful combination.

Much might be said of the other members of the cast. But aside from [illegible] Hector as Enobarbus, we will [illegible] refrain. Not because we so desire but because there are so many. It is sufficient to say that Miss Cowl as the great Cleopatra, wreck [illegible] of kingdoms, is wonderful.

BRITAIN HOLDS RIGHTS IN PERSIAN OIL FIRM

London, Jan. 29.—Philip Snowden, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced today that the British government was not prepared to dispose of its holdings in the Anglo-Persian Oil Company. The Labor party has always advocated retention of the government's 5,000,000 shares in the company, which have considerably gained in value since the Royal Dutch-Shell combine offered the government £12,000,000 for them. Prime Minister MacDonald and his colleagues have maintained that the

Wins Triumph

JANE COWL.

Miss Cowles' performance in "Antony and Cleopatra," at the Shubert Theatre, is wonderful.

'POLLY' FULL OF CLEAN FUN

Genevieve Tobin in Comedy at Majestic Is Clever Actress

The average production that bears the [illegible] label can be counted on to go over big.

The [illegible] Preferred starring Genevieve Tobin, which opened at the Majestic last evening is no [illegible].

[illegible] company of [illegible] girl in the movies and the [illegible] acts around with rapid fire comedy of the highest order.

WINS AUDIENCE.

When Miss Tobin made her first [illegible] last [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

FORBES' VIEWS ON FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes

What is on your mind? are the public thinking about?

Writers are sometimes asked how they presume to know what public opinion is on various subjects. Well, in my own case, I receive, I estimate, some 15,000 letters a year, mostly from people I do not know. Incidentally, I spend from twenty to thirty hours every week reading newspapers and periodicals, and still more hours reading all kinds of pamphlets, circulars, brochures, reports, books, etc., all with the idea of keeping posted on what is being done and what is being thought.

* * *

Taxation is uppermost in the public's mind today.

Next comes the bonus.

Wage earners are worried a good deal over excessively high rents.

Interest in the Presidential campaign is far from being over.

Agricultural problems still exercise serious attention over a widespread area.

The outlook for wages and employment is a good deal in the minds of workers as well as business men.

European affairs are followed more closely by financiers and Eastern business leaders than by the rank and file of the people, even as with those in the West.

Of course, the stock market and its fluctuations are followed closely by an increasingly large number of people every year.

Those who are interested usually are intensely interested. Prohibition is talked about a lot, but the indications are that it is subsiding considerably as a topic for discussion or writing.

The shooting up of crooked promoters and brokers and the like is followed with relish.

How to use savings advantageously is a problem on which questions continuously pour in.

Another matter on which advice is constantly asked is how to go about finding a better job.

The man whose duties and savings appear to excite the keenest interest are Henry Ford, President Coolidge, John D. Rockefeller, Edison, Schwab, and the leading scientists attached to the Rockefeller Medical Institute.

* * *

I have before me the baton of letters delivered by the latest mail. Perhaps a peep at some of them may prove interesting.

"An investor, payer of income surtax, a manufacturing executive, and also an ex-service man and member of the American Legion," in Kentucky, if points are of that, the American Legion of Kentucky, the bonus would cost only $800 or $900 a year for the first three years, and that Mr. Mellon estimates the treasury surplus at about $523,000,000. He asks, "Why not pay the bonus and borrow the necessary $1,000,000, and still avoid the tax payer $45 [illegible]? If there are any reasons why this cannot and should not be done, "then those reasons should be made known to the people in simple and straightforward statements that would be convincing to the average man."

* * *

A New York reader, referring to a recent column on the advantages of owning a home, wants a column devoted to "reasons why life insurance, especially in every man's life, is a necessity, and should be first and foremost in those provisions that should be made by every man for his loved ones."

* * *

"A yard-master for the last thirty-five years" describes a recent statement that the efficiency of railway workers has improved as the "observant proof I have ever seen." He does not see why we are falling back a whole lot on railroad men, what you call real men. "There are only a few good men left in all the great railroad terminals." He says further: "If I had money I would show the railway workers how to run a road and run it like Henry Ford. Why, he pays a brakeman $6 a day for eight hours."

* * *

A letter carrier who gives his name and address, wishes to call attention to the act of the Senate which is being taken by the letter carriers of America for an increase in salary. Should you favor doing this, give the result of your investigations to the public in a straight-from-the-shoulder manner. We want the world to know what we want and why.

* * *

An Australian writes: "You might be interested to know that in Australia at the office which is of the Registrar General, any person who pays a shilling can inspect the names and addresses and the amount of stock of the company registered in the State. This proviso is made compulsory by law."

Copyright, 1924 by B. C. Forbes.

FOUNDED 1909
WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH MIDDLE STATES OIL?
This issue has been a prime favorite and productive of large dividends. In recent months there has arisen doubt as to its position and dividends have been suspended. What is the matter? Write for our special letter analyzing this situation.
Phone Congress 7340
C. P. DOW & CO.
Members
Conn. Stock Exchange of New York
10 STATE ST. BOSTON

NEW YORK STOCKS

Best Comparative Daily Table Published in New England

1923—High.	Low.	Stock and Dtv.	Rate in $	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev.	1923—High.	Low.	Stock and Dtv.	Rate in $	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev.
72¾	66	Air Reduction (4)...	1	71½	72	70½	70	70½	96	85¼	Mack Trucks.....	6	94¾	95¼	93¾	95	95
74⅝	64	Alex Rubber.....	2	67	67½	67	67½	67½	38	27¾	Magma Copper.....	1	28¼	28¼	28	28	28
81⅝	67⅜	Allied Chalmers (4).	4	68	68½	67½	68⅜	68	36	27	Maxwell.....		28½	28¾	28	28	28
80	53¼	Allied Chem & Dye	7	79½	80	79½	79½	79	47½	40	Mexican Petrol (4)...		42¾	43	42¾	43	42¾
18⅝	10¼	Am Ag Chem.....	1	14½	14½	14½	14½	14½	50¾	17½	Mariand Oil.....		20¼	20½	20¼	20½	20½
68⅜	28⅛	Am Ar Chem pf...	7	28	28½	28	28½	28	87⅜	56	Martin Parry (3)...		34¾	34¾	34¾	34¾	35
48¼	28	Am Beet Sugar...	2	46¾	47	46¾	47	46¾	84¾	21¼	Matheson Alkali...	2	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾
107⅜	73¼	Am Can (6).....	3	112½	113½	112½	114½	113	93⅜	36	Maxwell Mot Cl A.		39½	39½	39½	39½	39½
116	100	Am Can pf (7).....	1	111½	111½	111½	111½	111½	23	10¾	Maxwell Mot Cl B.		11¼	11¼	11¼	11¼	11¼
7⅝	4¼	Am Druggist Synd.	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾	87¾	49	May Dept Stores (8)		52	52½	52	52½	52
74⅜	29⅜	Am Hide & Lea pf...	6	68	68	68	68	68	33⅜	6¾	Mex Seaboard.....		16	16	15½	15½	15½
111¾	76	Am Ice (7).....	2	90	90	90	90	90	17⅛	8	Mex Seaboard pf...		17¾	17¾	17¾	17¾	17¾
85	73⅜	Am Ice pf (8).....	82	82	82	82	82	82	30½	20¼	Miami Copper (2)		23¾	24	23¾	23¾	23¾
32¾	16	Am International...	15½	15½	15½	15½	15½	15½	24¾	8¼	Mid Gulf (1).....		8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾
74⅝	54¼	Am Loco new (4)...	73¾	76	73½	73½	73½	73½	38⅜	24	M K & T pf new...	1	37½	37½	37½	37½	37½
97	74	Am Radiator (4)...	10	102	102½	102½	102½	102½	14	11	Mo Pacific.....		11	11	11	11	11
7¾	4½	Am Safety Razor (2½)	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾	49	32¼	Mo Pacific pf.....	3	32½	33½	31½	31½	32¼
89⅜	59⅛	Am Smelt & R (6).	10	89	90	89	90	89	78	54½	Montana Power (6)	2	57½	57½	57½	57½	57½
102⅜	90	Am Sm & R pf (7).	100	100	100	100	100	100	16⅝	12¾	Montgomery Ward	2½	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾
46⅞	31¼	Am Steel Fdrs (3).	30½	30½	30½	30	30½	30½	14	7	Mother Lode C (1)		8½	8½	8½	8½	8½
58	46	Am Sugar Ref.....	50½	50½	50½	50½	50½	50½	84¾	74¼	Nash Motors (3½)	10½	104½	106¾	104½	106¾	104½
33⅜	23⅝	Am Sumatra Tob...	30	30	30	30	30	30	53⅜	38	Nat Biscuit (3).....	3	53¾	53¾	53¾	53¾	53¾
138½	119¼	Am Tel & Tel (9)...	128½	128½	130½	129½	130½	129½	53	38	Nat Enameling.....		41¾	41¾	41¾	41¾	41¾
164⅛	143	Am Tobacco (8).....	153	153	153	153	153	153	168	108	Nat Lead (5).....	7	158	161¾	157	161¾	157
159½	140	Am Tob Cl B (13).	151	151	151	151	151	151	18⅝	9¼	Nevada Consol Cop	1	17¾	17¾	17¾	17¾	17¾
44⅜	27¼	Am Water Works...	42½	42½	42½	42½	42½	42½	63⅞	24¾	N Y Air Brake (4).	1	42¾	42¾	42¾	42¾	42¾
67⅝	46⅛	Am WW'ks pf (5)	67½	67½	67½	67½	67½	67½	107¾	90¼	N Y Central (7)...	104½	104½	107⅜	103⅞	104½	104½
109⅜	60	Am Woolen (7).....	73¾	74½	73¾	73¾	73¾	73¾	18¼	11	N Y N H & H.....	15	15¼	15¼	15	15¼	15¼
13½	6¾	Am Zinc L & S.....	10	10	10	10	10	10	106	82½	New Or T & M (7)	95	95	95	95	95	95
58⅜	28¾	Am Zinc L & S pf...	33	33½	33½	33½	33½	33½	24¾	17¼	North American (1)	2	20	20	20	20	20
18⅝	12¾	Anaconda Cop (3).	13¾	14	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾	24¾	17¼	Northern Pacific...	1	18¾	18¾	18¾	18¾	18¾
18⅜	10¼	Arnold Constable...	12½	12½	12½	12½	12½	12½	14⅜	7	Ohio Fdrs & Pr...		11¼	11¼	11¼	11¼	11¼
53⅜	38	Associated Oil (1½)	37½	37½	37½	37½	37½	37½	18⅛	11	Ohio Oil (1½).....	1	18¼	18¼	18¼	18¼	18¼
105¼	84	Atch T & S F (6)	101½	102¾	101½	102¾	101½	102¾	14⅜	7	Ohio Rubber.....		11	11	10¾	11	11
90⅜	86⅜	Atch T & S F pf (5)	89½	89½	89½	89½	89½	89½	14⅜	7	Packard Mot (1.70)	11	11¼	11¼	11	11¼	11¼
31¼	24¾	Atlanta Birm & At	25	25	25	25	25	25	7	3	Pan Am Petr (B)...		3¾	3¾	3¾	3¾	3¾
137	88⅝	Atlantic Ref pf (5)	118	118	117	118	118	118	53¼	34	Pan Am Pet Tr (4)		48¾	48¾	48¾	48¾	47
8	5	Atlantic Gulf & W Ind	14	15½	14	15½	14	15½	67	50½	Panhan Gulf & W (3)		66	66	66	66	66
47⅝	32	Atlantic G & W Ind pf	34	37	34	37	34	37	67⅜	40⅜	Penn (R. 3).....	3	48¾	49¼	48¾	49¼	48¾
144½	110⅝	Baldwin Loco (7)...	120½	123½	119½	120	119½	120	64	38	Penn Seaboard Steel		39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾
69⅝	44⅜	Balt & Ohio (4)...	57⅜	57⅜	57⅜	57⅜	57⅜	57⅜	94⅛	86	People Gas (3½)...	3	90	90	90	90	90
85	57	Barnsdall Cl A.....	77½	77½	77½	77½	77½	77½	59¾	41	Philadelphia Co (3)	2	49½	49½	49½	49½	49½
73⅜	45	Beth Steel (3).....	61	61	61	61	61	61	38⅜	25	Phillips Petrol.....	2	27½	27½	27½	27½	27½
174½	104½	Boyd Ed Cl A (5)...	113½	118	113½	113½	113½	113½	6	1¾	Pier & Oil.....		2¾	2¾	2¾	2¾	2¾
118¾	84	Brklyn Man Tr (5).	110	110	110	110	110	110	43⅝	29⅜	Pittsburgh & W Va (3)		43¾	43¾	43¾	43¾	43¾
85	57	Brklyn Man Tr pf...	75½	75½	75½	75½	75½	75½	134	67	Pontum Cereal (4).	10	69	69	68	68½	68½
128	103⅝	Brklyn Union G (8).	122½	126½	122½	126	122½	126	21¼	13¾	Pressed St Car (4)	1½	20¼	20¼	20¼	20¼	20¼
111¾	74	Brunswick Balke (3)	87	87	87	87	87	87	13⅜	6	Pullman Co (2).....	2	12¾	13	12¾	13	12¾
15⅝	13⅜	Butte & Superior...	13½	13½	13½	13½	13½	13½	133⅝	110½	Pullman Co (8).....	120½	117¾	120½	117¾	120½	117¾
5⅜	3	Caddo Cent Oil (1)	3¾	3¾	3¾	3¾	3¾	3¾	83⅜	58⅜	Pure Oil (1½).....	2	59¾	59¾	59¾	59¾	59¾
87	77	Cal Packing (6)...	86	86	86	86	86	86	83⅜	16⅛	Pure Oil (1½).....	2	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾
76⅞	17¼	Calif Pet new (1¼)	27⅞	27	27¼	27¼	27¼	27¼	83⅜	58⅜	Pure Oil pf (5).....	1	59¾	59¾	59¾	59¾	59¾
76⅞	17¼	Calif Pet old (1¼)	27⅞	27	27¼	27¼	27¼	27¼	81⅜	63⅛	Reading (4).....	1	63½	63½	63½	63½	63½
169	139¾	Callahan Zinc Lead	149	149	149	149	149	149	84¾	44	Reading 1st pf (2)		46	46	46	46	46
17	7	Cane (4) Fr. Th Mch	7	7	7	7	7	7	84¾	44	Reading 2d pf (2)		46	46	46	46	46
75⅜	50⅜	Central Leather	55¾	58½	55¾	58½	55¾	58½	42⅜	24	Rem Arms-Typew	2	45	45	45	45	45
104⅞	74⅜	Central Leather pf	87½	89½	87½	89½	87½	89½	11¾	7	Rep Iron & St (4)		11	11	11	11	11
104⅞	74⅜	Century Ribbon Mi	32	32	32	32	32	32	68⅜	40¼	Rep Iron & St pf		50	50	50	50	50
35⅜	19⅜	Cerro de Pasco (1)	27⅞	27	27	27	27	27	14¾	14	Reynolds Spring (2)		14½	14½	14½	14½	14½
76	47	Chandler Motor (4)	47	47	47	47	47	47	19⅜	12	Reynolds Metal (1)		17½	17½	17½	17½	17½
78⅛	58⅛	Chile Cop (4).....	75¾	76¾	74¾	74¾	74¾	74¾	94½	91	Ross & Ins Co (7½)		92	92	92	92	92
14⅝	8	Chile Exploration...	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	47⅛	40⅛	Roy D NY shs (3.21)		46	46	46	46	46
25⅜	16¾	Chili & Alton pf....	20	20	20	20	20	20	81⅜	17	St Jos Lead (1¼)...		22¾	23¾	22¾	23¾	22¾
38⅜	19¼	Chi & E Ill.....	28	28	28	28	28	28	37	18⅜	Savage Arms & pf	2	22	22	22	22	22
28	7	Chi Gt West pf....	12½	12½	12½	12½	12½	12½	84¾	25⅛	St Louis Sweet.....		36	36	36	36	36
65⅝	40⅜	Chi Mil Paul pf...	49¾	49¾	49¾	49¾	49¾	49¾	6	1⅜	Santa Cecilia Sugar	3	4½	4½	4½	4½	4½
88	42⅜	Chi & N W.....	51⅞	52¾	51⅞	52¾	51⅞	52¾	6⅜	2¾	Savage Arms (2)...	2	4¾	4¾	4¾	4¾	4¾
37⅞	14⅜	Chi R I & Pac.....	25	25	24¾	25	24¾	25	114⅝	83	Schulte Ret St (8)	104½	104½	104½	104½	104½	104½
34⅜	24⅛	Chile Copper (2½)	27⅞	27⅞	27⅜	27⅜	27⅜	27⅜	92⅜	68	Seaboard Air L pf	10½	68½	68½	68½	68½	68½
51⅜	34¼	Chino Copper (2½)	37⅞	37⅞	37⅞	37⅞	37⅞	37⅞	92⅜	68	Sears-Roebuck.....		84	85¼	84	85¼	84
74⅝	60	Chrysler Peabody (6)	73	73	73	73½	73	73½	94⅜	84	shell Tr & T (2½)cl	90	90	90	90	90	90
74⅝	60	Chrysler Peabody (6)	73	73	73	73½	73	73½	94⅜	84	Shell Union Oil (1)	10½	90	90	90	90	90
74⅝	60	Col Fuel & Iron....	77½	77½	77½	77½	77½	77½	18⅜	8¾	Simmons Co (1).....	10½	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾
33⅜	10¼	Colum Gas&El (2.60)	30¾	30¾	30¾	30¾	30¾	30¾	23⅜	13⅜	Simmons Co (1).....	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾
27⅜	18⅜	Comm Solvents.....	25⅜	25⅜	25⅜	25⅜	25⅜	25⅜	89⅜	15	Sinclair Con Oil (2)	22½	22½	22½	22½	22½	23¼
144⅜	64⅛	Congoleum Co (3).	66¾	66¾	66¾	66¾	66¾	66¾	89⅜	15	Sinclair Con Oil pf	3	22½	22½	22½	22½	23¼
65⅝	45⅝	Continental Can (3)	60½	60½	60½	60½	60½	60½	15⅜	13⅛	Skelly Oil.....	2	27½	27½	27½	27½	27½
59⅝	56⅝	Consol Gas (5).....	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	93⅜	79⅜	Sloss-Sheff S & I (6)	2	85½	85½	85½	85½	85½
160⅜	134	Corn Prod Ref (8)	152	152	152	152	152	152	93⅜	79⅜	Sloss-Sheff S & I pf	1	85½	85½	85½	85½	85½
120⅜	89⅜	Corn Prod Ref pf	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½	52⅜	24⅜	So Railway.....	2	45½	46¼	45½	46¼	45½
13⅜	8	Continental Motors	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	52⅜	24⅜	So Railway pf.....	2	45½	46¼	45½	46¼	45½
11⅛	6	Consol Textile.....	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	70	38⅜	So Porto R Sugar	75	78	78	79	79
61⅛	52⅜	Cosden Oil.....	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	70	38⅜	Standard Milling...	1	39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾
87⅜	57½	Cruesible Steel....	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	65	47⅜	Stand Oil Cal (3)...	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜
31⅜	23	Cuban Am Sug (3)	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	64⅛	40⅜	Stand Oil NJ (1)...	41¾	41¾	41¾	41¾	41¾	41¾
20	8⅛	Cuba Cane Sugar	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	124⅛	114	Stand Oil NJ pf (6)	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½
20	8⅛	Cuba Cane Sugar pf	19½	19½	19½	19½	19½	19½	124⅛	74	Stewart-W Sp (10)	90½	90½	90½	90½	90½	90½
73⅜	54¼	Cuyamel Fruit (1)	71½	72	71½	71½	71½	71½	31	24	Studebaker (10)...	30½	30½	30½	30½	30½	30½
72⅜	54¼	Cuyamel Fruit (1)	72½	73½	72½	73½	72½	73½	126⅜	93⅜	Studebaker (10)...	101½	102½	101	101½	101½
109	101⅜	Del & Hud (10).....	101	101	101	101	101	101	7	5	Submarine Boat.....	10½	10½	10½	10½	10½	10½
114½	100⅜	Detroit Edison (8).	106½	106½	106½	106½	106½	106½	7	5	Submarine Boat pf	10½	10½	10½	10½	10½	10½
45⅝	45⅝	Continuous Mfg...	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	31	24	Superior Steel.....	33¾	33¾	33¾	33¾	33¾	33¾
59⅝	56⅝	Consol Gas (5).....	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	52⅜	24⅜	Texas Co (2).....	45½	46¼	45½	46¼	45½
160⅜	134	Corn Prod Ref (8)	152	152	152	152	152	152	52⅜	24⅜	Texas Co (2).....	45½	46¼	45½	46¼	45½
120⅜	89⅜	Corn Prod Ref pf	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½	82⅜	24⅜	Texas Pac Coal&Oil	12	12	12	12	12
13⅜	8	Continental Motors	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	82⅜	24⅜	Texas Pac Coal&Oil	12	12	12	12	12
11⅛	6	Consol Textile.....	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	78⅜	46⅜	Third Avenue.....	11	61	61	61	61	61
61⅛	52⅜	Cosden Oil.....	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	78⅜	46⅜	Third Avenue pf...	1	61	61	61	61	61
87⅜	57½	Crucible Steel....	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	78⅜	66⅜	Tob Prod (6).....	67½	68	67½	67½	67½
31⅜	23	Cuban Am Sug (3)	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	78⅜	66⅜	Tob Prod pf (6)...	67½	68	67½	67½	67½
20	8⅛	Cuba Cane Sugar	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	14⅜	7¾	Transcontinental Oil	9½	9½	9½	9½	9½
20	8⅛	Cuba Cane Sugar pf	19½	19½	19½	19½	19½	19½	77⅜	50	Union Bag (2½)...	60	60	60	60	60
73⅜	54¼	Cuyamel Fruit (1)	71½	72	71½	71½	71½	71½	11⅜	5⅜	Underwood T (3)...	41	41	41	41	41
72⅜	54¼	Cuyamel Fruit (1)	72½	73½	72½	73½	72½	73½	144⅜	124⅛	Union Pacific (10)	130½	130½	129½	129½	130
109	101⅜	Del & Hud (10).....	101	101	101	101	101	101	144⅜	124⅛	Union Pacific pf	130½	130½	129½	129½	130
114½	100⅜	Detroit Edison (8).	106½	106½	106½	106½	106½	106½	87	24	United Ry Inv pf...	30½	37½	36½	37½	36½
45⅝	45⅝	Continuous Mfg...	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	87	24	United Ry Inv pf...	30½	37½	36½	37½	36½
59⅝	56⅝	Consol Gas (5).....	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	40	9	U S Ind Alcohol...	76½	77¾	76½	77¾	76½
160⅜	134	Corn Prod Ref (8)	152	152	152	152	152	152	40	9	U S Ind Alcohol pf	76½	77¾	76½	77¾	76½
120⅜	89⅜	Corn Prod Ref pf	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½	106	88¼	U S Realty & I (3).	102½	102½	102½	102½	102½
13⅜	8	Continental Motors	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	106	88¼	U S Realty & I pf	102½	102½	102½	102½	102½
11⅛	6	Consol Textile.....	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	105	76⅞	U S Rubber 1 pf(8)	88	88	88	88	87
61⅛	52⅜	Cosden Oil.....	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	105	76⅞	U S Smelt R & M...	87½	88	87½	87½	87½
87⅜	57½	Crucible Steel....	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	109⅜	85⅜	U S Steel (5).....	103¾	104	103⅜	103⅜	103⅜
31⅜	23	Cuban Am Sug (3)	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	109⅜	85⅜	U S Steel (5).....	103¾	104	103⅜	103⅜	103⅜
20	8⅛	Cuba Cane Sugar	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	16	6	Utah Securities....	22½	22½	22½	22½	22½
20	8⅛	Cuba Cane Sugar pf	19½	19½	19½	19½	19½	19½	24⅜	16	Vanadium.....	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾
73⅜	54¼	Cuyamel Fruit (1)	71½	72	71½	71½	71½	71½	69	17	Va-Car Chem pf...	21	21	21	21	21
72⅜	54¼	Cuyamel Fruit (1)	72½	73½	72½	73½	72½	73½	69	17	Va-Car Chem pf...	21	21	21	21	21
109	101⅜	Del & Hud (10).....	101	101	101	101	101	101	14	7	Wabash.....	12½	12¾	12½	12¾	12½
114½	100⅜	Detroit Edison (8).	106½	106½	106½	106½	106½	106½	14	7	Wabash pf.....	12½	12¾	12½	12¾	12½
45⅝	45⅝	Continuous Mfg...	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	36¼	14¾	Weber & Heilb (3).	15	15	15	15	15¼
59⅝	56⅝	Consol Gas (5).....	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	36¼	14¾	Weber & Heilb (3).	15	15	15	15	15¼
160⅜	134	Corn Prod Ref (8)	152	152	152	152	152	152	24⅜	13⅜	Western Pacific ...	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾
120⅜	89⅜	Corn Prod Ref pf	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½	116½	24⅜	13⅜	Western Pacific pf	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾
13⅜	8	Continental Motors	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾	67⅜	33⅜	West E & M (4)...	64	64	64	64	63¾
11⅛	6	Consol Textile.....	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	67⅜	33⅜	West E & M (4)...	64	64	64	64	63¾
61⅛	52⅜	Cosden Oil.....	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞	67⅜	50	White Motors (4)...	55½	56	55½	56	55½
87⅜	57½	Crucible Steel....	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜	50	White Motors (4)...	55½	56	55½	56	55½
31⅜	23	Cuban Am Sug (3)	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	36⅜	67⅜	50	White Motors (4)...	55½	56	55½	56	55½
20	8⅛	Cuba Cane Sugar	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	14	8	Wickwire Spencer S	11¾	11¾	11¾	11¾	11¾
20	8⅛	Cuba Cane Sugar pf	19½	19½	19½	19½	19½	19½	14

Largest Evening Circulation in New England

This Day in History, January 29, 1924

THIS is the anniversary of the birth, in 1688, of Emmanuel Swedenborg, who founded the sect known as Swedenborgians, or members of the New Church. There are about 20,000 persons who believe in his doctrines.

Magazine Page

Reading the Best

AS GOOD READING in these pages as you may find in any magazine.

STELLA DALLAS — By Olive Higgins Prouty

New and Intensely Interesting Serial of a Marriage of an Educated Man to an Untutored Woman

Helen knew that Laurel was doubting again

HOW THE STORY STARTED

Stella Dallas and her husband, Stephen, do not live together. They have a daughter, thirteen years old, named Laurel, who stays most of the year with the mother. They visit a Summer hotel in New England, where the other guests look askance at the painted, overdressed elder woman. The time has come for Laurel to visit her father in New York. He meets her at the station and takes her to a hotel. She goes to visit Mrs. Morrison. The story now goes back to the marriage of Stephen and Stella at Milhampton. Stella starts a flirtation with Alfred Munn. The leading women of the town begin to drop her. Stephen, deciding he can never go back to her, starts a divorce suit. The story then goes back to Mrs. Morrison's marriage to her aged millionaire suitor. The latter dies and Stephen confesses his love to the widow. Stella and Laurel get in with a society set at a Summer hotel and Laurel goes canoeing with Richard Grosvenor. Laurel overhears remarks about her mother and they leave the hotel. Stella has a plan.

By OLIVE HIGGINS PROUTY
Author of "Bobbie, General Manager," "The Fifth Wheel," "The Star in the Window," Etc.

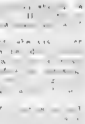
QUICKLY she turned and raised the shade of the window opposite. This window looked toward the rear of the house and commanded a view of the narrow, ally-lighted tunnel, along which towered the high, spiked walls of several scores of rear entrances. Proceeding along this tunnel, closely skirting the high, spiked walls, Helen could make out the outline of a woman—a short, stocky woman. Twice she stopped and looked back at Helen's roof.

Helen's first impulse was to raise the window to call. She hesitated. It might not be she. The alley lights were dim and far away. And if it proved to be, was it wise to establish communication with her when she was taking such pains to avoid it? No Laurel's mother knew best. The minute she became even a remembered shadow in her child's life she ran the risk of defeating the object of her sacrifice.

Laurel believed her mother was somewhere in South America and submitted without protest to the futility of locating her. Submitted, too, without protest to the futility of looking for her returned alien—if she ever suspected it at her mother was near by in hiding somewhere, watching, looking on in the old eager anxious way, she would not be content till she had found her; and if she found her, and if it proved, indeed, that it was as Helen had persuaded her to hope, that her mother had married Alfred Munn for her sake, as likely as not—no, more likely than not—Laurel would insist upon returning to her mother under whatever circumstances. She was capable of it.

Laurel was almost her old self now. She smiled again, laughed again, shone and glowed again over old delights and took on new delights and joys. Only in such times Helen knew that Laurel was suffering again, struggling between two loyalties, trying to be loyal to her mother's memory and at the same time to her mother.

What Is the Effect Upon the Two, and Especially Upon Their Strange and Beautiful Child Laurel?



Helen Rowland

To Be Continued Tomorrow.

MRS. SOLOMON SAYS---

By HELEN ROWLAND

MY Daughter what woman hath not said in [illegible]

But I take [illegible]

For [illegible]

Beloved [illegible]

[illegible] loves [illegible]

[illegible] to answereth her, saying: Because thou art fewer than a thousand. For [illegible] and more fascinating than detective tales. Because thou art sweeter than the first kiss and more heady than the first drink.

Because thou are SO different from all other women—and I can LIVE without thee.

For [illegible] the heart of a damsel is [illegible]

[illegible] should her Beloved be filled with [illegible] and Truth, would [illegible]

And I know NOT why I love [illegible]

For [illegible] art like unto a [illegible] such times Helen knew that Laurel was suffering again, struggling between two loyalties, trying to be loyal to her mother's memory and at the same time to her mother.

Laurel was almost her old self now. She smiled again, laughed again, shone and glowed again over old delights and joys. Only in such times Helen knew that Laurel was suffering again, struggling between two loyalties, trying to be loyal to her mother's memory and at the same time to her mother.

Helen Rowland

Beloved [illegible] loves [illegible] to answereth her, saying: Because thou art fewer than a thousand. For [illegible] and more fascinating than detective tales. Because thou art sweeter than the first kiss and more heady than the first drink.

Because thou are SO different from all other women—and I can LIVE without thee.

For [illegible] the heart of a damsel is [illegible]

And should her Beloved be filled with [illegible] and Truth, would [illegible]

And I know NOT why I love [illegible]

For [illegible] art like unto a [illegible]

I tremble at the vision of domesticity in a two-by-four apartment.

"I cower before the terrors of the wedding day"

"For [illegible] for my sake, am I ready to face them—I KNOW NOT WITH [illegible]

And the heart of a damsel would be filled with bitterness and woe.

And there would be no more marrying or giving in marriage in the Land

SELAH

Copyright 1924 by [illegible] Syndicate, Inc.

WAYS OF A HUSBAND

SEQUEL TO "WHEN A GIRL MARRIES"

By Ann Lisle

BETTY led me into the dining room without waiting to see if I were going to "answer back" or not. And she waited on me with such thoughtfulness that I felt like bursting into sobs of gratitude for two friends as tender and devoted as she and Ralph are.

Ann Lisle

When I was sufficiently fortified to satisfy her, I joined the masculine contingent and got down to hard work. But at last came the dreaded hour when I had to go home to my empty apartment. I wanted to ask Betty to let me stay with her, but I couldn't bring myself to betray, even to her, the fact that Jim had gone out. And I didn't want to suggest that I'd stay away from home again if he were there.

"Everybody game to work tomorrow night—or are all of you set on a country week-end?" asked Peter Stanley carelessly as we were leaving.

The men all agreed to work, but Betty said protectively:

"I know Anne has plans with which we mustn't interfere. But I'm game to hold up the feminine end and make a stab at doing her share."

The assumed carelessness in her sleepy way of expressing herself told me that Betty was making an elaborate effort to stand by me. And her manner inspired me to like off-hand expression.

"Of course you can count on me to join the league of willing workers," I managed with seeming carelessness.

"Right-o!" said Peter Stanley, whose patron saint is named "Work." "Only if we're all going to slave of a Saturday, let's do it thoroughly. Will it be all right with you girls if we all gather at your office at three and make an afternoon of it? Then we can dine somewhere and have a bit of relaxation from seven to nine and get back on the job. That ought to finish it with time to spare. This suit everybody?"

I was the first to cast an affirmative vote. But after everyone had followed suit and the thing was agreed on Betty said with an air of impromptu inspiration.

"Anne, can you wait a minute? I've something to show you."

"Yes," I replied, deciding that I'd throw myself on her mercy when we were alone and ask to stay the night after all and in spite of my resolution. But again Peter the positive interfered.

"Ralph and I will wait for you. Mrs. Harrison, down in the car. We're dubbing the cab mine, aren't we, Lucey?"

"Of course," agreed Ralph.

"Run along then, boys," commanded Betty a shade impatiently. "Anne will join you in five minutes. I claim that much of her time."

The moment the men departed Betty turned to me gravely.

"Do you think you ought to call off the week-end or even part of it and leave Jim to his own devices?" she asked.

Copyright, 1924, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

To Be Continued Tomorrow.

Some Eats!

Those delicious hot pancakes sure do satisfy

Heckers' OLD HOMESTEAD PANCAKE FLOUR

Just add water and cook

Four-Pattern Day

FOUR PATTERNS IN EVERY TUESDAY AND SATURDAY AMERICAN

Ten Cents Each

WHICH IS EXCEPTIONALLY MODERATE

Dress patterns that are up-to-the-minute in style and design are the only kind offered in this daily pattern service.

Our price of 10 cents is unusually moderate for such expertly cut patterns.

When ordering your patterns please fill out the American Coupon. Address it to Priscilla Price, and enclose 10 cents for each desired number (coin or stamps).

FOR WORK OR SPORTS

No. 4391. Good and comfortable. Cheviot or flannel.

The Pattern is cut in 8 Sizes neck measure: 14, 14½, 15, 15½, 16, 16½, 17, 17½ and 18 inches. A 16 inch size requires 4¼ yards of 27 inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

TWO COMFORTABLE BRASSIERES

No. 4 [illegible] linen, muslin or heavy [illegible] with lace and ribbon.

The [illegible] is cut in 4 Sizes. Small, [illegible] um, 38 40; Large, [illegible] rge, 46-48 inches bust measure. A Medium size requires [illegible] yard of 36 inch material for [illegible]

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

POPULAR WITH ONE-PIECE FROCKS

No. 4191. Good Lines. Easy to make. Long cloth, Batiste, Crepe, Silk or Satin. Fine lace and ribbon straps.

The Pattern is cut in 4 Sizes. Small, 34 36, Medium 38 40; Large, 42 44. Extra Large 46 48 inches bust measure. A Medium size requires 8 yards of 36 inch material.

FOR A BOY OR GIRL

No. 4656. Pongee, linen, wool rep, jersey, gingham.

Long or short sleeves. Comfortable and convenient closing. Russian blouse style.

This Pattern is cut in 4 Sizes: 3, 4, 5 and 6 years. A 4 year size requires 3¼ yards of 27 inch material.

Send 11c in silver or stamps for OUR UP TO DATE SPRING & SUMMER 1924 BOOK OF FASHIONS

IMPORTANT—Many orders have been coming in without names or sizes. Please be sure to write name, address and size of pattern on coupon when ordering.

BOSTON AMERICAN PATTERN COUPON

Pattern Nos. [illegible]

[illegible] Street [illegible]

[illegible] State [illegible]

In Ordering More Than One Pretty All Numbers and Sizes [illegible] and mail (enclosing 10 cents for each pattern desired) to Price, Boston American, 80 Summer Street, Boston 8, Mass.

WEDNESDAY PATTERN—CHILD'S ROMPERS

NORRIS 181 Tremont St. OPEN EVENINGS

The Autopiano

World's Best Player Piano

The Fifty World-Known Musicians [illegible] Victor Herbert, Nahan [illegible] Tetrazzini, Pattis, Campanari, Althouse, Puccini—are names to conjure with in musical circles. All have given the Autopiano their unqualified endorsement. Likewise, over 80 other international celebrities of the Musical World are uniformly enthusiastic in their praise of the marvelous ingenuity of the Autopiano.

With the Autopiano you can enjoy completely an artistic rendition of any musical composition.

Astonishing accuracy of musical phrasing and shading—gives to the Autopiano an almost human touch. TERMS TO SUIT

COUPON Mail It Today

Gentlemen—Please mail me catalogue, prices, etc., of Autopiano.

NAME ..... STREET .....

CITY ..... STATE .....

FULL VALUE GIVEN FOR YOUR PIANO IN EXCHANGE

CHARLES S. NORRIS, 180 Tremont St., Boston

BEST RECIPES

New England housewives are requested to send in recipes for creative cooking. One dollar will be sent each winner printed here. Address Recipe Editor, Boston American, Boston 8, Mass.

Orange Puffs

One-third cup butter, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1¼ cups flour, 3 teaspoonfuls baking powder, ½ cup milk. Mix and bake in small tins. Serve hot with orange sauce. NELLIE WHITE.
R. F. D. No. 3, Pleasant street, Lewiston, Me.

Lemon Custard Pie

One cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, yolks of 2 eggs, 1 tablespoon melted butter, juice of lemon, 1 cup milk. Mix in order given, then add whites of 2 eggs beaten stiff. Bake in pie plate lined with paste. MRS. LAWRENCE PEATFIELD.
No. 1 Elm street, Ipswich, Mass.

WORDS FROM WISE MEN

LIFE is a long lesson in humanity.

• • •

A wise man will make more opportunities than he finds.

• • •

Nature is more powerful than education—time will develop everything.

• • •

Life is not so short but that there is always room for courtesy.

• • •

The abuse of a thing is no argument for its discontinuance.

• • •

Nothing is heavy to a man which necessity brings.

• • •

Children like tender odors take the bow.
And as they first are fashioned always grow.

• • •

The example of good men is visible philosophy.

• • •

He knows the water best who has waded through it.

• • •

If a little knowledge is dangerous, where is the man who has so much as to be out of danger?

• • •

The true standard of equality is seated in the mind—those who think nobly are noble.

• • •

Confidence placed in another often compels confidence in return.

• • •

What nobler employment than that of the man who instructs the rising generation?

MEDBURY SAYS—

By John P. Medbury

WHEN Edward Bok offered a hundred thousand dollars for the best plan of preserving peace he caused more trouble than a mouse in the Y. W. C. A.

IT looks as though he'll have to offer another reward for some plan to stop this fight.

EVERYBODY'S kicking except the man who won the prize.

AND if he doesn't get his money pretty soon he'll begin fighting, too.

A HUNDRED thousand dollars is a lot of money and Bok could have started trouble much cheaper than that.

HE could have split it up and had five or six different wars for the same amount.

BUT there's no such thing as dollar day in the War Department.

IT'S easy for a nation to start battles by the wholesale, but they've got to fight them retail.

WHENEVER a country declares war they can't sit around and wait for the price of bullets to come down.

ONE of Bok's ideas was to prevent future wars in Europe. He didn't stop to think that maybe he was going to start one in this country.

JUDGING from all the trouble this award has caused, it looks as if this country doesn't want peace.

BUT even if our senators and congressmen do want it, they must have made up their minds to fight about it first.

PEACE isn't worth a nickel if you get it without a struggle.

ONCE-OVERS

Copyright, 1924, by International Feature Service, Inc.

NEVER QUIT UNTIL YOU HAVE DONE YOUR UTMOST

All through life, have you not given up too soon?

You can see now that certain undertakings of yours failed because you did not hang on a little longer, and put forth more effort.

Perhaps you came to the unwise conclusion that what you would gain by hanging on would not be worth what it would cost you, but now you are grumbling because you have not achieved what you desired to achieve.

If you had been willing to undergo trials to the uttermost, hardships and sleepless nights, interference with your pleasure, you might have won out.

If you had been willing to deny yourself you might now be on the sunny side of Easy Street as are many men whom you envy.

These men took their hard knocks early in life—you avoided them.

Now when they are able to ease up a bit, your hardest time is coming.

Every man must struggle to attain anything worthwhile, unless he is the recipient of a gift, outright, and a few persons are that fortunate.

But even the one who receives has a responsibility.

Life hits an average somewhere, and you pay at one end or the other.

Then why complain? Be up and doing.

Slightly Mixed

Handsome Harry—Mrs. Hall spends all of her time collecting old-fashioned dishes, doesn't she?

Dumb Dora—Yes, she has a pa-

POLLY AND HER PALS

All Neewah's Fears Were Groundless

By Cliff Sterrett

ICE COLD CREAM CO.
PRESIDENT
HON. HORRORS! THE HON. PA ENTERED TWO HOURS AGO WITH MURDER IN HIS EYE, AND I FEAR THE WORST!
YOU GET MY DRIFT, MR. PERKINS?
POSITIVELY, MR PRESIDENT.
YOU'VE NO OBJECTIONS TO MY CALLING YOU SAM, I HOPE.
I SHOULD HOPE NOT JOE, OLE SPORT
CHUG! CHUG! POP! POP!
CLIFF STERRETT. 1-29

US BOYS

Shrimp Has an Idea

By McNamara

NOW THIS IS LEAP YEAR AND YOU'VE GOT TO DO AS I SAY!- THAT'S THE LAW- ALL THE BOYS HAVE GOT TO MIND THE GIRLS THIS YEAR!
HUH?
THAT'S WHAT I SAID!- THE BOYS HAVE GOT TO DO WHAT THE GIRS SAY, AND IM GOING TO REFORM YOU, I AM!
YOU START IN REFORMIN' ME, AND ILL START IN REFORMIN' YOU!- ILL SHOW YA!
OU SILLY THING! WHAT COULD YOU REFORM ME OF?
OF REFORMIN' ME, THATS WHAT!
TOM MCNAMARA

GALLAGHER AND SHEAN

(Sing the words to the tune of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean)

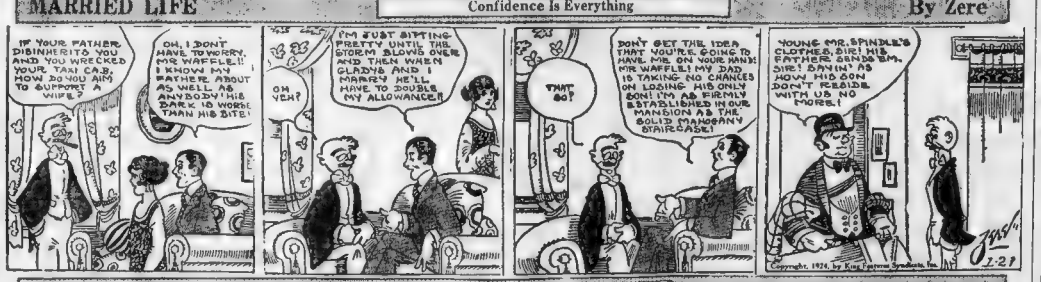
By Jo Swerling

OH, MR GALLAGHER, OH, MR GALLAGHER! CAN YOU LEND ME TEN UNTIL NEXT PAY DAY?
YOU'LL SAVE MY LIFE, EGAD, FOR I WANT THE MONEY BAD, CAN YOU SPARE IT, EDDIE- WHAT D'YA SAY
OH, MR. SHEAN, OH, MR. SHEAN - IT SEEMS YOU'RE ALWAYS SHORT OF THE LONG GREEN
LEND YOU TEN - OF COURSE I WILL! HERE, TAKE THIS BRAND NEW BILL.
IT'S COUNTERFEIT, MR. GALLAGHER!
YOU SAID "I WANT IT BAD" MR. SHEAN!
1-29

MARRIED LIFE

Confidence Is Everything

By Zere



IF YOUR FATHER DISINHERITS YOU AND YOU WRECKED YOUR TAXI CAB, HOW DO YOU AIM TO SUPPORT A WIFE?
OH, I DON'T HAVE TO WORRY, MRS WAFFLE!! I KNOW MY FATHER ABOUT AS WELL AS ANYBODY! HIS BARK IS WORSE THAN HIS BITE!
I'M JUST SITTING PRETTY UNTIL THE STORM BLOWS OVER AND THEN WHEN GLADYS AND I MARRY WE'LL HAVE TO DOUBLE MY ALLOWANCE!!
OH YEH?
THAT SO?
DON'T GET THE IDEA THAT YOU'RE GOING TO HAVE MR. ON YOUR HANDS MR WAFFLE! MY DAD IS TAKING NO CHANCES ON LOSING HIS ONLY SON! I'M AS FIRMLY ESTABLISHED IN OUR MANSION AS THE SOLID MAHOGANY BANISTERS!
YOUNG MR. SPINDLE'S CLOTHES, SIR! HIS FATHER SAND-BAGS 'EM, SIR! SAVIN' AS HOW HIS SON DON'T NEEDS WITH US NO MORE!
1-29

RABID REVERIES

Guardians of the Cellar

By Winsor McCay, Jr.

ARE N' YO AFRAID OF SOMEONE BREAKIN' IN AND STEAL NG ?
STEALING ?! NOT A CHANCE, I'LL SHOW YOU THE EVIL CHANCE!
NERO SAM! JESST BLACK BOY QUEEN! CHARLIE! COME OUT HERE COME ON OUT
WHAT A TRIBE!
SEVERAL PEOPLE HAVE TRIED TO BREAK IN ON NIGHTS, AND NEVER RETURNED TO THEIR HOMES
WHAT DO YOU FEED THEM ?
I DON'T HAVE TO FEED THEM, THEY FEED ON A FEW GUYS
WOW! BOY
THEY JUST DINED ON THREE GUYS WHO TRIED TO SNEAK IN LAST NIGHT COME OUT HERE 'EM VERMIL PAT
HEY JUDGE DINNER IS READY COME IN AND SIT DOWN TO A REAL FEED MY WIFE IS SUME COOK
RUN! I FELL ASLEEP AND WAS DREAMING BOO HOO UN
BOBBIE WILSON-TRIBUNE

THE NEWLYWEDS

Snookums Wants to Learn the Game

By Charles McManus

OH LET HIM STAY THERE, I OVEY! HE LOOKS SO CUTE.
COME NOW, BABY! THE MAN WANTS TO BOWL AGAIN.
DA!
PLEASE PUT H M DOWN AGAIN DEAR! HE WANTS TO PLAY
OH LOOK AT THE PRETTY BALL. ROLLING. SNOOKUMS!
SAY! ARE YOU GOING TO BOWL OR ARE YOU GOING TO PLAY HOUSE WITH THE KID?
JUST A MINUTE! LOOK AT HIM! HE DOESN'T KNOW WHAT THEY ARE.
ALL RIGHT, LOOIE! SOAK IT AGAIN! THEN ILL HAVE TO PUT HIM DOWN.
1-29

CORRECT MANNERS

By Mrs. Cornelius Beeckman

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

Do you always, in introducing, mention the lady's name first when there is a man to be introduced?

(2) What is the proper way of introducing in this case? A is a lady waiting in an automobile. B, a young man friend of A, and C, another young gentleman, comes out of the house. How would B make the introduction?

(3) What would be a courteous way of acknowledging an introducing to the mother of a young man friend?

(4) Is it proper for a lady to take hold of her escort's arm?

(5) What would you say in thanking one for flowers or candy?

BLUNDERER.

IN introducing a gentleman to a lady, you mention the lady's name first, except when you are making the introduction to the President of the United States, to a cardinal, or to a reigning sovereign. The correct introduction of a lady to the President is, "Mr. President, I have the honor to present Mrs. Grant." Of course, much of the formality of presentation to a king is gone through beforehand and at the actual presentation only the names is repeated: "Mrs. Grant."

(3) B says, "Miss A, may I present Mr. C?"

(5) Say "How do you do, Mrs. Carr? It is a very great pleasure to meet you, and I have been looking forward to it for a long time. Tom and I speak of you so often." These are mere or less usual words. I realize, but you can raise them into the realm of the unusual by saying them with graciousness and sincerity.

(4) Only when she needs assistance, when he is an usher at a wedding and is showing her to a seat, and when he is her partner at a formal dinner.

(5) "Thank you very much. It was most kind of you to have this thought of me. I appreciate it very much." Then, add, if you can, a special appreciation of the gift; a particular liking for that kind of candy or that kind of flowers. In other words, try to get into the mind of the giver and interpret in your thanks the particular thought he had in his mind when he planned the gift.

Copyright, 1924, Premier Syndicate, Inc.

LOST LINKS

A self-starter for a clothes wringer.

The conscience of a landlord.

Punctuation marks in skywriting ads.

Excursion trains to the North Pole.

An invention for signalling the

People who put peanut shells in their pockets.

Passing a high hat for a collection.

Spurs for a hobby horse and a carpet in a freight car.

A flat-footed toe dancer.

Froth on top of near beer.

A rooster in a cold storage egg plant.

Husbands who share the umbrella with their wives.

SMART SAYINGS OF CLEVER CHILDREN

The Boston American will pay $1 for published smart sayings. Address "Smart Sayings," Boston American.

A clever little youngster less than five years of age was tormenting a cat when his mother said, "Wherever you hit the cat, I will hit you." The youngster replied, "Well, Ma, if I pull the cat's tail, what will you do?"

ELSIE WOLF.

46 East Walnut street, Taunton, Mass.

THE BEST JOKE I EVER HEARD

The Boston American will pay $1 for "Best Joke" published. Address "Best Joke," Boston American.

"Really," gasped the automobilist bending over his victim, "I didn't hit you intentionally."

"Aw, go on!" returned the fallen one. "Whether you got big bumper on yer car for, if you don't aim to go running into people."

LOUIS BUDER.

No. 59 Nagle street, Nashua, N. H.

Chickie STORY OF A BOSTON GIRL STARTS IN 6 DAYS

HELPFUL HENRY
By Arnot

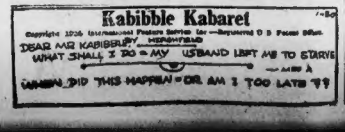
OH DOCTOR!
I JUST MET A CHAP WHO NEEDS YOU REAL BAD— I DIRECTED HIM TO YOUR HOUSE. BETTER HURRY— HE'S WAITING
HELLO UNCLE JOE—
WHAT'S THE MATTER JOE?
IT WAS A BUM RELATION— HE NEEDED 10 BUCKS
ARNOT

THEN THE FUN BEGAN
By Faber

LET THE WEDDING BELLS RING OUT

JOHN—GO DOWN IN THE CELLAR AND BRING UP THE BIG TRUNK
HUH
SET IT DOWN THERE—I WANT TO SEE IF THIS KEY WILL OPEN IT
NO—IT WON'T— BRING IT BACK DOWN AGAIN
THE BEST I GET IS THE WORST!

Kabibble Kabaret



BRINGING UP FATHER
Jiggs Picks the Wrong Job
By George McManus

BOYS—WE'RE TERRIBLY SHORT-HANDED TODAY AN' WE'VE GOT TO DELIVER THESE TWO PACKAGES RIGHT AWAY—WILL YOU TWO TAKE THEM OUT?
I GUESS WE'LL HAVE TO!
WELL! I'LL TAKE THIS ONE.
GEE! YOU GOT A LOT OF NERVE—
I'LL GIT EVEN WITH YOUSE FER DIS!
GO ON AND DELIVER YOUR BUNDLE, AN DON'T TALK SO MUCH!
OH! YOU'RE FROM THE DEPARTMENT STORE? THIS BUNDLE AND AN ICE-BOX ARE TO GO BACK!
1-29

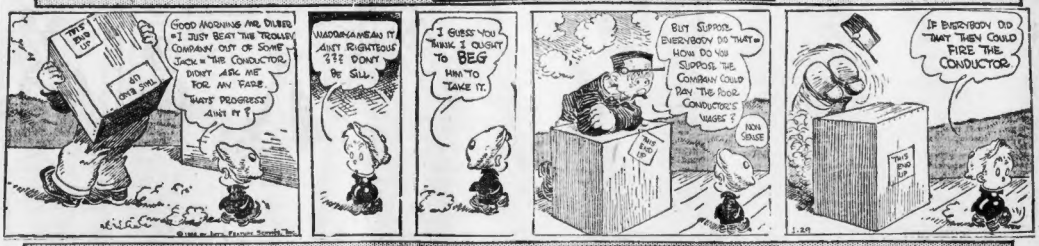
ABIE THE AGENT
He Feels It Coming
By Hershfield

JUST A MOMENT, ABE!!
OY, IT'S THAT PHOOY MEYER-NOO, I WONDER WHAT THAT LAZY NOBODY WANTS WITH ME???
CAN I WALK ALONG WITH YOU, ABE?
DID I SAY NO?
I COULD GO INTO THE BOOK AGENT BUSINESS, BUT YOU ONLY GET TEN CENTS ON EVERY DOLLAR!!
NOO, WHAT MORE PERCENTAGE WOULD YOU EXPECT?? I CONSIDER THAT GOOD
I WONDER WHAT I COULD GO IN FOR, THAT WOULD BE PRACTICALLY ALL PROFIT??
BORROWING MONEY— BUT NOT FROM ME!!

GOLDBERG'S CARTOONS
People Who Put You to Sleep—No. 29
By Rube Goldberg

IT IS A MATTER OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE THAT THE WORD "OOF" BE TRACED BACK TO ITS ORIGINAL SOURCE—ERASMUS Q. SAPWOBBLE, THE GREAT AUTHORITY ON THE EMPTINESS OF THE BLANK PAGES OF THE FORGOTTEN PAST, HAS UNEARTHED THE ASTOUNDING FACT THE WORD OF GREETING IN THE OLD SANSKRIT LANGUAGE WAS "ZOOF".
THE PROFESSOR OF DEAD LANGUAGES AND OTHER DEAD SUBJECTS.
NEVERTHELESS, AUTHORITIES DIFFER ON THIS WORD—IN EGYPTIAN IT IS SPELLED "POOF" WHILE THE OLD ARABIANS SPELLED IT WITH A "W"— NOW, LET US EXAMINE THE OLD HINDU ADVERB "ZOWIE"— THIS WAS FIRST DISCOVERED ON A PETRIFIED PANCAKE— IN SYRIA
SEVEN MORE MINUTES
Rube Goldberg

JERRY ON THE JOB
No Shortage of Sleuths
By Hoban



THIS END UP
GO ON SMILE
GOOD MORNING MR. DILBER—I JUST BEAT THE TROLLEY COMPANY OUT OF SOME JACK—THE CONDUCTOR DIDN'T ASK ME FOR AN FARE. THAT'S PROGRESS AIN'T IT?
WADDYA MEAN IT AIN'T RIGHTEOUS ??? DON'T BE SILL.
I GUESS YOU THINK I OUGHT TO BEG HIM TO TAKE IT.
BUT SUPPOSE EVERYBODY DO THAT— HOW DO YOU SUPPOSE THE COMPANY COULD PAY THE POOR CONDUCTOR'S WAGES?
NON SENSE
IF EVERYBODY DID THAT THEN COULD FIRE THE CONDUCTOR.
THIS END UP

THE THIMBLE THEATRE
Pink and Plump
By Segar

I'VE GOT TO REDUCE BLIZZARD'S BAY WINDOW—HE'S A DISGRACE TO HIS FIGHTING ANCESTORS
HOLY SMOKE! WHAT'S MR. GOLDFELLOW COMING HERE FOR MY FRIENDS AND I CAME TO TELL YOU THAT WE'RE GOING TO SOCK EVERY CENT WE HAVE ON BLIZZARD—I AM EVEN GOING TO MORTGAGE MY COUNTRY HOME IS HE IN GOOD FIGHTING SHAPE?
GREAT SHAPE MR. GOLDFELLOW IN FACT HE'S IN THE VERY PINK OF CONDITION
WOCKLE!
Copyright, 1924, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

KRAZY KAT
Little Economist
By Herriman

DID YOU FIND OUT HOW MUCH OF A REWARD THAT RICH ANGORA CAT WAS OFFERING FOR THE RETURN OF HIS LOST KITTEN MRS HUARKH HARK
NOT YET, BUT I WILL
IT WON'T DO YOU MUCH GOOD BECAUSE I HOPE TO GET IT
WELL I HOPE TO GET IT TOO WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THAT OH H YOU DO DO YOU?
YES SSS I DO.
WA A AL YOU WON'T
I WILL
WHAT'S ALL THIS LOUD CACKLING AROUND HERE HUH MOVE ON, MOVE ON OR I'LL RUN YOUSE IN AND SA-A-AY—WHERE THAR KITTEN IS FOUND, I'LL GO THE FINDING SAVVY?
IS THAT SO?
Copyright, 1924, International Feature Service, Inc.

RADIO AMERICAN

EASY TO LISTEN TO AS TO LOOK AT? YES!

NEW "HUMP" IN WBF'S WAVE BREAKS IN

Causes Interference in Broadcast Programs Around 300-Meter Bands

A "hump" in the wave of WBF, the United Fruit Company's Tropical radio station at Boston, caused some interference in the vicinity of Boston with the reception of the opera from WNAC.

WBF sends on either 600 or 700 meters, using what is called interrupted continuous wave. This wave is much sharper than the old spark transmitter that used to bust up programs every night.

The "hump," however, which is located around 300 meters, is strong enough to interfere somewhat with broadcasts of about that wave length.

Several ships operators of which apparently have not heard of the recent agreement to lay off 450 meters during broadcasting periods, encounted for some more interference. One of these ships was 1,600 miles off the coast, and perhaps in perfect radio weather, would never have been heard.

Conditions last night were more favorable for long distance reception than on any previous night for three or four weeks.

INTERFERENCE LOG FOR JAN. 28.

(All interference logged on 450 meters unless otherwise specified.)

8:00 p. m.—On watch. Static light. Air very clear. Conditions look to be the best they have been for weeks.

8:10—Opera "L'Africana," broadcast by WNAC, being received clear as a bell.

8:20—Quiet.

8:30—Quiet.

8:39—WBF, United Fruit Company's shore station, Boston, calling on 600 meters.

8:41—WBF calling BFI, British steamship Heronscool on 600 meters.

8:50—Quiet.

9:00—Quiet.

9:02—Someone testing, holding key down.

9:10—Quiet.

9:13—WBF calling KFB, American steamship City of Atlanta, on 600 meters.

9:14—WBF working KFB on 700 meters.

9:22—KIGR, American steamship Blair, U. S. Shipping Board, Independent Wireless Telegraph Company operator, sending position report to KETN, American steamship Edgehill, U. S. Naval Radio station at Norfolk, Va., on 450 meters. (Ship's he is 437 miles east of Cape Henry.)

9:29—KILF, American steamship Eimsport, U. S. Shipping Board independent Wireless Telegraph Company operator, sending position report to KETN, American steamship Edgehill, U. S. Naval Radio station at Norfolk, Va., on 450 meters. (Ship's he is 437 miles east of Cape Henry.)

9:29—KILF, American steamship Eimsport, U. S. Shipping Board independent Wireless Telegraph Company operator, sending position report to KETN, American steamship Edgehill, U. S. Naval Radio station at Norfolk, Va., on 450 meters. (Ship's he is 437 miles east of Cape Henry.)

9:31—KETN sending position report to KILF (says "Noon date S.S. Edgehill 1,616 miles east southeast Boston, bound for Boston from Antwerp").

Judging by the noise KETN and KILF are making, one would never think an agreement had been arrived at whereby 450-meter transmission was eliminated between 7 and 11 p. m.)

9:35—KIGR sending message to NAM.

9:40—Reception from WRC badly mutilated by code interference from KETN and KILF. A spark thing WNAC's wave length is so low. If it were around 400 meters instead of 275 the opera broadcast would have been sadly butchered by code.

9:45 p. m.—Frederick William Wylde broadcasting a talk from WRC, Washington, D. C., on the Teapot Dome oil discussion and the national tax situation. Reception very clear, excepting for some ship occasionally testing or holding key down.

9:50—Quiet.

9:55 to 10:30—Time signals received from WRC.

10:15—Quiet.

10:20—Quiet.

10:22—WOO, Wanamaker's, Philadelphia, coming through very loud with organ music.

10:27—WOS, Jefferson City, Mo., coming through well with dance music.

10:30—Quiet.

10:32—WLW, Cincinnati coming through well, with women singing.

10:34—WOC, Davenport, Iowa, strong. Quartet singing.

10:39—JPI, Japanese steamship "Meiyo Maru" calling WIM Radio Corporation of America shore station at Chatham, Mass., with QTC (Have you anything for me?)

10:41—JPI tests awhile and then calls WIM again. (Wonder if he knows that WIM does not handle traffic on 450 meters until after 11?)

10:42—WCN (Not listed) calling KIVS, American steamship "Delfina" Radio Corporation of America operator.

10:44—WCN sends service message to KIVS.

10:50—Quiet.

10:55—Some ship sending weather reports to WJN, American steamship "Stampless." Radio Corporation of America operator.

11:10—Off watch.

(Operator's note.) At 11 p. m. conditions were more favorable than any time for the past few weeks, for long distance reception. Stations were coming in clear, and with minimum fading, although not heavy enough for loud speaker.

GIRLS ON RADIO TOMORROW NIGHT

Nine of the fair chorisers of Earl Carroll's "Vanities" which will be broadcasted by WNAC and WJAR, the Shepard Stores, from the Colonial Theatre tomorrow night. Peggy Hopkins Joyce is the star of the tuneful show. This is the first time that the entire performance of the revue will be broadcast, although the first act has been broadcast from other cities.

NEWSIES BUY SET TO HEAR MARSHALL

Grand Opera Baritone Sold Papers Himself, as Boy in Lynn

When the Lynn newsboys read that Charles Marshall, the famous baritone of the Chicago Civic Opera Company and former Lynn newsboy, was to sing at the Boston Opera House last night, and his voice would be broadcasted as well, they immediately thought money to buy a single tube radio set.

The Lynn Boys' Club on Liberty street was selected for their auditorium. Harry Robinson and George Sarelli, two carrier boys who deliver the Boston American in the downtown section of Lynn, were given the assignment to install the set. With in three minutes after ground connections were made, Marshall's powerful voice was coming in as clear as a bell, much to the edification of the newsboys.

THE HUMAN VOICE MAKES A BIG NOISE

One horsepower consists in hoisting half a ton from the ground to the height of thirty-three feet in one minute.

The electrical unit of power used in speaking by broadcasting station is the "watt." It takes slightly less than 750 watts to make a horsepower. The average American broadcasting station radiates from 500 to 1000 watts.

Measurements indicate that the power of human voice, in loud speech or song, is only about one one hundred millionth of a watt. Yet this minute power is sufficient to be heard by the ear for several hundred feet. The human ear is calculated to be about as sensitive as the eye, so far as the amount of power required to give a definite sensation is concerned. By radio this feeble voice can be built up to a one-horsepower voice. This means that the voice of a speaker broadcasting from such a station is increased over 50,000,000,000 times. In other words, if everybody on earth were to get together and shout at once the voice power produced would still fall far short of the strength of a voice broadcast by such a station.

POTENTIOMET'R SHOULD HAVE VERNIER

Thirty-Ohm Rheostat Gives Verier Adjustment for Fine Tuning

A potentiometer, or voltage divider, as it is more properly termed, is often used on regenerative receivers that employ a "soft" tube as the detector instead of the old fashioned crystal detector. However, potentiometers are generally used to provide a negative bias on the grids of the radio frequency amplifiers, so that the circuit may be stabilized.

When the potentiometer is used in the capacity just mentioned it is found that the adjustment is rather critical at times. This is usually found to be so when two or three stages of untuned, transformer-coupled radio frequency amplification are used. When it becomes a "tickflash" proposition to adjust the potentiometer, it is time to add a vernier to your potentiometer.

A very easy way to accomplish this is to connect a 30-ohm rheostat in series with the winding of the potentiometer as shown above. Since the two resistances are connected in series, the resistance of the potentiometer is varied by the movable arm of the rheostat and a vernier control is therefore possible. Since the potentiometer is a rather high resistance device and therefore has damping effect on the signals it might be of further benefit to connect a .002 condenser from the movable arm of the potentiometer to one end of the fixed resistance.

The Listener

Have you heard the Sunday evening service on the chimes in the Campanile of the Municipal Group in Springfield? The service is broadcast every week by WBZ, and when it comes through, it is well worth hearing.

We have rarely enjoyed music more than that broadcast from Jordan Hall recently by WNAC. Our set was working like a charm, for one thing, but most of the credit belongs with the Concordia Choral and Symphony Society. We were particularly pleased with the way the program was varied, so that it never became tedious.

People usually think of banks as stodgy institutions that are slow to act. But banks have been among the first business institutions to see the value of radio broadcasting—and right here I kick. Ben Franklin's savings ideas are sound and sensible, but so many different financial institutions are telling us to be thrifty, to invest and to make wills these nights that some time I'm going to get mad and throw all my money away. No, I won't publish my address.

WOMAN WINS SECOND PRIZE IN CONTEST

Somerville Fan Writes Letter on Broadcasting of "Up She Goes" Show

The following letter, written by Mrs. J. J. Smith, of 30 Pearl street, Somerville, won second prize in the contest for a review of the recent broadcasting of "Up She Goes," from the Shubert-Wilbur Theatre:

81 Pearl Street, East Somerville, January 16th, 1924.

How I enjoyed "Up She Goes" this afternoon—

After my family and I had heard "Up She Goes" over our radio the other evening, we made up our minds it would be well worth seeing as well as hearing, so, this afternoon, my married daughter and I went to the matinee and enjoyed every minute of it.

We hadn't heard such a delightful musical comedy for years, and we laughed till we cried at Richard (Skeets) Gallagher's dear old sailor. He surely is a born comedian and I do wish he and all the rest of your splendid company could have heard the enthusiastic comment of the more than delightful audience.

My husband, son and son-in-law plan to see your play some evening this week after the favorable reports we gave them on our return home.

I brought a number of programs with me so I could give them to my friends and neighbors in order that they may go to the Wilbur Theatre, for I want them to have a good laugh too. I feel ten years younger than I did before I attended that matinee this afternoon.

There is a great deal of truth and common sense in your comedy as well as the fun. Who among us hasn't at times been over-advised by some of our "in-laws"? I wonder!

However, I personally, have no cause for complaint along that line, for my dear mother-in-law died, when I was a little girl. I naturally consulted my dear old mother-in-law about many things and found her advice excellent.

The fierce attitude of Mrs. Cook toward her prospective son-in-law was the only part in the whole comedy which I did not like. My own son-in-law is as kind to me as he is to his own mother and we all live together here at 81 Pearl street.

Don't you think the mother-in-law and step-mother jokes are nearly worn out?

No wonder "Up She Goes" had a long run in New York and probably will remain as long or longer in Boston, for all the acting was fine and the costumes superb. The really worth while plays, yours of course among the number, especially when they are very musical or witty, are always appreciated in Boston—the home of art, literature and music.

Wishing you every success, I remain,

Yours enthusiastically,

(Signed) Nan Armstrong Smith,

(Mrs. J. J.)

Tomorrow two letters, which tied for third place in the contest, will be published on this page.

HERE'S A TIP FOR NOISY U. V. 199 TUBES

It has been found that the U. V. 199 tube, when used as a detector, is sometimes quite critical on the filament adjustment, and in one particular set it was observed that better results were secured by using only one dry cell in place of the customary dry cells. If your set seems to cut it out, no matter how low you turn the filament rheostat, try cutting out one or two of the dry cells used for the A battery.

Radio Receiving Conditions Tonight

Radio receiving conditions in Boston for tonight will be excellent for bringing in all stations along the Atlantic coast, aboard. The entire coast line is now in a high pressure area.

Southern Canada and the Middle and Far West is in a low pressure area and these stations will not be tuned in so well. The Canadian stations will be particularly hard to bring in clearly.

Complete Data on American Super in Booklet

The eagerly awaited booklet on the Boston American Super is on the way. It will be ready in a few days.

The booklet will have COMPLETE data on the construction and operation of these remarkable sets, including the Baby Super, the Super Dick, and the powerful Daddy Super.

There will be all the different hook-ups needed, full size panel layouts that can be used for templates for drilling the panels, photographs of completed sets showing arrangement of parts, instructions for winding the coils, and other features, all printed on high-grade paper.

How to obtain one of these booklets will be told on this page in a few days.

WHEN you wonder what vacuum tube will work best in your radio set, find out who invented the 3-electrode tube as used in all present-day radio. The answer — is the answer to most radio questions — is De Forest.

The "Greatest Name in Radio"

M. STEINERT & SONS
162 BOYLSTON STREET
88 ARCH STREET

WNAC, THE SHEPARD STORES, BOSTON—278 METERS.

11:55 A. M.—Time signals and weather report.

12:01 P. M.—"Financial Reports" by the Boston Financial News, R. W. McNeel, editor.

12:15—Broadcast from King's Chapel: Organ prelude, "Angelus"; Warning; organ and violin, "Invocation"; Hymn; Scripture; Sermon by Rev. E. Stanton Hodgkin, D.D., First Congregational Society (Unitarian), New Bedford, Mass.; postlude, organ and violin, "Southern Melody," Yost, Raymond C. Robinson, F.A.G.O., and Miss Bach; Mrs. Miriam Faulkner Jefferies, violinist.

1:00—Shepard Colonial Orchestra, Perley Breed, director.

1:15—Selections on the Chickering Ampico.

1:20—Shepard Colonial Orchestra.

1:50—Phonograph selections.

2:00—Massachusetts Merchants' Association, broadcast from Copley-Plaza Hotel. Formal welcome to the city by the Mayor of Boston and presentation of the key to the city.

2:25—Secretary's annual report, together with the auditor's annual report and one or two business matters.

2:30—Address by Congressman Charles L. Underhill. Subject to be announced.

3:15—Talk, "Retailer of Tomorrow," James W. Eadie, jr., counsel to some seventy to eighty retail associations in New England.

3:45—Address, "A Guide Post to Right Buying," William E. Koch, associated with the Retail Merchants' Institute of Chicago.

4:15—Shepard Colonial Orchestra.

4:30—Selections on the Chickering Ampico.

4:45—Third talk of series: "Schemes Financial Fakers Use," E. L. Green, director of Boston Better Business Commission.

5:00—"The Day in Finance," by The Boston Financial News, R. W. McNeel, editor.

6:30—7:30—WNAC Dinner Dance—Shepard Colonial Orchestra, Perley Breed, director. 1, "Memory's Garden," "Sweet California," "Drift On," "Blue Rose"; 2, "Dream Daddy," "Who's It Huh," "My Own," "Stavin' Change"; 3, "Dreams," "Sunflower Maid," "I'd Rather Fox-Trot Than Waltz"; "In A Covered Wagon." All these numbers released through the National Association of Broadcasters, of which WNAC is a member.

8:00—The Boston American Band—Gaston Gallo, conductor. 1, March, "Imperial." Bagley; 2, Waltz, "Dream on the Ocean," Gung'l; 3, Overture, "Semiramide," Rossini; 4, March, Song, "I Enlarge," Costa; 5, Short Talk, "Waterfront Stories About Men of the Sea," Dr. Rufus Sargent, aerial reporter of the Boston American; 6, Quartet, Selected, Boston American Brass Band; 7, Fantasia from "Il Trovatore," Verdi; 8, "Chinese Wedding Procession," Hosmer; 9, March, "Lorraine," Ganne; 10, Short Talk, "Exposure of Stock Swindles," Mr. Frank H. Meloon, financial editor of the Boston American; 11, "Dance of the Hours," from the Opera of "La Gioconda," Ponchielli; 12, Reverie, "Chimes of Love," d'Albert; 13, Selected; 14, March, "Lights Out," McCoy.

STATION WGI, MEDFORD HILL SIDE—360 METERS

12:00 noon—(1) Selection on the Aeolian in the Chickering. (2) Arnold Round Table. (3) Selections on the Brunswick Console.

12:40 p. m.—New England weather forecast, furnished by the U. S. weather bureau.

12:45—Closing report on farmers' produce market report.

3:00—Amrad Women's Club program. 1—Descriptive musicals, arranged by Miss Gertrude Ayer Hayden, Boston. All numbers played by the Ampico in the Chickering.

4:00 p. m.—"Tuesday Tea Talk," by David McGregor Chenoy.

5:30—Closing stock market reports, furnished by Elmer H. Bright & Co., members of the New York and Boston stock exchanges. Weekly review of conditions in the iron and steel industry—Iron Trade Review.

6:15—Boston police reports, Boston police headquarters.

6:30—Meeting of the Big Brother Amrad Club.

7:00—Evening program: 1—"Africa from Cape Town to the Congo," as seen by a commercial traveler, by A. S. Flint of the Waltham Watch Company. 2—Weekly business report, compiled by Roger W. Babson. 3—Concert by the Standish Male Quartet.

WHAD, PROVIDENCE—361 Meters.

2:00 to 4:00 p. m.—Concert.

6:00—Musical program.

6:15—Children's feature by "Peter's Story Lady," Mrs. Rena Archer Aylesworth.

6:30—Musical program continued.

WJAR, NEWARK—405 Meters.

8:00 p. m.—"Star Spangled Banner."

8:01—Sammy Cook and his Broadway Melody Entertainers, with Morris Mortenson, Jack Martin, Earl De Wilton and Hugh Hanan, Katherine Behnke and Estell Hinkle, Mr. Mortenson, pianist extraordinary, will play his own compositions, featuring dansecapation.

9:00—Al Nevins, tenor, singing "There's Nobody Else But You," "On a Moonlight Night," "Our Little House" and "I Don't Say You Love Me"; Sammy Cook, Sommer at the piano.

9:15—Popular songs by Billy Burke, including "Irish Moon," "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now Tonight," "You Can't Make a Fool Out of Me," and "Sweetheart's Wrong," accompanied by Marie Leslie.

9:45—Victor Wilbur, tenor, and Joseph Macy, pianist, in a recital of favorite ballads, including "Dream Daddy," "Blue Rose" and "I Still Believe in You."

10:15—Hamilton Hall, accordionist from the London concert stage, offering a series of Irish melodies.

WBAL, CINCINNATI—300 Meters.

8:00 p. m.—Selections by Hotel Gibson Orchestra, Robert M. Visconti, director.

9:00—Address: "Personnel Earl in Schools," the University of Cincinnati. Short musical program by studio artists.

9:30—Hotel Gibson Orchestra playing request numbers.

10:00—Musical program.

WSAI, CINCINNATI—309 Meters.

11:00 p. m.—Popular program arranged by Maurice Dreicer and the Dreicer Musical Bureau; orchestra and the Dreicer Musical Club Quartet, directed by Mr. Dreicer, Horace Bean—trumpets; "Mammie" (Sig Stein and Gus Kahn), and other numbers. The Dreicer Musical Club Quartet will sing "Dreamy Melody" (Zamecnik) accompanied by Joan H. Scott, pianist. Dorothy Lee Bean will play a piano solo. Dreicer Musical Club Quartet: (a) "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" (Jessel); (b) "Dreamy Melody" (Zamecnik). Joan H. Lamy, "Hawaiian Pollies." Horace Bean Dance Orchestra: "Marchetta," "Sobbin' Blues," "The Land Beyond Sirocco" and other numbers released by the National Association of Broadcasters, of which the Dreicer Musical Club is a member.

WOKA, E. PITTSBURGH—396 Meters.

6:15 p. m.—Dinner concert by the Ft. Pitt Orchestra, Harry Fitzsimmons, director.

7:15—Address by representative of the American Committee for the Relief of Armenian Children.

7:30—"Preserving Your Teeth," Dr. Bruce Hall.

7:45—The children's period.

8:00—Musical program.

8:15—"Resolution," one of the "virtues of the Constitution," by Attorney Hon. Hon. John Ihy Knoyn.

8:30—Concert presented by the Byron King School of Oratory, Pittsburgh, Pa. Wilda Smith, soprano; Pauline Hoffman, violinist; Poling and Mabel Perrine, readers. Charles Gilbert Spross, pianist. Mrs. Ida Williams Wilda Smith, John R. Gifford, Florence G. Wilson, Mabel Perrine Jamison, assisted by an instrumental quartet. Program: "Prelude" (Rachmaninoff), "The College Waltzes," a story, "The Pink Slip" (Florence Gerken), "Dream Daddy," "The Obstinate Family," "Indian Love Call" (Friml), "Sweetheart Days" (Raymond Hubbell), "Happy Days" (Stanley-Conrad), "Hello, Hawaii, How Are You?" Tenor solo and other numbers by the instrumental quartet, to be announced.

9:30—Talk, "Boy Scouts."

10:30—Special late evening concert.

WBZ—SPRINGFIELD—337.

7:00—World market survey from the Department of Commerce at Boston. Farm Forum: Parent-Teacher campaign by Professor F. E. Cole of the Massachusetts Agricultural College. "The Art of Instrument," second of a series of lectures by Professor Wallace Goodrich of the New England Conservatory of Music.

7:30—Bedtime stories by the Kiddies.

7:45—Special program by Charles Roddy, Lowell humorist. "Talk on Roddy's Lowell show, and Lee Vondrey, violinist, with Lucille Vondrey, vocalist, assisted with sparkling tunes and a military trio. Special Radio Trio, "Three Musical Musketeers." Program: "Dream Daddy," "Mean Papa Turn In Your Key," "I'm Sorry Dear," "Sweet Lovin' Daddy," "Lucky Child," "The One I Love," "The Hatful of Rain," "Tell Me Tomorrow, Tonight," The General Tom McNally Colored Orchestra, "Dixie Jazz Band One Step," "Tomorrow, Peace, Any Old Battlefield."

8:30—Bedtime story by Aunt Sue.

8:45—Time signals.

WJZ, NEW YORK—360 METERS.

9:30—"Hikers'," Society Orchestra.

10:00—Musical program, introducing "Sweetie in the Evening," and other popular numbers.

10:05—Hon. Milton W. Sutton of the National Security League, speaking.

10:20—Radio lecture, subject to be announced.

10:25—Tom Bracken, singing "Whose Lazy Daddy?"

10:30—Jack Sheehan, singing "Why Did I Kiss That Girl?"

10:35—George Robinson, singing "In the Evening."

10:40—Tom Bracken, singing "Mississippi Sunset."

10:45—George Robinson, singing "Josephine."

10:50—Philip Ellis in pianoselections.

10:55—Frisco Legion, singing "Suffolk Going South."

11:00—Five Locust Girls, singing "California Here I Come" and "That Bran New Gal of Mine."

11:10—Ben Barnard, singing "Out There in the Sunshine With You."

11:20—Leonard Stiles, singing "Mah Jong."

11:25—Charles Tobias and Louis Breau, singing "Dixie Moonlight."

11:30—Charles Tobias and Louis Breau, singing their own songs "Mary's a Real Sweetheart of the End of the Swanee," "In an Arabian Palace With a Sheik" and others.

11:45—Musical program to be announced.

Radio News From WNAC

Radiola Special Receiving Sets 13.30

Radiola Special Sets complete with tube, phones and batteries 29.00

Shepard Radio Store
1 and 2 Winter Place

Tune in on

WNAC

Tonight Broadcasting

The Boston American Band

Accurate Radio Programs for Tonight—Easy to Read

TUESDAY DX TIMETABLE.

CFCN, Calgary, Alta.	440	Silent
CKCA, Montreal, Que.	430	7:00 to 11:30
KDZE, Seattle, Wash.	455	Silent
KFAE, Pullman, Wash.	320	Silent
KFI, Los Angeles, Cal.	395	9:45 to 2:00
KGW, Portland, Ore.	492	10:30 to 2:00
KHJ, Los Angeles, Cal.	395	9:45 to 5:00
KLS, Havana, Cuba	400	Silent
KPO, San Francisco, Cal.	423	11:00 to 2:00
KSD, St. Louis, Mo.	545	6:00 to 8:00
NAA, Radio, Va.	435	7:30 to 8:30
PWX, Havana, Cuba	400	Silent
WBAY, Columbus, O.	476	Silent
WCBD, Zion, Ill.	345	Silent
WCX, Detroit, Mich.	517	8:30 to 12:00
WDAF, Kansas City, Mo.	411	12:45 to 2:00
WDAP, Chicago, Ill.	360	9:00 to 2:00
WFAA, Philadelphia Pa.	395	7:00 to 2:00
WGR, Buffalo, N. Y.	319	6:30 to 8:45
WHAZ, Schenectady, N. Y.	380	7:00 to 10:00
WHAS, Louisville, Ky.	400	8:00 to 10:00
WHB, Kansas City, Mo.	411	8:00 to 12:45
WHK, Cleveland, O.	285	6:00 to 8:00
WIP, Philadelphia, Pa.	509	6:00 to 12:00
WJAX, Cleveland, O.	390	7:30 to 9:30
WKAQ, San Juan, P. R.	360	6:00 to 8:30
WLAG, St. Paul, Minn.		Silent
WMAQ, Chicago, Ill.	448	9:00 to 11:00
WMC, Memphis, Tenn.	500	9:00 to 1:00
WOAI, San Antonio, Texas	395	10:30 to 11:30
WOAW, Omaha, Neb.	526	7:30 to 12:00
WOO, Philadelphia, Pa.	509	Silent
WSH, Newark, N. J.	405	8:15 to 7:30
WSMB, New Orleans, La.	461	Silent
WRC, Washington, D. C.	469	Silent
WRM, Urbana, Ill.	360	6:00 to 10:30
WSAI, Cincinnati, O.	309	9:00 to 11:00
WSB, Atlanta, Ga.	429	7:00 to 1:00
WSY, Birmingham, Ala.	360	Silent
WTAS, Elgin, Ill.	286	Silent
WWJ, Detroit, Mich.	517	8:30 to 10:30

WGY, SCHENECTADY—380.

2:00 p. m.—Music and address: "The Art of Making Introductions." Mrs. Albert Kimmm, Schenectady Woman's Club.

6:00—Market quotations; news bulletins.

7:00—Program of chamber music:

String trio for violin, viola and cello, "Serenade," Opus 8 ..... Beethoven

a. "Marcia."

b. "Adagio."

c. "Allegretto alla Polacca."

Edward A. Eisler, violin; Ernest Burleigh, cello; Lee Kilburn, viola.

Reading, "The Day of Seven Penalties," Hall.

Esther P. Weisberg,

Trio for flute, clarinet and bass, "Aubade" ..... De Wailly

Clarence Roberts, flute; Fred Fernley, oboe; Peter Schmidt, clarinet.

Reading, "The Palace of the Bag" ..... Crawford

Esther P. Weisberg.

Trio for violin, 'cello and clarinet:

a. "Gavotte Pompon" ..... Pirani

b. "Whirlwind" ..... Pirani

Fred Fernley, oboe; John R. Taylor, bassoon; Clarence R. Roberts, flute; Peter Schmidt, clarinet.

Readings.

a. "The Liar Tree" ..... Garden

b. "The Fossil Wife" ..... Anon

c. "It Was Not a Dream" ..... Anon

Esther P. Weisberg.

Quartet in F Major, "Allegro" ..... Mozart

Fred Fernley, oboe; Edward A. Rice, violin; Ira A. Kitner, viola; Ernest Burleigh, 'cello.

WJAR, LOUISVILLE—400 METERS.

5 to 6 P. M.—Selections by the Walnut Hills Orchestra, Walter Parsons, conductor. Today bulletin. Weather forecast. Program subject to change without notice.

William J. Hutching of Bryce College, Harrodsburg, Ky., will speak on "The Negative Obstacle." Four-minute address: Samuel E. Dunn, editor and publisher of the Railway Age. Late important news bulletins.

5:30—Local livestock, produce and grain market reports.

6:00—Official time announced.

8:30 p. m.—Out-of Town Concert Night, directed by Violet M. Cole of Minneapolis, Minn. Program subject to change without notice.

WOR, NEWARK—405 METERS.

2:30 P. M.—Miss Harris, lyric soprano, of the Metropolitan National Opera Company. Program—Mystery songs: "Estrellita," "Frolo Pazo," "La Chanaurita," "La Malinconia," "Una Voce Poco Fa."

2:45—Hula Caswell Hawaiis, pianist-composer; Wanda Pruszynska, violinist; Ferdinand Grieg, "Nocturne," Grieg; "Ecossaise," Grieg; "Humoresque," Grieg; "Waltz in E Minor," Chopin; "Song Book," Stark.

3:00 to 3:30—Jane Walker, now playing in "The Nervous Wreck," at the Harris Theatre, New York City, will read scenes from her experiences on the stage.

3:30—Program arranged by Rita Barrison, American songs: "Mighty Lak' a Rose," "A Beautiful Dream," "Dear Love."

3:45—Piano selections by Bois Caswell Hawaiis: "Hawaiian Whining; "Rowena," Bendix; "Songs of Long Ago," Caswell; "A Moonlight Memory," Caswell.

4:15—Music While You Dine," by Halsey Miller and his Orchestra.

5:30 to 7:00—Studio concert.

7:00—Music While You Dine," by Halsey Miller and his Orchestra.

7:30 to 8:00—Educational program.

8:00 to 8:30—Educational program.

8:30—Program arranged by Mrs. Alice Rose (Reuse): "Three O'Clock in the Morning," Rosen; "Rose Marie," Friml; "Better Homes and Buildings," fourth talk in a series of seven, moving picture; "Santa Miss Tom," South, Arthur Winnie, Jr., Tenor; "Lucky Day," by Mrs. Dorothy Ireland, State organizer, Young Peoples' Alliance.

9:00 to 11:00—Dance program given by the Weber's Hot Music Club, Fred Weber and Orchestra and the Sweetest Music Orchestra, Jack Hylton and Orchestra. Program includes: "Jazz the Stars," "Easy Melody," "Sweet Sue," "Dinah," "Whispering," "Ain't That a Grand and Glorious Feeling," "Westbrook's Special," "Dinner Music," "Miller Throws the Blues," "Shakin' the Blues," "On the Grass," Eagle Blues," "Sweet Lovin' Daddy," "Sweetheart Days," "Jazz Me," They Needed Me," "Bridal

How to Keep Well

BY DR. F. X. MAHONEY, Boston Health Commissioner.

YOU can't run an automobile with dirty spark plugs.

Neither can you run a human body with bad teeth, which in many ways are entirely similar to the spark plugs on your car.

During recent years much has been printed about the dangers of pyorrhea and infected teeth, but the dangers of neglected teeth have been known to the medical profession and almost have been known to the laymen for many years past.

Dr. Mahoney.

It is not idle to say that in a great majority of instances, trouble with the teeth is due to neglect. You know your teeth may not be in good condition, but you put off going to the dentist until the aching molar drives you there. Then, many times, it is too late to save the tooth and the attention you require costs you much more than if it had been given earlier and had your molars examined.

The average person should go to the dentist once every four months. Select a reputable dentist. It will be cheering to have him tell you your teeth are in tip-top shape—the expense of such an examination will be very slight—while if something is discovered that needs attention it will have been caught in its incipiency and the condition easily corrected.

Pyorrhea is a disease that has lately come to be greatly feared by everyone—and justly so.

It is likely to attack a person of any age, but most generally it does not show until after the age of forty.

LOOSENING OF TEETH

The most recent discoveries indicate that pyorrhea does not come from a local condition about the tooth or gums, but is first caused by something becoming the matter with the general condition of the sufferer.

What is pyorrhea? many persons ask. It is a loosening of the teeth accompanied by the formation of pus around the gums. Certain bacteria and organism have been found in connection with pyorrhea, but a disease entirely similar to pyorrhea has been set up in animals by giving them a diet deficient in certain food elements.

This would indicate that pyorrhea follows an impaired body condition which permits the bacteria to gain a foothold on the gums and teeth.

A bleeding or soreness about the gums is the first sign of trouble. The whitening of the teeth around the gums by which accretion comes later.

Soreness of the gums does not always mean pyorrhea, but sore gums do mean that you should see a dentist at once.

A reputable dentist is the only safe person to handle pyorrhea.

In this connection it is well to call the attention of parents to the care of the teeth of their children. Take your children to the dentist frequently and let him examine their teeth. Don't wait until the cries of pain from the youngster inform you that he is suffering from a badly decayed tooth. The chances are that by the time the tooth starts to ache it is too badly decayed to be saved.

How many persons there are whose personal appearance has been greatly marred throughout life because their teeth were neglected when they were young.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

I have been troubled with red, itchy pimples for a month. They constantly disappear but return. M. T.

Your trouble would indicate a deficiency in diet. Limit your sweets and meat; drink plenty of water; exercise.

I am troubled in breathing and if I only exert myself it seems as though I would suffocate. I was cured of bronchial pneumonia in 1921. M. G.

A complete physical examination is recommended. Your heart is in good physical condition I would suggest daily systematic breathing exercises.

With the arrival of cold weather, my body, especially my feet, perspire terribly itchy. J. T. W.

Your condition may be due to poor circulation or to winter underwear. Consult your physician.

I have not had a normal sleep for a month. A READER.

Regulate your diet, eliminate a heavy meal at night, and get plenty of exercise. Have your bedroom well ventilated.

There is always a feeling of something in my throat and down as far as my breast. J. F.

Constipation is the source of your trouble. Regulate your bowels by mineral oils, and limit your meat diet.

When I go into a room where there is tobacco smoke, I am in the air a short while. I begin coughing.

Your condition might indicate a sensitive throat, oftentimes due to mouth breathing. Make sure that your breathing is through your nose.

BOSTON AMERICAN

Published daily (except Sunday), 20-28 Bumfort St., Boston 9, Mass., by NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Boston, Mass., under the Postoffice Department, Canada.

Domestic Subscriptions by Mail, Postpaid: One Month, 30c. Six Months, $1.75. One Year, $3. Foreign Rates: One Month, $1. Six Months $6. One Year, $12. Our risk exists per mail from Boston Postal District. Subscriptions payable strictly in advance.

The Boston American assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements, but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs. Advertisers will please notify the management immediately of an error which may occur.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

8 SHIPS FOR 'ROUND WORLD FREIGHT LINE

Tokio, Jan. 29 (A.P.).—Kermit Roosevelt, president of the Roosevelt Steamship Company, announced today completion of an alliance between that company and the Kokusai Kisen Kaisha, one of the leading shipping firms of Japan, which will provide for a round-the-world freight service. The Kawasaki shipbuilding yard is largely interested. The companies agree to operate eight ships of 10,000 tons each, touching the ports mentioned, beginning in June.

You Need a Job?
CALL MAIN 5180

The quickest way to get it is to tell your want to the employers of Greater Boston by placing your ad in the American
CALL MAIN 5180

Ask for an Ad-Taker
CALL MAIN 5180

Deaths

BENSON—In Auburndale, January 27, Mary G. (nee Mitchell), beloved wife of Frank Benson.
Funeral from her late residence, No. 259 Lexington street, Wednesday, January 30, at 8 a. m. Requiem mass at the Church of Corpus Christi at 9. Relatives and friends invited.

AHEARN—In Cambridge, January 27, Elizabeth J.
Relatives and friends are kindly invited to attend the funeral from her late home, No. 112 Hamilton street, Wednesday, January 30, at 8:30 p.m. Solemn high mass at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at 9 o'clock.

SULLIVAN—Suddenly, January 27, Alice M. Sullivan, in her eighty-fifth year.
Funeral from her late residence, No. 29 Chilton street, Wednesday, January 30, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem High mass at All Saints' Church at 9 o'clock. Funeral private. Please omit flowers.

Announcements

Lost and Found 11

REWARD
For return of package containing textile samples, taken from automobile Thursday night, 24 Auburndale or Brookline, between 6-11 p. m. No questions asked. Return to 77 Franklin st., Room 410. Tel. Main 2370.

LOST—A Small Yellow Dog
Fluffy tail, suitably rewarded by returning to MRS. E. S. DODGE, 41 Chestnut st.

REWARD for return cape tapestry and damask napkins taken from car No. Washington st., Saturday. No questions asked. LA FRANCE TEA-TILE CO., room 210, 207 Essex st.

LOST—Before Xmas, gold Waltham wrist watch, monogram F. M. C.; reward. Chelsea, 1618-W.

Announcements

Lost and Found 11

LOST—Scottish terrier, Dodie Rex white ruffle, white nose, white paws and breast; reward. Roxbury 4554.

A GOLD slide pin with a recognized ruby and small diamond. Return to 2 Hancock, Allerton and receive reward.

FOUND—Airedale terrier. Inquire Daniel D. McKenna, 4 Putnam Court, Cambridge. Univ. 2397-J.

The Voice of New England

No Attention Paid to Anonymous Communications

Statesmanship

Editor Boston American:

European statesmanship is sometimes called sublime by European writers. It might be if it wasn't so outrageously ridiculous and devoid of logic at times.

Here is a sample. Senator Henri La Fontaine, vice-president of the Belgian Senate, says:

"It cannot be denied that we fought for America and that we saved her! Consequently we are entitled to expect effective help from her."

The Senator has been doing some calculating. The result shows instead of the allied nations owing the United States $12,000,000,000, the United States owes the allied nations $88,000,000,000 for being saved. This may be good statesmanship deduction in Europe, but it's alsoightly poor logic in the United States.

The Senator's figures should be reversed. Whatever the allied nations are worth to themselves they owe the United States for saving their lives and preserving their national organizations.

The Senator's memory is faulty. He forgets the time when England's "back was to the wall" when her navy was in a terrible state, her army reduced to the verge of destruction, and starvation in view.

When that was bled white" and ready to evacuate Paris, they called to "the young giant of the west" for help—their only hope.

J. E. YOUNG.

British Influence

Editor Boston American:

Senator McKellar spills the beans. Discussing the Muscle Shoals situation in the United States Senate, he said: "British interests largely control the Aluminum Company. British interests were served first at Washington. They got the valuable plant. Henry Ford declared was necessary to make the Muscle Shoals project a success.

This explains why certain newspapers have used so much space and effort against Henry Ford's Muscle Shoals program. They were backing British interests in Alabama.

JOHN MASON.

The Whereness of the Which

Editor Boston American:

If in this country we want to lead the people into better ways of living, which was the purpose of Christ's teachings, why not preach Christianity and let wrangling over creeds and doctrines go by default? Ministers that are doing this are keeping their churches intact and are gaining followers instead of losing them.

Human nature is so constituted that it requires mystery in its object of worship. This has always been so and will be so till the end of time.

Even the crucifixion of Christ he materialized to the whole world that there is life after death. The Bible teaches that there is a hereafter and Christ gave proof by appearing before many witnesses.

If all churches would follow Christ's example there would be no creeds, no isms and no disputations on the whichness of the what and the whereness of the which.

CLARINDA M. COPE.

Auction Sales

THE LEONARD ART GALLERIES
Established 1876
LEONARD & COMPANY, INC.
Boylston and Exeter Streets, Boston, Massachusetts
A VERY WONDERFUL ASSEMBLAGE OF ORIENTAL RUGS AND CARPETS INCLUDING MANY BEAUTIFUL CHINESE RUGS AND CARPETS
THE HAGOP TOPAKYAN COLLECTION WILL BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION
JANUARY 28 to FEBRUARY 9
AFTERNOON SESSIONS AT 2:30 P. M.
EVENING SESSIONS AT 8:30 P. M.
CONTINUOUS EXHIBITION

Auction Sales

Merchandise

Household Articles 67

O'Callaghan's Rug Sale
Sale Velvet and Axminster Rugs, 8x10, 9x12 Brussels and Wilton Rugs, near Tremont st.

INLAID linoleum, only 85c yard. NATIONAL FURNITURE CO., 76 Leverett st., near So. Station.

Musical Instruments 69

PIANO SALE
300 PIANOS
TO SELECT FROM
Biggest Wareroom in Boston
THE BEST SELECTION EVER
1924 MODELS—BABY GRANDS
PLAYER'S AND UPRIGHTS
USED PIANOS, ALL MAKES
$45, $55, $65, $75, $85
Chickerings, Steinways, Millers
Mason & Hamlin, Ivers & Pond
VOSE, ALL THE NICE ONES
$5 DEPOSIT, $1 WEEK
PIANOS ON TRIAL
PLAYER PIANOS, $150, $200
$250, $275, $300, $350, UP
EASIEST TERMS IN BOSTON
SAVE YOUR MONEY AND TIME
VISIT THE BEST PLACE FIRST
For 25 Years Boston's Best
PIANO BARGAIN HOUSE
OPEN MON., THURS. & SAT. EVES. TILL 9

J. P. COLLINS
100 SUMMER ST., BOSTON

Open Mon., Thurs. and Sat. Eves.
CHICKERING USED
PIANO SALESROOMS
800 Washington St.
SPECIALS FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW
Kimball Upright $190
Kranich & Bach $185
(Plain Mahogany Case)
Whitney Player $345
Music Rolls, Classic and Popular Latest Hits at Bargain Prices
Pianos actively recommended. Easy terms, free delivery, guaranteed, etc.

NORRIS 181 Tremont St.
AUTOPIANO
Considered the best player-piano made; construction most durable, no rubber tubes to wear out and leak; perfect music tracking device. Send for catalogue. Kranich & Bach, McPhail and other highest grade grand and upright pianos to used pianos and player-pianos offered from $188 up on easy terms for full information. All makes to trade. Open evenings.
CHAS. S. NORRIS,
181 TREMONT ST.

HIGH GRADE PIANOS player-pianos, talking machines. Bargains in used pianos and player-pianos. Wilkins Washington st.

DURRELL'S 164-166 Tremont st.

OLD VIOLINS for sale; repairing done. RAOUL REITZEROL, 3 Park st., Boston.

Piano Deposit, $1.50 weekly. Pianos $25 up. "BROOKS", 82 Boylston st.; 1 flight.

OLD VIOLIN for sale, price reasonable 378 Washington st., Room 1.

Wanted to Buy 73

Webber Junk Co.
HIGHEST cash prices paid for old paper, rags, bottles, iron and metals. Phone Roxbury 1100. Roxbury Junk Co. Truck will call for big or small lot.

I'M LOOKING for second-hand furniture. Please call or write. A. SILVERMAN, 1 Union sq., Somerville. Prospect 2188-W.

Homes With Board

Rooms With Board 76

AUBURNDALE—Large, heated room, electricity, excellent board, home privileges. All conveniences. Newton 1635-W.

BROOKLINE—Double room with bath, single room, excellent table board. 7 LINCOLN PL., 1200, st. Pleasant st., Coolidge Corner. Newton 4185.

BOARD AND ROOM for 2 people, maintenance protected, in private family. University 5166-R.

Homes With Board 76

Rooms Without Board 77

BROOKLINE—Neatly furnished room, private family, all conveniences, reasonable. Tel. Regent 2981-W.

BROOKLINE—Beautiful large room, suitable for 2; 1 smaller room, electric lig. Regent 7161-J.

CAMBRIDGE—497 Broadway, nicely furnished rooms, also kitchenette, near Harvard sq. Tel. University 2870-M.

DORCHESTER — Furnished parlor and bedroom connected, suitable for Dr.; reasonable. Tel. Columbia 7425.

FURNISHED room, 3 steam-heated rooms for light housekeeping, near Cathedral. Washington st. Dover 2764-R.

HEMENWAY ST., 238—Suite 21, attractive sun room, steam heat, electricity, elevator. Copley 2436-M.

LARGE warm front room, piano, private family, Brookline, reasonable. Call between 12 and 2 or after 6 p. m. Back Bay 7150.

MEDFORD—Room and use room for 1 or 2, private family, home privileges; 12 minutes to Sullivan sq. Tel. Somerville 2101-M.

ROXBURY—Cozy steam heated bedroom and sitting room, private family; suitable for 2 or 3; walking girls preferable. Roxbury 2731-J.

TWO heated, furnished light housekeeping rooms, gas, electricity, private family. Roxbury 2653-R.

W. NEWTON ST., 35—Every room a gem, $5, $6, $7, $8 week. Man only. Telephone in every room. Shower bath. Private baths, $7, $8, $9. Call before 9 p. m. Back Bay 7150.

2 ROOMS for light housekeeping, or single rooms, steam heat, hot and cold water, electric lig. 1 CHESTNUT, st. Coolidge. Phone University 4290-J.

2 RUTLAND ST.—Desirable single rooms, steam heat, hot and cold water, electric lig. Copley 1655-M.

2 FERN rooms for light housekeeping, on third floor, all improvements. 9 FERN PARK, Dorchester.

Rooms for Housekeeping 78

2 or 4 ROOMS furnished for housekeeping; bath, 3 beds, couch; separate entrance; near subway. 37 Pleasant st., Cambridge.

BLUE HILL AV., 118—Front house, housekeeping rooms, heated, bath floor. Roxbury 6172-M.

UPTON ST., 19—Room for light housekeeping, all inquiries reasonable. Tel. Copley 4247-R.

47 FALMOUTH ST. Furnished room and all conveniences, steam heat, electric lights, reasonable.

Where to Dine 79

CAPRI RESTAURANT
261 Hanover st. Tel. Richmond 2385.

THE HELPING HAND

Continued from Editorial Page.

of Mrs. M. A., who will be very grateful for the clothing. Thank you.

For Girl of 15

Editor Helping Hand:

Please send me the address of a family or girl of fifteen. I have a coat and tam that would fit a girl this size. Also underclothing for a good sized man and lots of good clothes to make over.

MRS. S. R. T.

Thank you. You have been sent the address of Mrs. J. R. O'B., whose husband wears size 46. She will also be grateful for the shoes.

Grateful Thanks

Editor Helping Hand:

Just a few lines to thank you for your kindness in sending Mrs. K.'s name from Melrose, as she sent me a lovely box of clothing for my two girls. She was very kindhearted. Can you tell me if you sent a Mrs. S. my name. Someone sent me a box of things to eat at Christmas, and sent no address, although the package was remarked Hingham. I have yours have anything to fit boys fourteen, five and three and a baby girl a year old, or a man size 44 or 46 to fit me, I would be very grateful. My husband is not working at present, but goes to school a job next week, and I pray to God he will get it. I hope in the near future to come I would like to help some poor souls who are in my condition now.

MRS. H. J. K.

Offers Clothing

Editor Helping Hand:

One lady offers a coat and vest, size 38, a dress for a girl about seventeen or eighteen years old, shoes size four, a few dresses for small wear, a tam, and a few other things for a girl twelve. I will be glad to send them to someone needing them if you will send me one or two dresses. Have sent several boxes to each of the two addresses you sent me in the Summer.

MRS. J. C. S.

Glad to hear from you again. You have been sent the address of Mrs. M. A. and Mrs. S. and Mrs. J.

Hotels—Resorts—Travel

CUNARD AND ANCHOR LINES

New York, Cherbourg, Southampton
BERENGARIA ..... Feb. 16, Mar. 8, Apr. 2
AQUITANIA ..... Mar. 1, Apr. 16, May 3
MAURETANIA ..... Apr. 9, Apr. 30, May 21

New York, Queenstown, Liverpool
Carmania ... Feb. 2 | Tyrrhenia ... Feb. 9
Caronia ... Feb. 16 | Cameronia ... Mar. 29

FROM BOSTON
AUSONIA ..... Feb. 24, Mar. 23
SCYTHIA ..... April 27, May 25, June 22
SAXONIA ..... June 16, July 5, Aug. 7
To Queenstown and Liverpool

New York, Londonderry, Glasgow
CARINTHIA (Cabin or Tourist) ..... Feb. 2
ASSYRIA ..... Feb. 9, Mar. 15
CALEDONIA ..... Mar. 1, Mar. 29, April 26

New York, Plymouth, Cherbourg, London
ANDANIA ..... Feb. 16 | ANTONIA ..... Mar. 1
ALBANIA ..... Mar. 15 | SAXONIA ..... Mar. 22

Quebec, Belfast, Liverpool
CARMANIA ..... May 9, May 30
CARONIA ..... May 16, June 12, July 5

Montreal, Plymouth, Cherbourg, London
ANDANIA ..... May 3, June 7, July 12
ANTONIA ..... May 17, June 21, July 26
ALBANIA ..... May 24, June 28, Aug. 2

126 State St., Boston 9, or Local Agents

Florida BY SEA

Boston to JACKSONVILLE
One Way $42.50 | Round Trip $79.23
Sailing daily. Accommodations for every distance. Write for booklet and rates to Florida.

Baltimore & Ohio R.R. Co.
All the Way by Water via Baltimore
EXCURSION FARES
to Baltimore, Norfolk, Washington
Steamer sails daily from Baltimore. Rates and sailings to Old Point Comfort, Richmond, Newport News and direct ports on R.R. Allegheny and Berkshire
Merchants and Miners Trans. Co.
Pier 3, North Atlantic Ave., Boston
Tel. Connecticut 6100

NEW YORK $5.19
Via Rail and Boat
Outside stateroom, with running water for $5.19. Latest connecting train from South Station 7:15 P. M. Steamer leaves Providence 7 P. M.
COLONIAL LINE Phone Cong 2788
139 Wash. St. Boston

BAY STATE LINE NEW YORK $4.59
Via Rail and Boat
Direct connections Georgia and Tennessee lines. Fine cuisine. Rail tickets and berths at Bay State Line Office, Park Square Building, Arch Sts. and Columbus Ave.

Real Estate for Rent

Apartments and Flats 81

DORCHESTER—6 rooms, all improvements, electric lights. 49 Wentworth park, Fields Corner. Tel. Dor. 1200.

DORCHESTER—Apartment to let, 5 rooms and bath, all improvements, $18.50. Tel. 0723-W.

FLAT of 4 rooms for rent. Call Somerville 2422-M, 4 Beacon block.

MATTAPAN—4 rooms, colonial style, all improvements, Jewett heating, 5-minute walk to Harvard sq. Tel. Dor. 7434-J.

MEDFORD—Room, flat, electricity, gas, set tubs, bath, etc. $26. 29 Edward road, Winchester. Winchester 1000.

SOMERVILLE—Flat of Winter Hill, 4 rooms, lavatory, gas and coal range, 3rd floor $20, apply 26 Dana St., 1st floor.

Real Estate for Sale

Houses for Sale 89

WINTER HILL, Bungalow $4800; 7 years old, 4 rooms and sleeping porch, hot water heat and fireplace; hard-wood floors, dining room finished in mahogany; $25 cash; further payments call MARY W. COLLARD, 671 Main st., Somerville. Tel. 4447.

Suburban for Sale 92

FOR SALE—Fruit and variety store in best location in Roxbury, doing good business. $20 first 2 rooms; due business. $20. Station Accountant, 1 Lee st.

Wanted—Real Estate 94

CASH for investment properties; send accurate statement. F. A. CONNORS, 1 Tremont.

Diamonds—Jewelry

$1 DOWN, DIAMONDS and WATCHES A WEEK. L. M. BURACK & CO. Pay direct to 213 Washington st., Room 216. Open Sat. to 9. Sell for Discount. 364 Sold and Alive. ASTERLAUM, 27 School St.

Legal Notices

WHITE'S LAW OFFICES, 18 School st. Marriage troubles and probate court cases handled quickly and successfully everywhere.

EXPERIENCED lawyer, specialist in marriage troubles, reasonable rates, quietly, free advice. DAVIS, LAW OFFICE, 37 School st.

BOSTON HAIRDRESSERS EXHIBIT

HORTICULTURAL HALL, TODAY AND TOMORROW

HONEY'S BEAUTY SHOP
MARIE G. WILEY
2 MEDFORD ST., Arlington
Tel. Arl. 2150
Hairdressing, Facial, Scalp Treatment, Bob Cutting, Curling and Manicuring. Also Residential Work.

Mme. TENNEY
Beauty Shop
Efficient service in scientific beauty culture
Opp Park St. Subway
Beach 3357. 58 Winter St.

Electric Needle Specialist
HAIR on ladies' face permanently removed without pain or scar; satisfaction guaranteed; most reliable operator in Boston for 20 years. MISS MYRA BAFFERT, 178 Tremont st., Boston, Room 408. Tel. Main 6917.

JOSEPH'S
My Beauty Parlor
is equipped with 14 private sanitary booths.
Ladies' Hairdressing Parlor
25 Temple Place, Rooms 41-42-43. Tel. Beach 1488.

DEFECTIVE NOSES
(ALL KINDS)

CORRECTED painlessly without loss of time and without cutting except in extreme cases. Artificial noses fitted in the safest and most efficient method and without the discomfort in every way of existing results.

Also Corrected: Frowns, Nasty Eyelids, Deep Lines, Sagging Face, Flapping Chins, Superfluous Hair, Scars, Warts, Freckles, Moth Flia, Scars, Wens, Pimples, Blackheads, Black and Red Veins, Red Nose, Birthmarks, Scalp Wrinkles, Facial Wrinkles, Pock and Facial Blemishes corrected painlessly and permanently.

Dr. Reid's LIFTING OPERATION corrects sagging or sad eyes, double chin, crooked nose, flabbiness and the like most.

Special treatment for the permanent removal of freckles, moth patches, warts, moles, pimples, lines, etc. Consultation Free

Hours: 10 to 6; Sunday 10 to 2

E. P. REID, M. D.
100 BOYLSTON ST., Room 829
Oldest and most efficiently equipped establishment of its kind. Established as a Dermatological Institute, with a record of successful cosmetic work, many years longer than any institute or individual making similar claims.
Beware of Imitators.

Real Estate for Rent

Apartments and Flats 81

ARLINGTON
TO LET—5-6-room suites near Centre; separate entrances, corner location, steam heat, all improvements, just completed. Call Dor. 7926-R.

BROOKLINE—Attractive 6-room apartment 2 rooms. Apply JANITOR, 13 Atlantic ave., Beacon st. or call Cambridge 726.

FURNISHED—118 Auburn St., 7 rooms, with or without garage. Tel. Mystic 2144-W.

REPAIRS needed? Money loaned at low rate. CHAS. G. CLARK CO., 294 Washington st.

REVERE—5-room apartment, all modern conveniences, $30 per month; reasonable. Call Revere 244-R.

SOMERVILLE — 6-room apartment with all improvements. Call Somerville 0155.

WEST MEDFORD—145 Sharon st., 5 large rooms, bath, all improvements, steam heat, electricity. Phone Arlington 1118-R.

Real Estate for Sale

Houses for Sale 89

BOWLING ALLEYS for sale in Boston, 4 alleys, between Tremont and Washington sts. 8 rooms, ordinary improvements, renting at $25 each per month; premises call MARY W. COLLARD, 671 Main st., Somerville. Tel. 4447.

Investment Property 90

BOWLING ALLEYS for sale in Boston, 4 alleys, between Tremont and Washington sts. 8 rooms, ordinary improvements, renting at $25 each per month; further particulars call MARY W. COLLARD, 671 Main st., Somerville. Tel. 4447.

Suburban for Sale 92

FOR SALE—Fruit and variety store in best location in Roxbury, doing good business. $20 first 2 rooms; due business. $20. Station Accountant, 1 Lee st.

Wanted—Real Estate 94

CASH for investment properties; send accurate statement. F. A. CONNORS, 1 Tremont.

Diamonds—Jewelry

$1 DOWN, DIAMONDS and WATCHES A WEEK. L. M. BURACK & CO. Pay direct to 213 Washington st., Room 216. Open Sat. to 9. Sell for Discount. 364 Sold and Alive. ASTERLAUM, 27 School St.

Legal Notices

WHITE'S LAW OFFICES, 18 School st. Marriage troubles and probate court cases handled quickly and successfully everywhere.

EXPERIENCED lawyer, specialist in marriage troubles, reasonable rates, quietly, free advice. DAVIS, LAW OFFICE, 37 School st.

FINEST WIGS AND TOUPEES
T. H. MARSH CO.
169 Portland St.

Nasal Defects Corrected

Hump, Corrected. Dent, Corrected. (All types) without cutting, pain or loss of time. Also Outstanding Ears, Thick Lips, Baggy Eyes, Frown Lines, Hollow Cheeks, Double Chin, Receding Chin, Moles, Warts, Worn Red Veins, Red Nose, Scars, Pittings, Pimples, Blackheads, Oily Skin, Tattoo, Superfluous Hair on Face, Skin and Scalp Troubles by the GIBSON METHOD.

LIFTING THE FACE
Without Cutting
Years younger. Eyes like a girl's. Complexion naturally fine. Filled—no lines. No temporary disfigurement.

FINE LINES—WRINKLES—CROWS'-FEET removed. Gone in a few minutes. NEW method in two weeks. Lasts 10 to 15 years.

A. S. GIBSON, M. D.

100 BOYLSTON ST., Phone 1930 Beach
Consultation free—Send for free booklet. Hours, 10 to 6. Graduate, have equipped Dermatological Inst. Established nearly 30 years. Eves. and Daily. Sunday 10-1.
BEWARE OF IMITATORS
If you wish reliability and definite results

Dancing

ORIGINAL RELIABLE, APPROVED
Dr. LERNER'S ACADEMY OF DANCING
(Near Hunt.)
Private lessons 8 A. M. to 10 P. M. Personal instruction by educated corps of assistants. Lerner, Latest ballroom, dances and ballet. Beginners' class now forming.
Tel. B. B. 9382

Dance Like the Stars ☆ On the Stage
Soft-Shoe, Buck & Wing, Fancy, Waltz, Clog, Character, Comedy Eccentric, Musical Comedy Dancing, Shuffle Ball Change, Etc.
PROF. LESLIE
Ballet Dancer. A Man That Can Dance.
333 Main St. Rox. Bry 9383-9384

? MODEL SCHOOL
Modern Dancing—177 Huntington av. (Girard Bldg.)
We Can Positively Teach You Quickly. Adult beginners cordially urged to join. Our teachers are expert, helpful, courteous. Latest steps. Refined atmosphere. Even if you attend elsewhere—Try us NOW.

"ANYBODY CAN LEARN" STAGE DANCING
By our original easy method taught by Famous Stage Dancers. Buck, Wing, Soft Shoe, Waltz-Clog, Acrobatic.
BITTEN & WEIS SCHOOL
1230 Tremont St. Roxbury 2100

FLORENCE KELLY
240 Huntington Ave., Cor. Mass. Ave. 500 Learn quickly latest modern ballroom dances. Also Outstanding Feature. Class lessons, Wednesday and Saturday evenings. Private lessons by appointment. Class forming now. Tel. Back Bay 7707 Beach 882.

Wm. H. O'Brien East Bay 7273 Beach 882
Classes Monday, Tuesday, Thursday Socials Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings

LOOMIS 32 MASS. AVE.
Tel. CONCORD 3473
Modern Steps. Public dancing Saturday evenings.

Mabel G. Hall 536 BOYLSTON ST. Tel. B. B. 8161
Learn quickly, expert teachers, terms reasonable.

Prof. WISEMAN 650 MASS. AVE. Central Sq., Cam.
230 Tremont St., Boston Beach 2070; Bel. 2062
Modern Dancing Conducted in 4 Private Lessons

GILBERT L. ROGERS, Teacher of dancing. Private lessons, classes; children and adults. Studio, 149-51 Hotchkiss Chambers, Copley sq. Tel. Back Bay 1182.

LEARN to dance at the BAY STATE, 1951 WASHINGTON ST. Tel. Beach 1000. Most popular dances. Circulars.

I am always glad to be in Boston. It is still and will always be the "Hub."—Sir Charles F. Higham, Great Britain.

BOSTON AMERICAN

Largest Evening Circulation in New England— January 29, 1924

The city of Boston first provided free public baths (six houses) in 1866, but only for use in the Summer months.

Let Smoot Quit Oil Lease Inquiry

Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, is a member of the Senate Committee on Public Lands, engaged in investigating the Teapot Dome leases and the other leases of naval oil lands made by Ex-Secretary Albert B. Fall.

Senator Smoot has been put in a position where he cannot with propriety remain a member of that committee. He has disclosed business and personal relationships with parties which the Committee is investigating, relationships which disquality him from being their examiner and judge.

Last Thursday, at the Committee's hearing in Washington, Senator Smoot slipped a note to E. L. Doheny, who, half an hour later, testified that he had loaned Fall one hundred thousand dollars cash without security and without interest at a time when Fall was negotiating the leases of naval oil land to Doheny and Sinclair.

By chance Senator Walsh saw the note being passed, and, when Doheny had concluded his formal statement, Senator Walsh asked him if he had been in communication with any member of the committee. Mr. Doheny replied "No."

Senator Walsh: Did you get a note from Senator Smoot?

Mr. Doheny: Yes.

Doheny then produced the note from his pocket, torn to fine bits, and sprinkled it like snow upon the green Committee table. Walsh asked Doheny what Smoot had written him.

Mr. Doheny: He asked me to stop in his office after the hearing.

Senator Smoot: Well, to save you from coming to my office this evening, when you are through testifying I will ask you now what I was going to ask you in the office.

Mr. Doheny: Yes.

Senator Smoot: When you were here before I asked you if you would not let your man in California make an examination of some property that my friends were undertaking to drill down there and to give you his opinion whether they had a chance in that wildcat well.

Mr. Doheny: Yes, sir. And I went to look at the properties myself with Mr. Anderson.

Senator Smoot: And I had never heard from you, and I wanted to hear from you today, and that is the reason I wanted you to come into the office.

Mr. Doheny: Well, I can give you the answer just as publicly as you ask the question, Senator, if you wish it: That we both looked at the properties of that concern—both Mr. Anderson and I—and Mr. Anderson endeavored to make an arrangement with them to buy their oil, which means that he supposed that they were going to get oil.

Senator Smoot: Well, I will say to you now, also, that I understand that they have struck oil.

Mr. Doheny: Yes.

The note had been torn into pieces too fine to admit of piecing together. Citizens are quite willing to conclude that Senator Smoot and Mr. Doheny were telling the truth as to the contents of the note, trusting in the spotless integrity which should characterize a Senator of the United States.

The country is just as confident that Senator Smoot, when he recognizes the delicacy of the position in which he has placed himself, will resign from the Committee. During the investigation he has requested one of the chief subjects of the investigation to make an oil investigation for friends of his Mr. Doheny makes the investigation and his California manager is arranging to buy the oil.

The interests of Senator Smoot's party and of the country itself demand that public confidence in the investigating committee must not be impaired. By withdrawal at this time Senator Smoot is called upon to prevent that impairment by relieving the Committee of the embarrassment of his presence.

Clever English Statesmen

Too Clever for Our Amateurs

Copyright, 1924, Star Co.

The London Times, owned by Mr. Astor, whose father was an American, notifies this country that it must not elevate guns on its battleships. Elevating the guns would increase the range of battleships, and would put our ships, some of them, on a par with British ships, some, perhaps, ahead of the British ships.

It would be very interesting to know what President Coolidge decides on that subject.

If we can't change the elevation of our guns without the consent of England, why not ask England's consent before sending the ships to sea at all?

There was nothing in that silly "Washington Conference" agreement forbidding the elevation of guns in our navy. It is just a happy British afterthought. British statesmen are clever—too clever for our amateurs.

Science Beats Crime

Look at This Device

Copyright, 1924, Star Co.

Crime and trouble stimulate ingenuity. So does war. Here's a new kind of automobile for taking your money to the bank without interference from thieves.

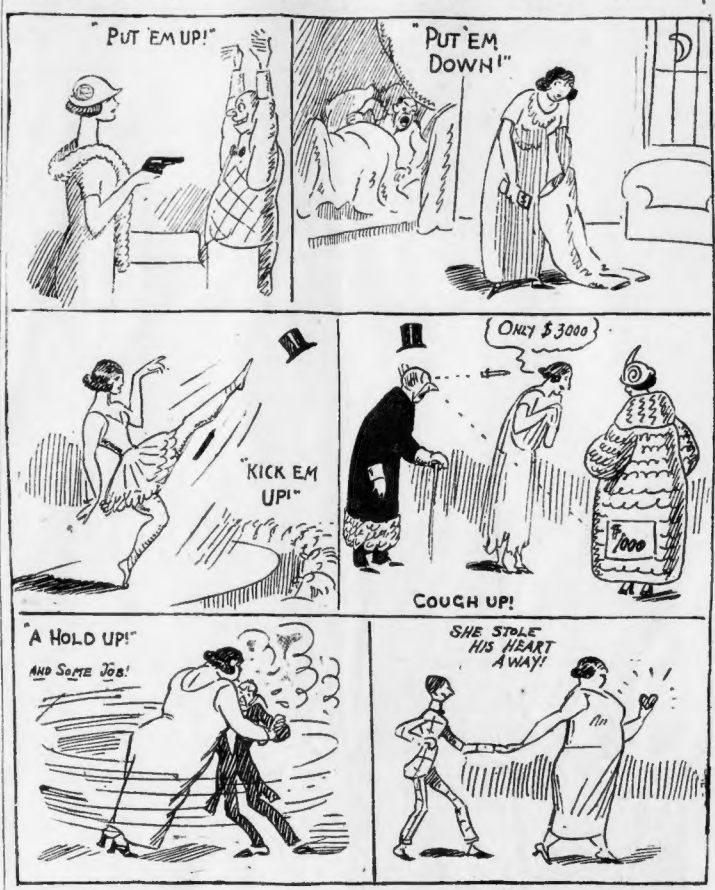
It has been tried and not found wanting. It has bullet-proof glass windows. Forty-five-calibre steel bullets cannot penetrate it.

The sides are protected with armor plating. And in case highwaymen should block the road and stop the car, it automatically releases poison gas and tear gas, from tanks under high pressure. The gas would make the highwaymen sorry they ever stopped the car. While they were sneezing and heaving, with two kinds of gas in their lungs, the inhabitants of the car, with gas masks on, would step out and shoot them up.

That seems to settle it.

Bobbed-Haired Bandits -:- By T. E. Powers

Copyright, 1924, Star Co.



LISTEN, WORLD! -:- By Elsie Robinson

I RECEIVE many letters in response to these articles. Some of them are very friendly letters. They give me a boost on the job, or a wise word of counsel. But some are extremely hostile. There's something queer about those hostile letters, Pal. They're nearly all alike, both as to subject, matter and style. First they tell me how much they liked me once upon a time. They spread themselves over that part. They make it sound like a particularly classy funeral notice. Then when I'm weeping fat, salt tears of regret over what I might have meant in their lives, they break loose and tell me why they've cut me off their calling list.

And how perhaps you're thinking that I've snuk around at night and kicked their pet dog, or stolen their baby's Sunday School money, or written them blackmailing letters or done something equally heinous. Far from it. My sole crime is this—I HAVEN'T AGREED WITH THEM. There they've gone on week after week thinking I was a nice kind, respectable, intelligent lady, one fit for admittance into their home circle, and then I go and say something that's absolutely contradictory to their viewpoint. So, of course, they never can trust me again, although they'll always remember how fond they were of me once.

Now why should this be? Am I writing obscene or treasonous matter? Obviously not. No editor would print it if I did. My views must be decent or they could never secure publication. They're DIFFERENT, that's all, and because they're different I am no longer a nice, kind, respectable, intelligent lady. But again I ask—WHY? Why should a New Idea be barred from the Family Circle as if it were a Malignant Germ? Why should we act as if Our View bore the divine copyright and all alien views were scandalous infringements? Why be offended by the quality of our friends' ideas any more than we would be offended by the shape of their noses?

I'll confess I'm as guilty as the next one in this matter. I talk like an enlightened soul, but don't you take any stock in it. I have all records for good humor beaten, as long as everyone agrees with me. But let them advance a different viewpoint, and they get right in the murderer class as far as I'm concerned. What quaint creatures we humans are!

(Copyright, 1924, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

THE HELPING HAND

Letters Not Answered Personally. No Attention Paid to Telephone Calls or Anonymous Letters. No Names Published.

Warm Clothing

Editor Helping Hand:

Please send me the name of some mother in need of clothing for her children, as I have woolen shirts and four pairs of woolen stockings and socks, one sweater, one cashmere jacket, two dresses, two caps, two pairs of bootees, and a few other things for an infant; one cloak for a girl fourteen, and two dresses and middy blouses for a girl eight or nine. They are all in good condition.

MRS. E. F. B.

Thank you. You have been sent the address of Mrs. O. E. J., who is struggling to budget food and clothing for eight into twenty dollars a week.

For Needy Person

Editor Helping Hand:

I have the following things someone might be able to use: Woman's Winter coat, size 38, slip-on sweater size 38, heavy dress, size 38, three skirts with 28-inch waist band, black shirt with 30-inch waist band. Hope you will find some needy person who would like these, and I will send them as soon as I receive their address.

MRS. C. H. C.

Thank you. You have been sent the address of M. E., whose husband has deserted her, who wears 10½. The suits he has worn are the Oliver Twist kind, and he cannot button them himself, as one of his hands are paralyzed. I have no way of getting these things for him, as we are all out of work here—haven't averaged ten dollars a week for eight weeks. I haven't the nerve to ask for myself. I need so much, but I do wish I could get some rubbers or overshoes, size 6.

MRS. S. A. T.

Sends a List

Editor Helping Hand:

I have a three-quarters bed and spring and also a pair of men's shoes, size 8½, a pair of fleece-lined underskirts, size 40, for a man, and a hanging oil lamp, a woman's Winter coat size 40, and a teddy bear for some poor child.

MRS. D. M.

Thank you for all these things. You have been sent the address of Mrs. J. G., mother of a family of six for whom there are only two beds. She will also be grateful for the other things, except the lamp, which we will hold for replies.

Needs Coat Badly

Editor Helping Hand:

Is there some reader who would be willing to help a poor unfortunate fellow who is in Rutland Sanitarium? He is badly in need of a coat, size 38. Any good whole one will serve the purpose. It will be more than appreciated as he is without funds or relatives.

MRS. L. A. F.

Clothes for Child

Editor Helping Hand:

I have some clothes for a little girl from two to three that I would like to give to some little tot. Also I have a coat for Mrs. N. D. J., if you would send me her address. It is worn, but better than nothing.

MRS. J. F. T.

Thank you. You have been sent the addresses of Mrs. N. D. J. and Mrs. C. E. B., who has a girl of two and a half in need of dresses.

Generous Offer

Editor Helping Hand:

Will you kindly send me the address of some worthy man that

Continued on Page 17, where "The Voice of New England" will also be found.

DR. FRANK CRANE ON USEFULNESS OF A PRESS AGENT

By Dr. Frank Crane

THE Press Agent is commonly looked upon as a kind of nuisance.

He is not. His calling is a very useful one.

The Press Agent is the man whose business it is to inform the public about the ideas and affairs of the concern he represents.

Most concerns make their profits from the public, and if they are sound concerns they make their profits by serving the public.

The Press Agent is the necessary means of communication between the concern and the public.

All newspaper offices are flooded with material from Press Agents. Much of this does not interest them. Some of it is badly done and useless. But there is a part of this material which is valuable and serves a good purpose.

Theatres have their Press Agents because it is plain that a theatre depends upon the public for its support.

By the same token railroads, manufacturers and other forms of business maintain Press Agents. Publishing houses, hotels and the like are also coming into the field. Proper publicity is wholesome as light is wholesome. The man who wants nobody to know anything about his business subjects himself to the suspicion that there is something crooked in it.

I have always thought that what Wall Street needs is a good Press Agent. Wall Street simply means the financial market of the country. Of course, crooked things go on there, as they go on wherever you will find human beings. But that market is a necessity, and serves a purpose that is quite essential. One trouble with it is that it is kept too quiet. It has done too much gumshoeing. It ought to let the people of the country at large know much more about what is going on and how it is going on. It would not only help the country, but would help Wall Street itself.

And I have always thought that when I am elected President of the United States I shall hire me a Press Agent, and shall issue a statement once a week telling the whole people what I am up to. I shall take them into my confidence, not necessarily as to details, but as to my general purposes and plans.

The Constitution provides that the President shall, upon occasion, tell Congress what he thinks ought to be done. I should do that, and I should also tell the people regularly something about what is going on in their government, and what that government is trying to do.

Advertising has passed the stage when it is merely blowing one's own horn or crowding oneself into conspicuity. Advertising is now a necessity to business, because it is the utterance of business, and a business that has learned to talk intelligently is as far in advance of a business that does not know how to talk as an educated man is in advance of a savage.

The Press Agent is a useful cog in the machinery of business. He ought to be a man of skill, of training, of resource and of tact. To get that kind of a man it is necessary to pay him well. The Press Agent, if he is a good one, is worth whatever he costs. If he is a poor one he is worse than none at all.

(Copyright, 1924, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

GARRETT P. SERVISS ON FIGURING PROFIT

By Garrett P. Serviss,

Famous Astronomer and Writer on Scientific Topics of Popular Interest.

"What is really meant by 100 per cent? Is it possible to have a greater percentage than 100 per cent? If a merchant buys an article for 1 cent and sells it for $1, what percentage of profit does he make? In the event that he buys it for nothing and sells for a dollar is it possible at all to figure out the percentage of profit?

T. W. J. AND A. V."

ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. means 100-100, i. e., 100 per 100. Five per cent. means 5-100, or 5 per 100. If 100 units of work are put into an engine and 25 units are derived from its operation then its efficiency is 25 per cent., or 25-100. The meaning of "per cent." is per hundred, the word cent being an abbreviated form of the Latin centum (hundred.)

In the commercial use of the term percentage, and in reckoning interest, the idea of profit, or gain, has to be introduced. If a merchant purchased an article for 100 cents and sold it for 100 cents he would be getting cent per cent, but there would be no profit, and a continuation of business on that plan would put him into bankruptcy and despair. Men must eat and drink, they must be clothed and sheltered, they must pay wages and bills, and also they must be more or less merry, or die. Consequently in human relations percentage has to be treated on a different basis from that which serves for dealing with mere machines, or the grades of a roadbed.

The percentage that the merchant or investor is interested in does not begin to count until after the point is reached where every unit of outgo is balanced by a similar unit of income. For that is the point where profit begins to come in. If profit there is to be. When the article that cost 100 cents is sold for 125 cents, there arises a profit percentage of 25-100, or 25 per cent. If the selling price is increased to 200 cents, the profit percentage rises to 100-100, i. e., 100 per cent., meaning that the seller has received 100 units of profit in addition to the 100 units of simple return that cover the cost.

Thus 100 per cent. profit implies that for every cent originally paid out by the seller, he has taken in two cents. In other words, he has "doubled his money." But he has not gained 200 cents, but only 100 cents, and out of that he must pay many expenses, so that only a fraction of his 100 per cent. gain will go toward making him a billionaire.

You seem to get puzzled over what happens if the selling price goes higher still; that is, becomes more than double the cost. Suppose the article that cost 100 cents is sold (if anybody can be persuaded to pay the price) for 1,000 cents; then what is the percentage? The selling price is 1,000-100, or ten hundred per cent., while the profit is nine hundred per cent.

I see no reason why we should not thus speak of percentages exceeding a hundred. The basis in every case is the centum (100). It is with that that the comparison is made. One hundred per cent. is one hundred to one hundred; two hundred per cent. is two hundred to one hundred, and so on. When the commercial principle of profit is introduced we have only to deduct one hundred from the percentage to cover the original cost.

When we get back exactly what an article cost you you receive a hundred per hundred. If you get back three times what the article cost, you receive three hundred per hundred, and gain two hundred per hundred.

But outside of commercial and financial transactions percentage does not go above one hundred. Nature seldom returns even cent per cent.—except to herself. She is protected by the law that forbids us to get more energy out of a machine than we put into it.

Profit is a human conception. Nature knows nothing of it and will pay none. Gold cannot be more than 100 per cent. pure. In most cases perhaps she is interest if they could get it, but they can't. An example of a percentage limited to 100 is found in the application of the principle of slope. A road that had 100 per cent. steepness, or slope, would be vertical, and there could be no increase of the percentage. So the sine of an angle may increase to 100 per cent. of the radius, but can go no higher.